Weather Freezing Prices Thawing

BUT ANOTHER BLIZZARD PREDICTED

Come get a Suit, Overcoat, extra pair Trowsers, Couple Suits Underwear, or whatever you may need in winter stuff, either Men's, Boys' or Children's, all go in this bona fide Cut Price Sale, and if not in immediate need, it will pay you to lay aside for future use; for the prices we have pinned on will be an extra incentive.

By displaying a reliable attractive line of up-to-date merchandise we have demonstrated beyond question to a larger aggregation than ever before, our ability to sell them 15 to 20 per cent. less than can be had of city houses, and to those who think of the vast differences in expenses, being on an equal footing in purchasing, etc., this fact is plainly evident.

We Now Offer

you a chance at the Odds and Ends and if you get here early enough, there's a very good assortment. —But don't delay—as all winter merchandise, Men's Overcoats, Boys' and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Underwear, Gloves and all winter merchandise will now be cleaned up at our well known cut prices. That are cut prices. A few words to the wise on this score is sufficient.

SOCIAL NEWS.

A jolly crowd in three sleighs went through Pomona last Friday to spend the evening at the home of Mrs. Blanche Clayton near Worton, the occupants in the sleighs were Mr. Harry Toulson and Miss Rae Nourse, of Chestertown, Mr. Baron Bostic and Miss Katye Dickerson, of Quaker Neck and Mr. Will Toulson and Miss Anna May Startt of Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton entertained them and music was furnished by Mr. Chas. Beck, of Fairlee.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Usilton was alive with social gaiety and good cheer Friday evening, Feb. 10th, the occasion being a dance given in honor of their son, Brucie, it being his 21st birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Usilton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pinder, Mr. and Mrs. H. Skeggs, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Clayton, Miss Mary M. Miller, Miss Dasie Noblett, Hallie Pinder, Florence Noblett, Ella Fowler, Georgie Noblett, Grace Meeks, Allie Startt, Ray Nurse, Katie Dickerson, Mab e Skeggs, Martha Usilton, Brucie Usilton, Philip Hird, Allie Sappington, Adam Fowler, Harry Toulson, William Toulson, William Busick, John Skeggs, Messrs. Fletcher Clark, Wm. Parson, Lewis Parson, Geo. Noblett and hosts of others. About 2 o'clock refreshments were served, and as the clock was striking for the morning dawn the merry party dispersed, all declaring themselves paid for the ride over the snow banks and wishing Brucie many happy birthdays.

Mr. Thomas S. Bordley entertained his Sunday school of young men at a valentine party Tuesday evening. The young men were accompanied by their lady friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. McWhorter gave a reception last week in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs George W. McWhorter. A sumptuous supper was a feature of the evening. only immediate families of the interested parties were present.

Mrs. W. W. Beck entertained in a most delightful style at her Water street home Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. K. Shaw and handsome daughter, Miss Helen.

Mrs. Dr. J. Lane Finley entertained a progressive euchre party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna H. Stam, corner of Queen and Cannon street. The first prize was won by Miss Julia Casey and Mrs. Chas. W. Whaland captured the booby.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard returned her social obligations of the winter with a Valentine party on Thursday evening last. The principal feature of the evening was Miss Mary Belle Cochran, a noted elocutionist of Baltimore. who gave a recital and the guests were charmed with every piece rendered. The gentlemen of the evening were required to write a description of their wife's wedding gown, the one writing the best description, receiving the first prize, which was won by Prof. E. J. Clarke. The Valentine feature of hearts was carried throughout the entire entertainment. The pretty home on Washington avenue was decorated with strings of red hearts, the table in the dining room—heart shape—decorated with red and trimmed with green smilax, while the candle sticks on the table were colonial and the red candles with red shades and pendant red hearts gave an effect that was really beautiful. Ices, cakes, mints and salads were heart shape. The Stevens, Hurlock Orchestra furnished music for the occasion.

Betterton Baseball Team.—The Betterton baseball team has organized with the following officials for the coming season of 1905: J. A. Bowman, manager John S. Owens, assistant secretary; Floyd Crownhart, assistant secretary; Bayard Crew, Treasurer, and William Wheeler, captain. The managers expect to secure the services of Prof. Burris, of Washington College, to pitch and coach the team; Hitch of Washington College, to play third base; Turner of Swarthmore, to pitch, and Crowell, of Swarthmore, to play second base. With H. Moore, Owens, L. Crew, C. Crew, R. Crew, L. Moore, Crownhart, Wheeler and Brice it will be a strong team. Challenges to Howard Owens. Sec'y, Betterton, Md. The Betterton club is especially desirous of helping in the organization of a County League. A five or six club league might be formed and maintained without financial loss. The receipts of the Betterton games last season aggregated $650. Betterton would also like to arrange games with the Washington College club.

DEATH'S RECORD.

The funeral services over the remains of our lovely friend, Anna Augusta Aldridge, was held at the home of her parents on High street, Monday. The house was crowded with friends and acquaintances who came to attest sympathy and regard and the service under Dr. D. L. Greenfield's direction was specially impressive.

