Hats and Hats

Well, 'tis hardly necessary to talk about Hats, as we have them right on top of the heads of so many, however, we'll say this: If we can't fit your head both inside and out, and your purse too, you better leave your measure at some large factory. The main trouble is keeping in sizes.

VOTE OF MARYLAND

Mr. Bonaparte Leads All For Presidential Elector.

With the official returns of Charles county and Worcester county fully ascertained and declared, the vote for Presidential electors in Maryland places Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte, Republican elector-at-large, at the head of the poll. He leads ex-Gov. Frank Brown by 344 votes, but he is the only Republican elector who pulls through. The lowest vote for Democratic elector was cast for T. Herbert Shriver, who got 107,285 votes and stays at home, while Mr. Samuel A. Mudd, hitherto considered defeated, is apparently saved by one vote more for him than for Mr. Shriver.

The electoral college of Maryland is, therefore, constituted of one Republican and seven Democrats, as follows:

Charles J. Bonaparte, Republican; Frank Brown, Elihu E. Jackson, John E. George, James King, Charles H. Knapp, Samuel A. Mudd and Ferdinand Williams, Democrats.

DEMOCRATS.		REPUBLICANS
Brown	109,744	Bonaparte	110,088
Jackson	107,521	Bretz	106,973
George	107,333	Walker	106,882
Shriver	107,285	Allen	106,721
King	107,343	Hartman	106,694
Knapp	107,286	Ogle	106,787
Mudd	107,286	Thomas	106,827
Williams	107,459	Sturgiss	106,865

ELECTORAL VOTE OF KENT.

The official returns of the Kent county vote for electors are as follows:

DEMOCRAT.		REPUBLICAN.
Brown	1,956	Bonaparte	1,841
Jackson	1,926	Bretz	1,826
George	1,925	Walker	1,828
Shriver	1,927	Allen	1,823
King	1,928	Hartman	1,826
Knapp	1,926	Ogle	1,824
Mudd	1,926	Thomas	1,825
Williams	1,931	Sturgiss	1,823

For Congress—Smith, Democrat, 1904; Jackson, Republican, 1842.

Heirs to $6,000—Heirs of Stephen Scarr, colored, who left Cecil county more than 75 years ago and settled in New York city, have been notified that they are shortly to come into possession of $6,000 the product of a small deposit made by Scarr in a New York bank in the year 1833. The deposit, was something over $400. He withdrew $12 of this sum and disappeared and has not been heard of since. The deposit with accumulated interest, now amounts to about $6,000. It has since been learned that Scarr died about 1866. He is known to have resided in Philadelphia about the close of the civil War, and, not having married his brother's children, upon the necessary proof, which is now being obtained, will fall heir to his estate. The heirs scattered throughout Pennsylvania, New York and Cecil county, number about 15 in all.

BUDGET OF LOCAL NOTES

HERBERT P. BRAMBLE, nephew of Mrs. Wm. B. Coleman, came to an untimely death in Baltimore Saturday by falling in front of a moving freight train. Both his legs were crushed and his arm cut off. He died a few hours after.

THE engagement of Mr. Wm. Lusby, of Cecilton, to Miss Helen Schraak, of Germantown, Pa., has been announced. The wedding is to take place in the near future.

THE case of Mrs. Francis P. Reed versus Mr. S. Amos Reed has created considerable interest in local circles. In this case Mrs. Reed prayed the court to set aside a deed of home farm given by her to Mr. Reed October 10, 1902, claiming that same was obtained by fraud and undue influence. The Court handed down their decision Tuesday dismissing the bill and decided the deed valid. Messrs. W. W. Beck and R. D. Hynson, represented the defendant and C. W. Fields, of Baltimore, and Marion deK. Smith, the plaintiff, Mrs. Reed.

THE "Good Looking Widow" is answering the numerous letters from her suitors and it is hoped she will find her ideal. A gentleman in Chestertown was disappointed when he received his answer because it was on a postal card! She stated that she had used all her paper and envelopes but it would be much more satisfactory if they could talk it over! This "good looking widow" lives in Worton.

Moody & Lusby have a sample of Queen Anne's fall strawberries in their show window.

WILL TOULSON, of Quaker Neck has killed seventy rabbits this fall!

F. V. SIMPERS, agent of the Prudential Insurance Company, is distributing some beautiful calendars for 1905. The Prudential girl for next year is a beauty.

IT is reported that the new management now in control of the Chester River Steamboat Company will dispense with the bar on all the boats. This report is founded on the fact that as soon as the Pennsylvania Railroad secured control of the B. C. & A. boats they closed every bar.

THE election in Kent county cost about $4500. This is $1500 less than last year. It is agreed by citizens generally that there is too much machinery about this law and that a judge and two registers could do the work as well as the large number now employed.

A VERY LOW TIDE was noted Monday in bay and river. The Emma Ford could not make Queenstown nor Bogle's on this day.

