Hats and Hats

Well, 'tis hardly necessary to talk about Hats, as we have them right on top of the heads of so many, however, we'll say this: If we can't fit your head both inside and out, and your purse too, you better leave your measure at some large factory. The main trouble is keeping in sizes.

Gunning Accidents.—Mr. Norman P. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Sutton, living near Pomona, on the farm known as "Hilltop", met with an accident last Thursday while out gunning. He fired and the gun exploded, it twisted the barrel, bent it, tore barrel from breech and right where the explosion occured it left the barrel standing on its end. His wrist was badly sprained and hand bruised. Dr. Simmons dressed the wound.

Chrysanthemum Tea.—The elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice on Washington avenue was the scene of a recherche affair on Wednesday evening. The occasion was a tea given by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Chestertown M. E. Church. The home was lighted from garret to cellar and the porch was decorated with Japanese lanterns while the spacious rooms were beautifully ornamented with lovely chrysanthemum flowers grown by Mrs. Brice, Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Smith, Miss Etta Edwards, and others. Music was furnished by Miss Mabel Toulson, pianist and Mr. Kemp Bordley, violinist. The reception committee included Mesdames James Brice, H. H. Klinefelter, J. R. Clements, W. B. Copper, H. B. Simmons and Miss Ella Wilkins. Mrs. T. S. Bordley had charge of the chrysanthemum display and most of the blooms were sold at a good figure.

The dining room was beautiful in its general appearance while the bevy of charming waitresses added more interest to the scene. Ices, coffee and cakes were served. Mrs. Wilbur Eliason and Miss Idel Baker presided here with the following graceful assistants, viz., Misses Irma Eliason, Anna Smith, Hallie Toulson, Mary Fleming, Reba Strong, Susie Dunbracco, Miss Coxe, and Rose Vickers. Miss Sallie Wilkins pinned a small flower on each guest and Messrs. H. B. Klinefelter and W. Bradford Copper were the treasurers. It was a delightful social event and quite a neat sum realized for a good cause.

Two valuable pieces of property were sold at public sale in Easton on Saturday. Ambrose Lucas bought the Taylor, or Morgan farm, in Chapel district, containing 247 acres, for $17,425. The other farm was the Redmond farm, 202 acres, in Chapel district, and was purchased by William B Dulin for $8,500.

Mr. Walter Woodall, who owns the Collins farm near Elkton, this week purchased Hollingsworth woods, situate just opposite Mr. Woodall's farm, from Messers. W. A. Mitchell and Henry M McCullough, executors of the late Dr. H. H. Mitchell, for $1,000.

Not a Racer.—The publication that Mr. A. L. Sparks had bought a horse for the purpose of putting him on the turf was erroneous. Mr. Sparks needed a driving horse and in getting something fast had no idea of entering him in any race. Mr. Sparks is a member of the firm of Sparks & Jefferson, the hustling successors to R. Bergen, and gives all his time to the business.

ROOSEVELT ELECTED

The Democrats seemed to Have Remained At Home or Voted For The Winner—A Great Blow To Independents and Gold Democrats.

GENERAL PROSPERITY CAUSED THE SWEEP.

The latest returns from Tuesday's election show that in Maryland there was a great decrease in the vote cast from the vote in 1900. On the unofficial returns Roosevelt has a plurality of 126 in the State, which may be changed by the official count. Baltimore City gives a plurality of 413 for Parker.

The Maryland Congressional delegation is evenly divided, the Democrats electing Thomas A. Smith in the First district by 404 majority over Congressman Jackson. In the Second Congressman Talbott, Democrat, has a majority of 2,429 over Garrett. In the Fourth John Gill, Democrat, received a majority of 1,705 over Smith, Republican. The Republicans re-elected Congressmen Wachter, Mudd and Pearre by the respective pluralities of 2,165, 3,188 and 3,948.

Roosevelt has received the unprecedented plurality of 1,846,641 in the popular vote, according to the estimates, which is nearly 1,000,000 more than McKinley's 1900 plurality of 861,527—at that time a record breaker. These figures may be considerably reduced when the official count is made. The plurality of 450,000 for Roosevelt in Pennsylvania alone is almost as much as Parker's total pluralities in the States he carried, 497,000. Bryan's aggregate pluralities in 1900 were 590,926.

Of the total electoral vote of 476, Roosevelt received 343 and Parker 133, a Republican plurality of 210, which may be compared with McKinley's plurality of 137 in 1900.

Roosevelt carried all the States which McKinley won in 1900 and in addition Missouri, Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada, which Bryan carried in that year.

Both parties claim to have carried Colorado on the State ticket, but Alva Adams, Democrat, is leading. Roosevelts plurality is about 15,060.

Governor La Follette carried Wisconsin by 50,000, and says he controls the Legislature. Babcock's majority for Congress is only 384.

The election of John A. Johnson, Democrat, as Governor of Minnesota, is assured. Roosvelt's plurality there may reach 125,000.

In Massachusetts the plurality of William L. Douglas, Democrat, for Governor, is 35,710, though the State is Republican on the national ticket.

Governor L. F. C. Garvin, Democrat, was defeated in Rhode Island by only 594 votes.

The chances favor the success of George W. Berge, Fusionist, for Governor of Nebraska, though there was a landslide for Roosevelt in the State.

The Republicans will have a majority of 94 in the next House of Representatives. The Democrats will have 146 members of that body, the Republicans 240. The Republicans will probably gain one United States Senator from Missouri, increasing their majority in the Senate to 58

Democrats and Republicans both claim the Governorship of West Virginia. Though Roosevelt's plurality is probably 20,000, Dawson, the Republican candidate for Governor, was scratched so extensively that the returns so far received lead Democrats to believe that Cornwell is elected Governor. The Republicans elected all five Congressmen.

As a result of his re-election Congressman Slemp is expected to succeed Park Agnew as Republican State leader of Virginia. Parker's plurality in the State is about 25,000.

Both parties claim the Eighth North Carolina district for Congress.

Late returns from Missouri indicate that Roosevelt has carried the State by about 10,000 and that Joseph W. Folk, Democrat, is elected Governor by about 25,000. It is likely that the next Legislature, which will chose a successor to Senator Cockrell, will be Republican by plurality of 2 votes.

Hog Cholera.—This dread malady has made its appearance among the hogs of Kent county farmers and some have lost a number. One farmer near Fairlee had lost one hog and had several others very sick, when he came to Chestertown and had the following recipe from the NEWS filled: "bluestone, copperas, alum, sulpher, carbt, soda, assafoetida, salt". All of the above named ingredients can be mixed in a slop bucket. Say, for ten or fifteen Hogs put in about three tablespoonfuls of each of the ingredients except the assafetida, only one-half of that, then put in one-half gallon hot water, stir until it stops fermenting, then add water to the amount of one and one-half gallons in all, when it is dissolved it is then ready for use. Then put in about one gill of the solution for each hog in any good slops, and give them twice a day for five or six days, then discontinue. When used as a preventative give twice a day for three or four days every two months.

When they will not eat or drink, fill a bottle with the solution out of the bucket, take them between your legs, put a stick in their mouth and pour it in until it is full, then take it out and let them swallow, repeat five or six times, let him go; do that twice a day until he will eat, then continue his food for several days. Be sure and keep them in a dry lot in all cases while treating them.

He treated the sick hogs and they immediately recovered! Col. Josiah Massey recommends Jerusalem weed as preventative.
