Weather Freezing Prices Thawing

BUT ANOTHER BLIZZARD PREDICTED

Come get a Suit, Overcoat, extra pair Trowsers, Couple Suits Underwear, or whatever you may need in winter stuff, either Men's, Boys' or Children's, all go in this bona fide Cut Price Sale, and if not in immediate need, it will pay you to lay aside for future use; for the prices we have pinned on will be an extra incentive.

By displaying a reliable attractive line of up-to-date merchandise we have demonstrated beyond question to a larger aggregation than ever before, our ability to sell them 15 to 20 per cent. less than can be had of city houses, and to those who think of the vast differences in expenses, being on an equal footing in purchasing, etc., this fact is plainly evident.

We Now Offer

you a chance at the Odds and Ends and if you get here early enough, there's a very good assortment. —But don't delay—as all winter merchandise, Men's Overcoats, Boys' and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Underwear, Gloves and all winter merchandise will now be cleaned up at our well known cut prices. That are cut prices. A few words to the wise on this score is sufficient.

LOCAL NEWS.

ROBINS have arrived.

THE Ford will be here today and begin regular trips.

ALL seeds have advanced in price. Buy now.

LENT began Wednesday. Easter falls on April 23rd, later than it has been for 19 years.

Band To Reorganize.—The Galena Cornet Bank have taken steps to reorganize and it is very likely that this well-known musical organization will again be in a position to fulfill engagements where good music is desired.

New Houses.—Mr. A. M. Culp has contracted to build two houses for Miss Wilkins and two for Mr. Joel R. Clements in "Dewey Park', located near James M. E. Church, Chestertown.

Teacher Locked Out.—Last Tuesday was "Pan Cake Day" and the usual pranks were indulged in. The Lankford school building was sealed up tight and the teacher, Miss Emma Mills, found it impossible to gain an entrance for quite a time.

Contract Awarded.—The Building Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Chestertown, have awarded the contract for building a new Sunday school room and tower to Mr. Alwyn M. Culp, contractor and builder, the contract price being $6148. This building will be an ornament to the town and a credit to the church.

Cheap Living—Richard D. Hynson, Esq., attended the monthly meeting of the Maryland House of Correction last week. Comptroller Gordon T. Atkinson presided. Superintendent Moore reported 449 prisoners, the cost of feeding them per capita a day being six and a half cents. The total income from the preceding month from various sources was $2,373 29.

Paralyzed—It is with great regret we announce the recent affliction of one of our well-known and kind hearted residents, Mrs. J. C. Jones, of Lynch's station. She suffered a stroke of paralysis which has rendered her speechless.

Mr. J. B. Richardson who was summoned home to Missouri from Chestertown suddenly a few weeks ago found his wife suffering from a stroke of paralysis which effected her side.

An Interesting Visit.—Messrs. John Clendaniel and Wm. R. Clough arrived home Saturday from a visit to the stockyards of St. Louis and report a most interesting trip. They witnessed the sale of several hundred horses that brought from $120 to $180 each and state that it was as good a show as they ever saw. Mules are high in the west. A fire last week burned 3,000 mules and a large quantity of grain stored in East St. Louis. Messrs. Clendaniel and Clough had a remarkable experience in Philadelphia but prefer to tell it to their friends in person for good reasons. They brought some good stock East.

Married.—Miss Jennie M. Bennett, daughter of the late George N. Bennett, and Mr. James A. Ward, of Cecil County, were married on January 3, 1905, at Wilmington, Del. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George L Wolff, D. D., of the first M. P. Church at the parsonage.

Mr. Leonard Carter Crew, a former resident of Kent, was married last week to Miss Antoinette D. Burchell, of Sidney, Nova Scotia. Mr. Crew was employed in Sidney several years but is now holding a responsible position in the Dupont Powder Mills, Wilmington.

An Appeal.—Rev. Albert Ware, rector of the P. E Church at Millington which was destroyed in the recent fire, has issued an appeal to all of the P. E. Churches in Easton Diocese for funds to erect a new building. He says: It will cost $3,000 to replace the building. Of this amount the parishioners have subscribed $500; $250 have been subscribed by friends who are not residents which together with $1,000 insurance, is all we can at present depend upon.

I have simply stated the facts and shall depend upon the letters subjoined to give merit to my claim. "He gives twice who gives quickly."

Reading Room.—Mrs. S. M. Usilton, corresponding secretary of the W. C. T. U., has received the following letter:

MY DEAR MRS. USILTON:

Am so glad to have your letter, and know of the good work that has been done, and of what you are planning to do in Chestertown. This is real, practical temperance work, and I trust that you may be able to do it in such a way as to help those who need help, and at the same time inspire new enthusiasm in the members of your union.

