OBITUARY.

In sweet memory of SARAH A. CREW who died 6 months to-day, Nov. 8th, 1904.

Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart.
Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
"We must forever part."

Dearest loved one we have laid thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

BY HER LOVING HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

HENRIETTA MARIE, oldest daughter of William T., and Martha Slagle, entered into rest Tuesday, October 25th, 1904.

How long she struggled against disease
Which baffled skill and care,
And long she lingered, racked with pain
And sufferings hard to bear.

And yet through all at times she'd smile
A smile of heavenly birth,
And when the angels called her home
She smiled farewell to earth.

MAMMA.

This lovely flower so young and fair
Called hence by early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower
In Paradise could bloom.

Hard we strove to keep her with us,
But love and skill were all in vain,
We must lay our darling loved one
'Neath the graveyard's sod away.

And in this our deepest sorrow
We pray thee, Eternal one,
Help us bow in meek submission.
And say, "Oh God, thy will be done."

FATHER.

We have no sister now
Lonely and sad is our home to-day.
We miss thee from thy place dear sister,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
But we hope someday to meet thee.
On that bright and happy shore.

BROTHERS AND SISTERS.

DIED.

Fell asleep on November 6th, PETER REYNOLDS, of Rock Hall, aged 70 years.

"Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Again we chronicle the death of one of our most respected residents, Mr. Peter Reynolds. He died on Monday morning at about 3 o'clock. He had long been a sufferer from cancerous affliction on the shoulder, and was about 64 years of age. Funeral services took place Tuesday afternoon conducted by Elder G. F. Jones, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Interment in Wesleyan cemetery, Casey Bros. in charge. The deceased is survived by a widow, who was a daughter of the late Martin Allen, and the following children: Mrs. Emma Stevens, Mrs. May Judefind and Mrs. Nettie Bramble.

Memorial service in honor of the late Darius Scott was held in the M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Mr. James Taylor, assistant Superintendent of the Sunday School, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Burr, who was filling his E. N. Island appointment. Messrs. J. E. Apsley and J. M. Downey made appropriate addresses.

News has reached here of the death of Mrs. J. T. Arthur, late a resident of this place, which has cast a gloom in many of our homes. Mrs. Arthur was a most estimable lady, beloved by all who knew her. The sympathies of many here go out to the bereaved family.

Mrs. William Gale is quite ill, and a great sufferer, but is exercising great christian fortitude.

Mr. M. Kramer has moved into the new dwelling on the Blackiston corner. Mrs. Kramer with a force of help, is getting her surroundings in splendid shape and a decided improvement in appearance is noticable. Mr. Kramer will move his mercantile business from the Downey corner, to the new store adjoining his residence next week.

Mr. James Kelly is a strong believer that an all-wise Providence has taken in hand the oyster bars of the bay and rivers, and has produced an immense growth of young oysters to show the Hamanites what can be done in replenishing the bars without the aid of humanity.

Messrs. T. J. Rich and F. A. Coleman are quite sick.

Well Messrs. Eds., Parker and Davis were snowed under in Tuesday's shower of ballots just as was anticipated. The money power, the machinery and every other advantage was in the hands of G. O. P. and the result could scarcely be otherwise. Democrats down here are taking the matter philosophically and hope for better things generally than now existing. The election here passed off quietly, but there was much complaint about some of our election officials.

Rev. and Mrs. Burr are off on a three weeks vacation which they will spend in the Sunny South. Revs. J. W. Parris, Milton McCann, W. B. Coleman and possibly G. S. Conoway will fill the M. E. pulpit during the absence of Mr. Burr.

Miss Ida Wood, one of our popular young ladies and Rev. J. L. Elderdice entered on the journey of matrimonial bliss on Thursday morning. The best wishes of hosts of friends and relatives go with them for a long and joyous life.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith are entertaining her mother Mrs. W. K. Lockwood, of Middletown. Mrs. Lockwood is an only sister of Mr. Robert S. Griffith, of this town.

Mr. I. Hodson and his wife, of near Sassafras, were in church on Friday evening last when the hired man came in town for them stating the shed where their horses were was on fire. It had just been about ten days since his stable barn and etc were burned down. Every one was very much worried over the affair. The fire had been built back of the horses and they were kicking the burning straw from their feet when the colored woman discovered a bright light and the shed on fire. It was fortunate the fire was discovered when it was. One horse had one foot and its tail burned some little.

Mrs. M. Massey and daughter Miss M. Massey, of Chestertown, is visiting her sons near Massey, E. Thomas Massey and Herman B. Massey.