THE change of schedule of the Chester River Steamboat Company is noted in another column. On and after Monday the Ford will leave Chestertown on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8 A. M., returning leave Baltimore alternate days at 10.30 A. M. The Gratitude will run on the Centreville—Rock Hall route.

As announced in this paper last week an organ recital and musicale will be given in the Chestertown M. E. Church next Tuesday evening, Nov. 22. Miss Nettie Osborne Crane, of Baltimore, will be the organist; Mrs. Dr. James W. Cain, and Mr. George White, the soloists; and the church choir will render chorus selections. A silver offering will be taken. The program as arranged is as follows:

Organ, Offertoire in A flat, Edward M. Reed.

MR. CHARLES B. MASSEY, one of Smyrna's best known bachelor merchants Tuesday morning led to the altar Miss Margaret Blackiston, member of that well-known Kent family and daughter of former Sheriff Blackiston. Recently the handsome Prettyman residence was purchased by Miss Margaret Denney, and by her was newly furnished and remodeled. Miss Denney is an aunt of the bride-elect of Mr. Massey and the newly furnished residence, complete in fee simple, is one of the presents of the new Mrs. Massey.

THE Worcester Advocate, published at Snow Hill, Md., had trouble in getting out its last issue, as the following announcement in its editorial columns explains:

"We wish to apologize to our readers for the appearance of the paper this week. It is by far the worst looking sheet we ever turned out, but the fault is not entirely our own. The fact that the editor was away from town most of the week, and the further fact that he had to contend with and finally fire a drunken printer on his return home, explains matters. We have a fairly good opening in this office for a young man of sober and industrious habits, but Lord deliver us from such a sample of degraded humanity as the last one. If any of our brethern of the quill know of a printer who can fill our requirements, they will confer a favor on us by telling him to write us immediately."

Educate your printers in the way they should go and when they grow old they will not depart therefrom. Chestertown has the best set of printers and printer boys in the country and we take pride in this statement. It is only our modesty that forbids us saying that the NEWS' force heads the list.

To Be Held At Betterton.—The next annual meeting of the Maryland Pharmaceutial Association will be held at Betterton on June 20 to 23, 1905. The local secretaries are Messrs. M. A. Toulson, Emory S. Wroth and E. E. Hudson. Mr. Owen C. Smith, of Baltimore, a Kent boy, is the Secretary of the State Association and we are indebted to him for a copy of the annual report. It is intended to make the meeting at Betterton a memorable occasion.

THE wedding of Miss Mary Clendaniel, formerly of Kennedyville, to Mr. George Higman, of Phila., was quietly solemnized at Union M. E. parsonage, Wilmington, by the Rev. J. D. Adams on Wednesday evening. The bride wore a beautiful brown broadcloth, tailor-made suit, with hat and gloves to match, while the groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony they returned to their beautifully furnished home lately purchased by the groom.

THE Kent County Savings Bank was awarded county script of $2 000 issued by county commissioners Tuesday, they being the lowest bidders of the three banks. The three were close contestants.

MASTER WILBUR HUBBARD is the proud owner of a beautiful little pony and trap given him as a Christmas present by his fond parents. The little chestnut is four years old and not over forty inches high.

THE Treasurer will be at Lankford next Monday.

MARRIAGE LICENSES have been granted this week to Sam'l J. Everett and Mattie Benson; B. Frank Gardner and Maggie L. Meekins; Richard Bryan and Belle Dizell.

THE Pepsimint Chemical Company organized Thursday night and elected the following officers: President, L. B Russell; Vice-President, M. W. Thomas; Treasurer, J. H. Sides; Secretary and Manager, John M. Toulson. The capital stock is $25,000.

A FINE DAY'S sport was enjoyed Thursday by Cashier Wm. F. Russell, Clerk Charles L. Dodd and Capt. Pheffer. They brought home fifteen rabbits and five squirrels. "There was something doing all the time," say the hunters. Capt C. E. Crane bagged a dozen birds one day this week.

A sportsman from Crumpton went gunning one day this week and lost his gun and at this writing has not found it!

The Chestertown Bank.—The charter of the Chestertown National Bank expires Dec. 1st, 1904. The directors of that bank secured from the Legislature of Maryland, during the session of 1904, a charter for "The Chestertown Bank of Maryland," which bank has been duly organized, and is prepared to do a general bank business. It has purchased of the old bank, its banking house, furniture and fixtures, and is now receiving deposits, discounting paper, etc.

The directors of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, believe that it can continue to occupy the field of usefulness in this community, so long and so successfully held by the "Farmers and Mechanics Bank," the "Kent National Bank" and the "Chestertown National," from the early "Forties" down to the present time.

It proposes to keep abreast of the popular demands of the Twentieth Century, by its Savings Department, allowing interest on deposits, its Safe Deposit Boxes, for the use of its depositors; and its improved facilities for loans to its depositors on approved notes, bonds, stock, or real estate security. Its stockholders are among the most active, energetic business men of the community, and its officers are experienced and capable.
