A CARD ON RUBEROID ROOFING

It has come to our knowledge that dealers of other brands of flexible Roofing, many of them ending with the syllable roid so as to confuse or deceive people with the name of Ruberoid, such as Paroid, Fairoid, Seasoid and Shamsoid (which later name is truly a correct one, as it is a sham in comparison with Ruberoid and applies equally true to all the other oids on the market,) We, the undersigned, hereby challenge the wearing quality of their oids with the wearing quality of RUBEROID. We guarantee that half-ply Ruberoid Roofing will outwear any other brand of one ply "Oid" Roofing that one ply Ruberoid Roofing will outwear any other brand of old, two ply Roofings and so on. ☞REMEMBER—There is only one Ruberoid Brand Roofing on the market.

BRIGHT SIDE OF LIFE.

Many Social Events Throughout the County—Receptions and Surprises.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Massey, Jr., bride and groom, were given a surprise Monday night by a number of friends at their home on the Snitcher farm. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jarman, Mrs. Joseph Baxter, Mrs. Rol. Hurlock, Misses Nannie Massey, Martha Evans, Helen and Hettie Jefferson, Maude De ford, Katie Catlin and Grace Gibson. Messrs. Ambrose Carroll, Sterling Evans, Charles Boggs, James Lucas Paul Massey and Lambert Shallcross.

A surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nichols, near Chestertown, on Tuesday evening.

The most enjoyable event of the season was a surprise party given by Miss Blanche Johnson, at the hospitable home of her parents near Massey, by a few of her many friends on Friday, Jan. 13. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in some very fine music and dancing, the music being furnished by Messrs. Andrew and Herman McCauley and sisters, Miss Daisy McCauley and Mrs. A. Wilson Cochran on the violin, cornet and piano. After the dancing had subsided several of the guests played a few of their choice pieces while a number of musical voices made the hearers feel as though the whole world was in music, as all present expressed themselves as being wonderfully pleased. About 10.30 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where the table stood beautifully decorated with flowers and fairly groaning under the load of cake, lemonade, nuts, fruits and candies of all kinds which was served in abundance. Several of our friends thinking that all eyes should be on one mischievous chap to keep him from playing any of his jokes tried hard to watch him; but as we are never at a loss for opportunities the desired point was accomplished by an innocent joke being played on one of the married men who was not long in detecting it and of course blamed it on one who could honestly plead guilty. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Misses Florence and Nellie Hurlock, Mary and Helen Woodall, Lizzie Woodall, May and Carrie Roe, Francis Johnson, Agnes Clark, Florence Spry, Alice Dreka, Addie Ford, Daisy McCauley, Jennie Cochran, Nellie McCauley, Mrs. Louis Dreka and Mrs. F. R Wooters, Messrs. Andrew and Herman McCauley, Bradford Price, Keith Cochran, Durney and Geo. Oldham, Louis Dreka, R. Bradford Johnson, Richard Cochran, Lyn Caulk, Andrew Woodall, Dr. E. A. Scott, Chas. Spry. Mr and Mrs. Johnson are so well known as being such delightful host and hostess it is needless to say that all present had a delightful time and found it a difficult task to leave until quite late. It was in the wee small hours in the morning that the guests after wishing Miss Johnson many returns of the occasion, bid farewell to one and all and left for their respective homes.

A delightful social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Money, near Kennedyville, on Wednesday eve, January 11. A number were present and games of all kinds were indulged in until about 11 o'clock when all were invited to the large dining room and served refreshments, consisting of oranges, apples, candies, lemonade, cake and cocoa. At a late hour the guests departed hoping to spend many more such pleasant evenings. Those present were Miss Lula Jones, Princess Anne; Misses Smith and Saunders, of Rock Hall; Miss Bertie Edwards, Crumpton; Miss Eunice Cooper, Worton; Misses Sue Johnson, Minnie Melvin, Effie Lynch, Florence Powell, Flora Johnson, Elizabeth Hessner, Bessie Webb, May Webb, Louise Johnson, Kennedyville; Mrs. and Capt. Daniel Hill, Messrs. Ball, Melvin, Nickerson, Steele, Bramble, Hayes, Steward, George Hendrickson, Wylie Hodgson, Carl Lynch, Hopper Biddle, Howard Carter, John Duyer, Walter Hill, George Webb, Rob Jarrell, Sam Ringgold, John Hessner, Ernest Briscoe, Earle Nicholson, Robert Morgan, Clarence Kelley and others.

