Suit and Overcoat selling season we ever had. A great many lines have been restocked several times. But its getting late for us to expect replenishments from manufacturers, as we are now placing orders for next summer.

Our Big and Little Boy's

Suits and Overcoat department has received a liberal share of trading and we have been complimented on both selections and prices by a good many ladies who have been trading in the city.

HEAVY ICE IN BAY

Six Inches Thick Above Betterton—Emma A. Ford Running, Leaving Baltimore 2 p. m.—Conditions Grow Serious.

The latest reports regarding the ice in the upper part of the Chesapeake bay are that it will take but a few degrees more of cold to completely block navigation. The Anthony Groves, of the Ericsson Line, struck the heaviest ice at Betterton. Officers of the boat said that the crust in the Chesapeake and Delaware canal was about three inches thick.

"We had but little trouble, however," said the officer, "until we were off Betterton. There solid ice spread over the bay as far down as Pooles Island. At Betterton the snow broth and ice were fully six inches thick, and gave us considerable trouble before we could tie up at the wharf. It was necessary to ram some of the ice before the steamer could force her way through. We do not expect to lose trips unless the grip of the ice is considerably tightened."

On the Sassafras River.

The steamer Susquehanna, of the Tolchester Company, failed to make landings at Betterton and Buckneck, on Worton creek, Tuesday and Capt. Eliason has decided to withdraw the regular schedule and replace it with "weather and ice permitting". The boat got within a mile of Betterton Wednesday and several passengers reached her by walking out on the ice. The Port Deposit boats have been withdrawn.

The steamer Emma Ford, Capt. William Taylor, has not missed her trips to Chestertown. Solid ice was encountered by the Ford as far down the river as Booker's wharf yesterday. The greatest was met in Queenstown creek, where solid ice several inches thick was struck. No stops on the route were missed, however. On and after Monday the Ford will leave Baltimore at 2 p. m. This is a change for the better.

STILL POND NEWS.

The Farmers' club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Shafer last Thursday. Those presedt were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pennington, Miss Lizze Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crawford, Capt. and Mrs Daniel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. L. Redmile, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Judge F. H. Harper, Rev T. F. Beauchamp, Mr. J. Jarrel. At 5 o'clock the meeting adjourned to meet January 7th at Capt. D. Hill's.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinsons' Tuesday evening. All kinds of games were played until 10 o'clock when all were invited out to refreshments. Among those present were, Misses Davis, Ruth Robinson, Daisy Severson, Mary and Katie Capps, Messrs. Clarence Biddle, Jack Whiteley, John Jervis, Ernest Briscoe, Carl Lynch, Willie Thompson, Harry Ricards, Carl Norris, and others.

The Epworth League was led Sunday evening by Miss Jennie Coleman, the subject being "Good and bad Habits."

Many went to Betterton to meet the boat this week, but on account of the ice the boat could not get in.

Mr Price Stanley and El. Crowding visited town Monday.

Miss Elsie Ricards who has been visiting friends at St. Georges has returned home.

Miss Moffett spent Sunday the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. L. Ford.

SANTA CLAUS LETTERS.

Children Make their Appeals to Old Kris Through the News—He Will Answer Each One the Best He Can.

Old Kris is indeed rich in the love of the little ones. Mrs. Kris, too, has received her share of attention. The NEWS feels proud of the unselfish spirit of our little readers and as one expresses it, they "Could not be happy unless others were happy, too," Below will be found a number of the letters sent to Old Kris through the NEWS. He has promised us to answer each one of these letters at Christmas and to bring each little girl and boy as many of the things they want as they can afford.

The gift most frequently requested is a doll. Even the small boy longs for this cherished treasure—when he doesn't want a billy goat.

Should the weather, such as we are now enjoying continue, surely Kris Kringle, with his reindeer and sleigh, will have but little, if any, trouble reaching the homes of his many little friends.