Miss Addie Hurlock sang in her sweet manner "abide with me", the favorite song of the deceased. The floral tributes were magnificent, among which were the following: Rev. J. S. Bowers and family, large wreath; T. D Bowers, large wreath; Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church, white carnations, smilax and ferns and white lillies and ferns; Mrs. J. H. Thompson and Sunday school class, large bouquet of pink carnations and ferns; schoolmates and teachers, large bouquet of white carnations, hyacinths and ferns; her "boy friends", large bouquet of white carnations and ferns; J. D. Bacchus and family, large pillow; Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, large bouquet of Bride's roses and ferns; others who sent beautiful offerings were Nellie Nicholson, J. Waters Russel, Emma France, Lousia Urie, Mary Hines, Gertie and Marion Lusby, Mrs. James W. Chapman, Jr., F. W. Kroh, Baltimore, Dr. Harry G., Frank and Raymond Simpers, Mrs. R. D. Hynson, J. E. Ferguson and wife, Mrs A. M. Culp and Mrs. D. B. McMenamin, Mrs. George D. Lofland, Miss Mary Davis, Mrs. E. E. Hudson.

Twenty of her most intimate girl friends were named as honorary bearers, namely: Misses Grace Brooks, Nellie Nicholson, Dovie Connelly, Eloise Ringgold, Ethel Bacchus, Mary Hines, Avis Dodd, Reba Strong, Eunice Lambert, Pearle Woodall, Bessie Sheppard, Emma France, Nannie Bowers, Bessie Westcott, Rose Vickers, Lousia Urie, Eva Beauchamp, Edith Harley, Bessie Nicols and Susie Dunbracco. The active pallbearers were: Messers. J. Raymond Simpers, J. Howard Dodd, Eben F. Perkins, Clinton W. Wroth, J. Waters Russell and Harry Nichols.

Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements, and was assisted by Undertaker J. E. Ferguson; interment in Chester cemetery.

Mr. Jno. J. Roeder, a well-known citizen of Kent county, died suddenly last Saturday morning at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Alexander Mair, Betterton. The deceased was stricken with heart failure while walking about the yard and died before assistance could reach him. He was 71 years of age and leaves a widow and five children, viz: Mr. Thomas L. Roeder, of Church Hill; Mrs. Alexander Mair; Mrs. W. Copper, Mrs. Daniel Jones and Mrs. Millard Maslin. Funeral services were held Tuesday, interment at Still Pond. The pall bearers were Messrs. R. T. Turner, James T. Crew, Alex. Mair, Thos. Roeder, Wm. Copper, and Tilghman Shafer. Rev. Mr. Jones officiated at the funeral. W. H. Krusen undertaker.

Mrs. Truitt's little baby died last Friday in Worton of Pneumonia. This child was taken sick at the time six others were attacked with diphtheria at the home of Mrs. J. W. Fowler but upon the Doctor's advice was removed to the home of Mrs. Davis and carefully nursed.

Mrs. J. Norton Hunter died at her home in Pendleton, S. C., Wednesday, Feb. 8, 1905, after having suffered a stroke of paralysis early in the morning. Mrs. Hunter is survived by her husband and by one child, a young lady of 16 or 17 years of age. She was the daughter of the late Thos. C. Pinkind, of Kent county, and has visited Miss Lillie Fowler, Chestertown.

Accidents.—Miss Julia Emory, daughter of Capt. R. S. Emory, while stepping from a door at her home, near town, on Monday suffered a compound fracture of the right limb between the ankle and knee. Dr. W. F. Hines set the broken member.

Mr. Joseph Peterson Westcott fell on the ice on Chester river and broke his collar bone.

Mr. George Hall got a fall on the ice on the streets of Chestertown Tuesday and has been housed since.

HENRY WASHINGTON, one of Kent's best colored citizens, died at his home in Broad Neck Sunday, aged about 65. "He was one of the best fencers in the United States" was the exclamation of one of Broad Neck's best farmers. One of the truths spoken by Henry was this: "You can knock more apples with a crooked stick thrown straight than a straight stick thrown crooked."

THE sale of 28 mules advertised for Tuesday was postponed because of the extremely cold weather. They will be sold today, Saturday. There was a large crowd present, notwithstanding, and many were disappointed. Mr. J. B. Richardson's reputation in this community is good as he has always treated the people all right.

Usilton—West.

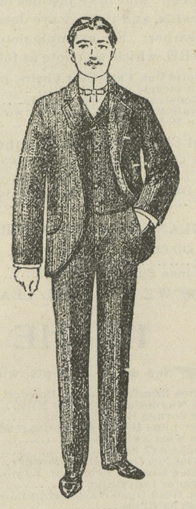

Thomas B. Usilton and Agnes G. West, both of Washington, D. C., were married February 8, at the above named place by the Rev. Father Curry, Holy Name Church, performing the ceremonial honors. The bride was handsomely costumed in a blue silk suit and carried a pretty bunch of Ivory roses. The host of friends contributed many presents to the happy couple. Immediately after the matrimonial duties the bride and groom left for a trip to Baltimore, the home of the groom's mother.

IN this issue of the NEWS appears the announcement concerning the "Pittsburgh Perfect Fence." This fence has been on the market several years in this community and much of it has been used by our land owners. The Marvil Package Co., are the agents for this territory.