The ball at Rock Hall, Friday, 13th, Now who in the world would ever have thought, just for one moment even, of undertaking any thing on the combination of Friday and the 13th, and especially set apart this unlucky combination for a day or rather night, for pleasure? But the young men of the fifth district threw all unlucky thoughts to the wind and said "we will have our dance Friday the 13th, and if you were not there ask anyone that was and they will tell you it was a success and a grand one. The joy, good feeling and happiness melted the snow and made Reybolds store warm. It made us almost forget we were old and decrepit. Would it not be nice if we could grow and develop until we reached 25 or 30 years and then just stay that way until the Lord thought we had been here long enough and then gather us home? Well as we can't have our way let us make the best of what we have, and we feel sure that all, old and young, went to the K. of P. Hall last Friday night with that thought in mind and there is no doubt to your observor that that thought proved an realistic fact, splendid music, a good floor and not too crowded room with beautiful girls and fine looking young men made us tary longer than usual, but it was well worth our late ride in the snow and some time we may go earlier and so see more.

While watching the dancers, with some other gray heads, the question was asked "aint there a lot of pretty girls here?" Now girls we dont want to flatter you and every one of you that was at that ball quit reading this for it is for those that were not there. It has been our fortune or misfortune to have seen a good bit of this great United States but never before were we even at a gathering of so many where all the girls were pretty. You may walk Lexington street for an hour and not see as many pretty girls as graced the floor of Rock Hall ball room last Friday night. We wish we could describe the dress but indeed we dont know anything about such beautiful material, all we know is they were handsome, attractive and becoming and if the young men of the fifth district are not proud of their girl friends, then we hope they will move out and give room for young men with taste.

SYLVANUS.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. J. B. Jones Preaches to Large Congregations in Chestertown—Rev. Mr. White Takes 16 Into the Church on Sunday Last.

Revival meetings are in progress in both of the Methodist Churches in Chestertown. There were 16 to join Church at the M. E. Church Sunday morning and several have been at the altar each evening this week. Rev. Mr. White is in charge.

The Methodist Protestant Congregations have been large every night this week and several conversions have resulted. Dr. Greenfield has the able assistance of Rev. J. B. Jones, who had preached each evening. He was in Chestertown as pastor in 1877 and has Rev. J. W. Trout as his assistant. The following interesting item is taken from the NEWS of February 24, 1877:

"The religious revivals at the Methodist Churches in town are the most extensive remembered by the "oldest inhabitant." The meeting at the M. E. Church closed Sunday and resulted in 104 conversions. At the M. P. Church the meeting is still in progress and up to Thursday night 100 persons had united with the church while the conversions are considerably above that number."

It was in the above meeting that Rev. J. B. Jones held a special service every morning at 9.30 o'clock at which scores were converted. Rev. Mr. Hutchen was pastor of M. E. Church at that time.

There is now going on in Wales a great Christian revival the like of which has not been seen in this generation. Thousands have been converted and thousands more are inquiring.

The Christian workers song service Sunday included a recitation by Miss Bessie Wheatly, reading by Miss Mary Elliot and a beautiful solo "Eyes that are weary" by Mrs. Harvey Boggs. Mrs. W. C. Sutton will have charge of the service on Sunday.

