VOL. 66. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 1905. NO. 48

That Spring Suit

Can't fit you too well, nor can the quality of material be too good, consistent with the price, but you can delay too much time looking around for it, if you don't come to "headquarters" where you'll find all the new shades and grades of material, marked in plain figures and sold at "one price to everybody."

It is a well known fact that we carry the largest line of Men's and Boys Clothing in Kent county, and always keep our stock fresh—not allowing Odds and Ends to accumulate, and have but little carried over goods.

These we put such a low price upon that they never reach the next season. Hence always up-to-date styles.

A word about Straw Hats. We've got 'em from 25c to $3.50. The price fixed to each one is the very lowest, and Mr. Big Man if you want Underwear that is large enough, giving you complete comfort, come right here and get it.

We sell the best 5c work Stocking you ever saw—6 pairs for 25c.

COURT ADJOURNS.

Mr. B. J. McGugan Awarded $1200 Damages—A Number of Convictions—A Startling Letter Offered as Evidence.

The Grand Jury completed their labors Saturday morning after accomplishing a large volumn of work. In addition to other bills mentioned in the NEWS a true bill was brought in against Edw. Armstrong for selling intoxicating liquors.

The damage suit of Mr. Bernard J. McGugan against the P. W. & B. R R Co. for $10,000 for injuries received in December while walking from the South-bound train to the Kent train was taken up Saturday. Mr. McG. stepped into a drain, fell and broke his leg. Messrs. W. W. Beck and R. D. Hynson represented the plaintiff and Marion deK. Smith the defendant. The case occupied the Court all Saturday and Monday and part of Tuesday. The jury after being out five hours returned with a verdict of $1200 for Mr. McGugan.

TUESDAY.

The case against Harry Hopkins for attempt at jail breaking was stetted by order of court.

State vs. Hayes Comegys for jail breaking and one for robbery of Mr. Cole's butcher wagon was tried, convicted and given 3 and 5 years in Penitentiary. His mother, Marion Comegys, was convicted of bringing a saw to her son and was sentenced to 3 years in Penitentiary. In the trial of Hayes Comegys a letter was produced by the Sheriff written by the prisoner to a man in Philadelphia. In this letter Comegys was soliciting the city man to put Mr. Cole out of the way—to kill him—and he would pay him!

Joe Walker, bootblack, was tried, convicted and sentenced to Penitentiary for 3 years for aiding prisoners to attempt to break jail. Joe sent a saw up to Comegys in a bag.

Tom Matthews was tried and convicted of assault and also of carrying concealed weapons and sentenced to 2 years in House of Correction.

Alexander Hamilton was convicted of larceny and sentenced to 2 years in Penitentiary.

Emony Sewell was fined $100 and if not paid to serve 12 months in House of Correction.

Grover Greenwood's sentence was reduced to 9 months in House of Correction.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., acted for the State in absence of Mr. Beck on Tuesday and proved himself fully equal to the task. He has been there before.

S. E. Penning, Esq., of Havre de Grace, was admitted to this bar.

Judges Pearce, Martin and Brown deserve commendation for the expeditious way in which they transacted the business of this court. The county will save more than $5,000 in court expenses compared with two years ago.

"PEOPLE'S TICKET" DEFEATED!

Mr. Wm. S. Carroll Elected Town Commissioner To Succeed Col. Wm. J. Vannort—A Warm Contest.

The office of town commissioner seems to be one which holds attractions for at least some of Chestertown's citizens. On Monday last two well-known voters, both Republicans, entered into a friendly contest as to who should fill this lucrative office where the pay is abuse and complaint. Col. Wm. J. Vannort who had filled the office six years with credit to himself asked for a re-election and left no stone unturned to accomplish his desire. His opponent was Mr. Wm. S. Carroll, a well-known contractor and builder, who likewise, when he was induced to serve as a candidate, did some hustling. Col. Vannort, upon advise of friends, headed his ticket "The People's Ticket" while Mr. Carroll chose to enter without any such title.

The vote resulted in 107 for Mr. Carroll and 70 for Col. Vannort. Col. Vannort has served the town faithfully for six years and retires with the satisfaction of having done his duty.