The W. C. T. U. of Baltimore city, has several cases of books known as traveling libraries and I am sure they would be glad to let you have the use of them, one case at a time, as long as they hold out. I will speak to the superintendent about it. Her address, if you should like to write to her, is: Mrs. William E. Moore, 524 N. Carrollton Avenue, Baltimore.

I should have checkers, crukinole and other games that are not games of chance. No doubt some of the workers can get these at wholesale prices for such a purpose.

Usually we have a committee to have charge of a reading room, and arrange that some responsible person shall be on hand each evening. I should have very few rules, requiring only the quiet behavior, that is necessary, that all may enjoy the privileges. Of course you would prohibit smoking and rough talking.

If I can help you in any way, will be glad to do so. I do pray that God may bless the effort.

With best wishes—Sincerely yours,

MARY R. HASLUP.

Notwithstanding the encouragement contained in the above letter and substantial aid from citizens, including the rent of another room, it having been a part of the report of the committee on their work that Mr. W. W. Hubbard had withdrawn his offer of room to the W. C. T. U., also that a place for the entertainment of young men and boys was to be opened immediately, the Union decided to take no further action at present.

In this connection we will state that Mr. Hubbard will give his room to the boys and men where they can enjoy themselves in innocent amusements.

Caught An Otter.—Mr. Fletcher Clark went out to fish his nets in Churn Creek one day this week and only caught two fish, but he found there an Otter five feet long! This animal had killed a number of fish. His hide was sold for $6 and he weighed 23 pounds.

Mr. Wm. Ivens caught a coon a few days ago that weighed 19 pounds and measured 4 ft. long.

W. H. Lambert's Will.—The late Wm. Henry Lambert wrote his last will just two weeks before his death while seated at his window. It is signed by his children as witnesses and is specially clear for one so far advanced. The will in full is as follows:

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Wm. H. Lambert, of Kent County, in the State of Maryland, being sick and weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainly of death, and the uncertainly of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this, my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God, trusting in the sacrifice and atonement of our Savior Jesus Christ to be forgiven the many sins I have committed; my body to the earth, to be decently buried, in a plain manner, at the discretion of my executrix, hereinafter named after my just debts and funeral charges are paid. I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Mary Jane Lambert, all real and personal property that I may possess or have any interest therein at the time of my death, wherever situated or located. In making this bequest to my dear wife, I have not forgotten our eight children whom I respect and love dearly, my estate will be so small that it will not bear dividing between so many to do them any good. I have lost by endorsing and trying to befriend others, much the larger part of my little estate, so that there is but little left to devise or bequeath and I know that my darling wife will do what she can for our children in time of their need as far as she is able as she has always done for us all, especially in my case. In my long late illness, she has watched over me, cared for and nursed me by night and day, in my opinion, as no other woman would have done, and to the injury of her own health. Now if possible I am very anxious to provide for her some comfort and support in her old age and declining years. I do hereby constitute and appoint my dear wife, Mary J. Lambert, to be sole executrix of this, my last will and testament. I request that my wife shall not be required to file any inventory of property nor give any bond unless required by law as executrix, ratified and confirming this and none other, to be my last will and testament.

Kennedyville W. C. T. U.—The Kennedyville W. C. T. U. held a Willard memorial meeting Friday evening of last week the 3rd. inst., in the M. P. Church. After a short song service with Miss Nellie Barwick at the organ, the meeting opened with singing "Guide me Oh! Thou Great Jehovah," and prayer by Mrs. Emma Strong. The scripture reading was given by Mr. Willie Fogwell, minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, some other business matters were presented after which Miss May Allston read "The story of a little girl." The president Mrs. Othoson read an article, "significence of the statue of Frances E. Willard," and also comments of the press bearing on the same subject; the choir sang "I'll go where you want me to go"; a symposium, "What Mrs. Willard's life has meant to me," was led by Mrs. Shafer followed by Mrs. Jarrel and Mrs. Strong; a solo by Miss Flora Johnson, "Lead me gently home Father"; Miss Minnie Melvin read, "We are coming dear leader," and Mrs. Othoson sang "I will bear the cross for Jesus"; an explanation of Willard memorial fund was presented by Mrs. Othoson and it was moved and seconded to contribute two dollars for the same. We were especially fortunate in having with us Mr. F. C. Numbers and son of Millington, who favored the audience with very fine music on organ and violin. Three new members were secured and the meeting closed with singing "Abide with me."