A Special Service for Prayer is called for this Saturday afternoon, from three to four o'clock at Christ Church Lecture Room. All who are interested in the religious awakening of Chestertown are earnestly besought to attend.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

GEORGE W. HADAWAY

George W. Hadaway, formerly of Kent county, died at his residence in Baltimore last Saturday, aged 74 years. The remains were brought to Quaker Neck for interment. Funeral services were held in Bond Church, at 2 p. m., Wednesday, Rev. Milton McCann, officiating. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral arrangements. The deceased was the father of ex-county commissioner George M. Hadaway. The bearers were L. W. Toulson, W. F. Woodmender, Isaac Sims, Bartus Trew, J. H. Baker, Frank Newman.

MARIA L. HARRIS JESSOP.

This community was shocked Tuesday to learn of the death of Mrs. Maria L. Harris Jessop, widow of George A. Jessop. She has been sick about two weeks at her home near Lankford and not withstanding the patient and skilful nursing of children she passed away Tuesday, aged 62. She was a friend to the needy, a neighbor in deed and in truth, a loving mother and never tired in her devotion to the church of her choice, viz., St. Paul's. Her place in the community about Lankford will be hard to fill and the large company at the funeral attested to some extent the esteem in which she was held.

She was the daughter of the late Leanore Scott and Capt. Joseph Harris and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Geo. Beck; and four children, viz: Misses Laura H., Celeno V., Miriam L. and Charles A. Jessop. The funeral took place Thursday, at noon at St. Paul's Church conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche. The pall bearers were George Beck, B. F. Beck, ames L. Beck, W. B. Strong, W. W. Beck and J. Page Gale. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

ELMER CHAPMAN.

Elmer Chapman, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Joseph H. and Mary Chapman, formerly of Chestertown, died at her home in Philadelphia last Thursday week. Mr. Wm. A. Burk and son attended the funeral Monday.

Mrs. Mary E. Lusby, widow of Thos. Lusby, died yesterday morning at Del. Hospitable, aged 86. Several weeks ago she fell and sprained her ankle and the shock hastened her death. She was a sister of the late Wm. T. Lusby with whom she made her home while he lived at Chesterville. The funeral will take place at Townsend interment at Crumpton.

Mr. Fletcher Raymond, brother of Mrs. Nourse, of Pomona, died Sunday at his home in Aberdeen, Harford county. The funeral was held Tuesday, but owing to a mistake in the telegram Mrs. Nourse did not get to attend it.

Mrs. James Bowen, of Philadelphia, wife of Mr. James Bowen, died at the residence of Mr. W. W. Bowen, Church Hill, early Thursday morning Jan. 12th, after a prolonged illness of consumption.

REDDEN & Co., of Caroline, are contracting for corn at $8 and tomatoes at $6 50 per ton.

CAPT. CURTIS E. CRANE has been elected one of the directors of the Chestertown Bank. Capt. Crane is a member of the firm of Crane, Hynson & Valliant, a shrewd business man, an enterprising citizen and will make a valuable official to the new bank. There is one other vacancy to fill.

Plowing Through Ice

The Emma A. Ford, Capt. Taylor at the helm, plowed through heavy ice Monday and did not reach Baltimore until 4.30 P. M. She made the return trip to Chestertown Tuesday reaching here at 8 P. M. but failed to make Queenstown and Cliffs.

The Ford was unable to make Rock Hall Monday.

The Susquehanna made the trip to Tolchester Saturday morning but owing to the ice conditions deemed it unwise to return.

Skating has been enjoyed on Chester river several days this week by scores of young people.

Mrs. M. A. Wilkins, Capt. R. S. Emory and others have filled their ice houses from ice off the mill pond.

Messrs. G. E. Noland Alfred Bramble and others gathered a fine lot of Susquehanna ice that had drifted down the bay last week and at Betterton the ice houses have been filled with elegant ice.

OWING to conditions of ice in the bay there will not be any boat to Tolchester today, Saturday, Jan. 21st.