A Recherche Affair—The second annual concert of the Glee and Mandolin Club of Washington College given in Stam's Hall Thursday evening was far superior to the first and enjoyed by a large and fashionable audience. The stage was a bower of loveliness and each number was loudly applauded. The glee and mandolin club was composed of A. H. Brice, E. A. Coughlin, W. H. Davis, A. S. Garrison, C. U. Goslee, E. F. Hitch, C. W. Long, J. G. Moore, G. B. Morris, C. E. Noland, H. P. Porter, L. C. Robinson, H. O. Stephens, C. G Sutton, V. R. Truitt, T. K. Bordley, R. H. Finley, W. H. Toulson, D. F. Stam, H. O. Stephens, leader. The patronesses were Mesdames James A. Pearce, Marion DEK. Smith, W. Frank Hines, William M. Slay, Harrison W. Vickers, Hiram M. Brown, Thomas W. Eliason, Richard D. Hynson, Samuel Vannort, George B. Westcott, Lewin W. Wickes, William W. Beck, James W. Cain, James R. Micou, A. Sager Hall, Edward J. Clarke, David L. Greenfield, William L. White.

SOCIAL GAITIES.

A Number Of Fashionable Events—Mr. And Mrs. Chapman's Reception—The Dance—Egg Rolling By The Children—Glee Club, Etc.

One of the daily papers contained a striking cartoon on Ash Wednesday. It represented Satan getting in bed and giving instructions to awaken him on Easter morning! Such was the case with social life in Chestertown and now that the Lenten season is passed the festivities have commenced with renewed life.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hendrickson celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary last night.

Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter entertained a small company at a luncheon last evening in honor of Mrs. W. W. Chapman and her guests.

Mrs. C. E. Crane entertained the Young Ladies' Card Club Thursday in honor of the lady visitors in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman gave one of the most delightful receptions of the year on Tuesday evening. Their luxurious home on Washington Avenue was adorned with blooming plants and cut flowers while different colored electric bulbs shed a radiant light over the lovely scene. To cap the climax Eula, the harpist, and violinist, furnished exquisite music during the evening. Mr. and Mrs Chapman were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Valliant, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stephens Valliant, Capt. and Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, Misses Louise Merrick, Leonore Valliant, Rose Greason, Miss Faithful, Messrs. J. W. Chapman and Edw. W. Emory. The dining room was beautifully decorated, the colors being green and white, emblematic of the spring time. Here beauty and grace presided and so well represented by Misses Irma Eliason, Jennie Hines, Marie Westcott, Ethel Aldridge, Anna Smith and others. A caterer furnished the elegant menu of salads, ices, etc. The hours were from 8 to 9 and 9 to 11 and about seventy-five persons called.

Birthday Celebration.

Mr. Franklin Platt Canby, who had his 21st birthday on Sunday April 23rd, celebrated the occasion at his bayside farm at Betterton, by a House Party, and a fine dinner on Sunday evening. Some of his guests were: Mr. James B. Canby and Miss Clara G. Canby, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Bowie, Jr., of Baltimore. The speech making was spirited and fine and Mr. Canby in this line proved himself a worthy son of his father.

The C. E.'s at Mrs. Sides'.

The Christian Endeavorers held a pleasant social at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sides' on Washington Avenue on Wednesday. Games of various kinds were played until a late hour. In the flower guessing contest Arthur Bacon won first prize and Miss Scott, the booby. Refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Sides, assisted by Mrs. S. P. Townshend, Mrs. D. B. McMenamin, Miss Fannie Baker and Miss Edith Fallowfield.

A Jolly Crowd of Egg Rollers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter invited a large company of little folks to their elegant home "Sterlingford," near Chester bridge Monday afternoon, to meet Miss Stephine Marie Ford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Ford, of Chestertown, and to enjoy an afternoon of egg-rolling. The weather was perfect and the children enjoyed the occassion to the utmost (and so did the grown folks.) It was a perfect success. Games of various kinds were played but the climax was reached in the hunt for eggs, the three finding the largest number were given prizes which were pretty little rabbits filled with candy. The lucky ones were, Ethel Price, Francis Morris and Norman Crouch. Each one present was presented with a souvenir of an Easter chick and the eggs they found. Refreshments consisting of ices, cakes, salted peanuts, candy and lemonade were served. Those present were: Misses Elizabeth and Helen Connely, Helen and Esther Urie, Gladys Wickes Polly Wescott, Edith Dunbracco, Virginia and Rosalie Cain, Genevieve Dixon, Susan Stam, Ethel Price, Miriam Hubbard, Jessie Anthony, Francis Morris, Dorothy Vickers, Louise Crane, Eugenia Hynson, Stephen and Emily Ford and Rebecca Toulson and Masters Tom Eliason, Walter Simmons, Carl Bordley, Wilbur Hubbard, Philip Wilmer, Massey Hines, Frank Connelly, Joseph Wickes, Roberts Greenfield, Norman Crouch, Hiram Eliason, John Collins, Colin Stam, Marian Dixon, Ralph Evans, Merritt Twilley, Frederick and Charles Ford and others.