Some of the letters forwarded were as follows:

Hynson Loud, Chestertown R. R. 2—I want you to bring me a sweater, a pair of gum boots, a sled and lots of candy and nuts and don't forget my brother and sister.

Frances Bacon, Chestertown—I am a little girl five years old and think I have been a right good girl and would like for you to stop at our house. I would like to have a stove, and some cooking utensils with it, some blocks, some nice picture books a doll, nuts and candy from the candy kitchen and don't forget that I have a brother and sister.

J. Alvin McCauley, Galena—Won't you please bring me a big express wagon. I am one of seven children and me and my brother Granville, have all the wood to put on the back porch and need a wagon. If you can not bring us both one, bring one between us; our plates you will find on the dining table please fill with candy, nuts and oranges and dear Kris do not forget my dear good Mama and we have a sweet new baby sister since you were here last Xmas, little Eva; bring her a stick of mint candy. Mary, my four year old sister wants a baby coach.

Beula Davis, Rock Hall—I would like for you to bring me a writing desk, a black board a pair of gum boots No. 10. I go to school now and I will need them. Please bring Mama a pocket purse and bring me some candy, nuts and oranges, and please remember all of my cousins, Catherine, Frances, Arnold and Carl, and please don't forget little Edna she is so nice, bring her a little rattle.

Freddie F. Robinson, Chestertown—I do not want much this year as you have so many to go to, I want some nuts and candy a horn, a jack in the band box, a drum, and a penknife and hobby horse, please do not forget my little sister and three little brothers. I live up by Mrs. Ringgolds store.

Lindsey Severson—Still Pond—I am a little boy four years old, I try to be a good boy. Please bring me a velocepide, pair gum boots a little sled, pretty tree, candy, nuts and oranges.

Lilly Elizabeth Jester—I am a little girl just eight years old, sometimes I am a good girl. I hope you will bring me a carriage for my dolly, a pair of shoes, two pair of stockings, a pair of gloves, hip garters, candy, nuts, oranges, dates, figs and lots of other good things to eat.

Joseph Walter Jester,—Please bring me a nice warm cap, two pair of stockings, a pair of gloves, candy, nuts, oranges, bananas, dates, figs and a nice toy. I am a good little boy.

Frank Beaton Jester,—I am a pretty good little fellow and hope you will bring me everything I want, let that be a nice warm cap, two pair of stockings, Gloves, and a good pair of shoes, Candy, nuts, oranges, bananas, dates figs and lots of other things. If you think we will have lots of snow you can bring me a sled.

Josie Cox, Locust Grove—I am a little boy 9 years old go to school every day. Please bring me a pair of boots, pistol and caps, candy, jump jack, nuts, oranges, mouth organ, cars, and drum.

Catherine Cox, Locust Grove—Will you please bring me a doll baby, a horn, candy nuts, apples, oranges and a little horse I saw down in Mr. Harper's store, please don't forget me Kris for I am a little girl four years old. Don't forget mama and papa.

Nannie Ryan, Rock Hall—Well as Xmas is drawing near and as you come to see me every year I will write again asking you for a few presents kindly leave under our tree a pretty doll. I have one but she is getting too old and ugly, a set of dishes, a little stove, different kinds of games, some nuts, oranges candies, apples, and shooting crackers and please sir don't slight papa, sister and brother bring them something also remember my school teacher Miss Lillian Maslin she deserves something nice and pretty. I must close and not take so much time in writing trusting you remember your little girl.

Birtha Cox, Kennedyville—I want you to bring me a sled, a nice pair of shoes an album and a nice story book; please don't not forget my little sister and baby brother, we all want nuts, candy, oranges, apples, and everything that is nice.

Lelia Everet, Chestertown—I want you to bring me a doll coach, doll hat, wash board and tub and work basket. I will not ask you to bring me anything more, but will be pleased with anything you bring me, good bye, be sure to come see me and sister.

Charles Hodgkins, Jr., Chestertown—Please bring me a pair of gum boots, a football a sled, trim my tree and bring some candy, nuts, oranges and story book.