The forty fifth anniversary of the old historic Rehoboth Church, where forefathers gathered years ago, was celebrated on Sunday here. Long before the hour for services every available hitching post in town was taken. Rev. F. T. Little D. D., preached to a large audience, a most beautiful sermon, and we heard one dear christian lady say "I was sorry when he closed his Bible" another faithful member for over forty years remarked, "It was a grand sermon the best I ever listened to," and so on, every one was charmed with the president and Rev. F. S. Cain. Our pastor did all he could to make the services enjoyable and entertaining, and the day will be long remembered. The choir rendered some special, choice and beautiful music. A beautiful anthem was rendered by Mrs. John F. Ernest, Mrs. John R. H. Price, Miss Bessie Gunkie, Mr. Robert S. Griffith and Mr. Andrew Reynolds in their most happy mood. with this special music and most beautiful sermons. The services were greatly enjoyed by all, and Miss Bessie Gunkie presided at the organ in her most brilliant style.

CHURCH NOTES.

Beautiful Harvest Home Servive At Wesley Chapel—College Students Conduct Service In Christ Church.

The two Christian Associations of Washington College had charge of the services at Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening. Mr. H. P. Porter, president of the men's association, and Miss Walker, of the ladies' association, made addresses on the history of the societies. Miss Anna Roe delivered an excellent address on "Prayer", Miss Hale on "Obedience," and Mr. George Newton on "Faithfulness." A trio was rendered by Misses Elva Smith and Lola Crew and Mr. Porter; a beautiful violin solo by Mr. Kemp Bordley with organ accompaniment by Miss Clara Usilton, and selection by the College Glee Club with solo by Mr. T. Emmet Hitch.

Rev. George H. Nock, State superintendent of Maryland Sunday-school Union, writes as follows: "Yes, a convention! What kind of convention? A District Convention. What kind of District Convention? A Sunday School District Convention. Where? At Wesley Chapel M. P. Church. When? The evening of Nov. 19th and all day Sunday. Who are invited? Everybody—all faiths—all ages. What do you expect to accomplish? The awakening of great interest in Sunday-school work; The promotion of Bible study; the emphasizing of Teacher Training; helping the home; helping the community, and persuading the people that a child's soul is of more value than all the farms and banks of Kent County. Anything else? Yes, a District Sunday School Association will be organized as a step to the better organization of the whole county.

Now permit us to ask a few questions. Are you a pastor—if so will you not interest your people and be there yourself? Are you a superintendent—if so will you not see that your school is re-represented and be there yourself? Are you a teacher—if so will you not come and see if we cannot help you to be a better teacher? Are you a parent—if so will you not come and manifest your interest in the work which is being done for your children?"

The Sunday School at Wesley Chapel observed Sunday as "Harvest Home" day and a special program was rendered Sunday morning under the supervision of Mr. Milton L. Maslin, superintendent. The church was decorated with fruits, vegetables and flowers. The program included elegant songs by the choir from "Autumn Glory," Mrs. T. E. W. Crew organist, "The Pyramid of Beauty," by Julia Atkinson, Myra Wheat, Marie Greenwood, Jennie Hadaway, Helen Wagner, Paul Parris, Helen Miller, E. Wood, Shreeve Stevens, Edna Stevens, Bulah and Pearl Kendall, Helen Gale, Lillian Wheatley, M. Burgess, N. Willis, T. Wheat and Alice Wheat; recitation by Annie May Gale; "Love's Tribute" by Paul Parris, Helen Gale, M. Burgess, Alice Wood, Julia Atkinson and Marie Greenwood; recitation by Ada Schriber, Julia Saterfield, Bessie Wheat, Ida Mercer, Myrtle Salisbury; address by Rev. Mr. Parris, pastor.

CHARLES S. SMITH,

Chestertown's Only Cash Merchant.

Wright Lorimer's great production of "The Shepard King" comes to the Academy of Music, Baltimore, for a two weeks visit, November 14th. In New York and Boston, where it has already enjoyed extended runs, it proved a revelation, and from the first night the demand for seats was so great that many orders had to be returned unfilled.

The beauty of the play and its moral teaching have been commended by the majority of prominent ministers in the east, while its dramatic value is atheme upon which reviewers have exhausted themselves. The size of the production has proved a source of amazement not only to theatergoers but to managers as well. It is without doubt the greatest spectacle ever preseuted on an American stage, being what might be termed a size larger than "Ben Hur" which has heretofore enjoyed that distinction.

The St. Paul's mission has to be cancelled as the Rev. W. A. Coale has been seized with serious eye trouble and is ordered by his physician not to do any extra work, but to go to an eye specialist for treatment and to rest himself.