A most delightful dance was given in Stam's Hall on Wednesday and largely attended by visitors and home folks. Farson's orchestra, of Baltimore, rendered fine music. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. John M. Toulson gave a luncheon from 1.00 to 3.00 Monday afternoon in honor of her sisters, Misses Ethe and Eloise Ringgold. Those present were: Misses Jennie and Mary Hines, Doyie Connelly, Eva Beauchamp, Lillian Stam, Bessie Nicols and Bessie Westcott.

DEATH'S BIG HARVEST.

Well Known Citizens Called Away to the Unknown Country—Mr. J. L. Beck Among the Departed.

JAMES L. BECK.

James Lawrence Beck died at his home "The Oaks" near Tolchester, Monday morning of kidney disease, aged 54 years and 3 months. He has been a sufferer for years but was not confined to the bed more than two weeks.

He was a son of the late Horace Beck and one of the best known and most prominent citizens of Kent county. He was a tiller of the soil and took an active interest in all that pertained to farming, at all times proving his assertions by action. The Tolchester Fair had no more ardent supporter than Mr. Beck and he won many premiums there for fine products. He was a gentleman of unusual social qualities and drew about him a large circle of lasting friends. He was quite a musician and loved to play the violin for the young people, never seeming to weary while they kept time in the graceful waltz.

He was regarded as the leader in the Democratic party in the Sixth District and always did valliant work on election day. He served two years as county treasurer in a faithful manner and often represented his district in conventions. He was a big-hearted citizen and no one ever asked for help but what it was given. He was a kind neighbor and always went about doing good to all in need. His place will be hard to fill.

He leaves a widow, who was Miss Bertie Brice, daughter of the late John Brice, and two daughters (Misses Sophia and Bertie Beck) and one son (Hynson Beck). Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, at St. Paul's P. E. Church, conducted by Rev. C. T. Denroche; interment in the cemetery adjoining. A great concourse of friends attended and the floral offerings were perfectly superb.

The pall bearers were: Walter Miller, John Ringgold, W. W. Beck, Dr. C. W. Whaland, R. D. Hynson, and Dr. Thomas B. Wilson. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

MERRITT T. MILLER.

Merritt Taylor Miller, of East New Market died in Cambridge Easter Sunday at the Cambridge hospital in the 40 year of his age. He was a native of Kent county and son of the late Walter T. H. Miller, of Swan Creek, (Kent). He was buried at old St. Paul's, on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. C. T. Denroche officiating. The bearers were R. D. Hynson, W. W. Beck, Walter Strong, John Ringgold, Chas. D. Browne and W. T. Brice; Undertaker J. N. Dodd.

Mr. Miller is survived by a brother, Walter H. Miller, of Baltimore, and sister Mrs. Albert C. Kenly, of Wilmington, N. C., also a widow. For a number of years he traveled through Kent county for a Balto., firm. In his last illness when he was taken to North Carolina he requested that the KENT NEWS be forwarded to him, such was his attachment for his native county.

Mr. Miller was first cousin of James L. Beck and by strange coincident died on same day and also buried same day. They were both lineal descendants of Michael Miller who gave the grounds for Old St. Paul's in 1693 and who was buried there Aug. 16th, 1698.

MRS. MAY BOWEN.

Mrs. May Bowen, formerly Miss May Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill, of Chestertown, died at the home of her husband in Chester last Saturday.

Sold Out.—Mr. Alday Clements has sold his interest in the big store at Crumpton to C. W. Clements & Co. who will continue same on lines laid out by its former owner. Mr. Alday Clements' duties as President of The Chestertown Bank induced him to dispose of this property. It is now rumored that he will remove to Chestertown at an early day. We will be glad to welcome him and his estimable family.
