HOW WE CATCH A COLD.

A cold is sometimes contracted while remaining enactive for a while in an uncomfortable room or a cold draft and by failing to sleep under like conditions. But most colds are caught while sleeping too cold at night. Deep sleep causes sluggish circulation which renders the system susceptable to change of temperature. To prevent colds sleep under plenty of cover. To cure colds use Rydales Elixir it lessens the severity and shortens the duration of a cold and prevents pneumonia, Bronchitis and Consumption.

HEALTH

"I don't think we could keep house without Thedford's Black-Draught. We have used it in the family for over two years with the best of results. I have not had a doctor in the house for that length of time. It is a doctor in itself and always ready to make a person well and happy."—JAMES HALL, Jacksonville, Ill.

Because this great medicine relieves stomach pains, frees the constipated bowels and invigorates the torpid liver and weakened kidneys is necessary in the home where Thedford's Black-Draught is kept. Families living in the country, miles from any physician, have been kept in health for years with this medicine as their only doctor. Thedford's Black-Draught cures biliousness, dyspepsia, colds, chills and fever, bad blood, headaches, diarrhœa, constipation, colic and almost every other ailment because the stomach, bowels liver and kidneys so nearly control the health.

RYDALE'S TONIC

A New Scientific Discovery for the BLOOD and NERVES.

It purifies the blood by eliminating the waste matter and other impurities and by destroying the germs or microbes that infest the blood. It builds up the blood by reconstructing and multiplying the red corpuscles, making the blood rich and red. It restores and stimulates the nerves, causing a full free flow of nerve force throughout the entire nerve system. It speedily cures unstrung nerves, nervousness, nervous prostration, and all other diseases of the nervous system.

RYDALE'S TONIC is sold under a positive guarantee.

Trial size 50 cents. Family size $1.00

KENTLAND FARM

Over on the "Eastern Sho" there lives a fellow that has the chicken fever, and we are afraid that it is a gone case. If you happen in Still Pond or at that popular summer resort, "Betterton-on-the Chesapeake," just go out to "Kentland Farm" and nose around until you find Watts—he'll talk chicken to you until the sun goes down, then ten chances to one make you eat it.

Although he keeps more White Leghorns than any other variety, still he certainly has some crackerjack White Rocks; big white birds that will almost make you wish you had some of the fever yourself, and he tells us that the White Rocks are equal to Leghorns as egg producers. Watts is in the business for eggs, and lots of them, while at the same time he keeps a strict eye on the fancy points of his fowls when mating, and if you don't hear from him in the show room soon I am much mistaken. When asked advantage of keeping pure breds than it does scrubs; they will as a rule lay more eggs, and I can ask a dollar for a setting of eggs, with a clear conscience for I know that they will produce something worth owning."

The Farm proper contains 198 acres, devoted to raising grain and stock, and as his residence, surrounded by the poultry houses, sits on a high hill facing south, it is an ideal place for chickens.

The fowls all have free range except the very best hens and pullets selected foa breeders. These are penned in good houses with large grassy runs, to produce the season's crop of chicks, from 500 to 1,000 being raised each year.

As he claims to get as good a percentage of strong fertile eggs from penned fowls as those on free range, it may be of interest to some to know how he feeds.

As soon as it is light in the morning he feeds small grain in deep litter, such as wheat, millet, sorghum, crack corn, etc., enough to keep them busy until nearly noon, when they are given a light feed composed of two parts bran one part chops, one part middlings, and one-half part beef scrap, seasoned as you would bread, and at night grain in litter as in the morning. This is for spring feeding. When their is grass in runs early in spring, green food is given in the shape of cut clover, turnips, potatoes and cabbage.

Portrait Buttons.

Portrait buttons for campaign purposes are no new thing. Exactly the same method of conveying the expression of political admiration was in force in the days of Queen Anne. At the time of the famous sermon by Dr. Sacheverell, when party passion reached a high pitch, the custom was originated of using coat buttons adorned with caricatures, portraits of the much discussed doctor and similar decorations. Nor was the fancy confined to buttons. Gentlemen sealed their letters with similar designs, and a little later they were to be found on the backs of playing cards and even on women's fans. Dr. Sacheverell's head, again, was made use of to ornament tobacco stoppers, crockery and similar articles.

Skillful Porto Ricans.

The natives of Porto Rico fashion a variety of useful and ornamental articles by hand from the palm leaves, gourds, cocoanuts and other products of the island. They are skillful in weaving hammocks, hats similar to panama hats, and a great variety of baskets. Canes, paper knives and other articles are carved out of the native woods, some of which show curious and strikingly ornamental markings. The senoras and senoritas of Porto Rico are especially skillful with the needle and produce a considerable quantity of fine drawn work and laces.

Already Supplied.

A Swedish girl just arrived from the old country attended evening service at a Duluth church. The minister, seeing she was a stranger, shook hands with her at the close of the meeting and said he would find pleasure in calling upon her soon, whereupon the girl, blushing, hung her head and bashfully murmured, "T'ank you, but Ay have a fella."

For Amateur Thespians.

Knox—I hear you're getting up an amateur theatrical club. Woodby—Yes, and now we're looking for a good motto for the club. What would you suggest? Knox—What's the matter with "Think twice before you act?"—Philadelphia Press.

Absentminded.

The Groom—I can't see that check your father placed among the wedding presents. The Bride—Papa is so absentminded! He lit his cigar with it.

Our enemies are our outward consciences.—Shakespeare.

PHYSICIANS recommend "Pepsimint," the new granular, effervescent remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, and Mental Exhaustion. Guaranteed harmless. Pleasant to take. 10 and 25c
