To Fix Primary Day.

The County Executive Committee will meet in Chestertown next Tuesday and fix the day for the Democratic primaries and also the plan. They have interviewed candidates of both wings of the party as well as prominent leaders on either side and the concensus of opinion is that the earlier they are held, the better for all concerned and for the success of the Democratic party. Some wanted the primaries held as early as May 27th, but the majority were favorable to Saturday, June 3rd, with the convention on Tuesday, June 6th. This date would not interfere with harvest, hay cutting nor with any special farm work and there would be greater interest taken than later when the busier season comes.

As for the plan the old district plan seems to be most popular, although some prominent Democrats prefer the Crawford county system and insist on its adoption. In deciding the date and manner let it be done with a view to the best interests of the whole party.

QUEEN ANNE'S "ANTIS" MEET.

Will Decide Whether They Will Enter Primaries or Run Independent.

At least fifty Democratic voters of Queen Anne's county met in room 10 Arlington Hotel Centreville last Tuesday for the purpose of deciding whether they would enter the coming Democratic primaries or nominate an Independent ticket without going into the primaries. A. J. Gadd, of the First District, was made chairman of the meeting and George T. Faithful, of the 6th District, Secretary.

After a few remarks by Dr. J. H. W. G. Weedon, of the Second District, and Squire S. P. Jump of the Sixth District, a motion was made and carried to name three gentlemen from each district in the county as a committee to report on Tuesday, May 16th, which plan is advisable.

The committee named are: District No. 1, James A. Lane, Charles L. Joslin and A. J. Gadd; No. 2, John H. Evans, W. P. Finley and Dr. Norman Dudley; No. 3, Samuel T. Rhodes, James T. Bright and H. R. McFeely; No. 4, John F. Ruth, C L. Goodhand and W. T. Stevens; No. 5, C. W. Butler, Charles E. Bishop, and W. E. Collier; No. 6, S. P. Jump, S. R. Downes and W. T. Bishop; No. 7, Joel T. McGinnes, John Smith and Sanford Spry.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned to meet again on Tuesday May 16th.

The Queenstown News gives good advice to these gentlemen as follows: "We hope the gentlemen most of them lifelong Democrats, will consider the matter well before deciding for an independent movement, for, they certainly must dicker with the Republicans to play a winning card or, else split the party so, that the Republicans will get control of our county and, in this event, the only satisfaction they would receive would be that they downed the present managers.

They should remember that, when the majority of them were in power a few years since, the present managers had no say in the running of the county affairs and voted and worked for the success of the ticket the same as if their faction was in power.

Gentlemen, make your fight in the Primaries and, if you are beaten, come out like men and support the ticket the same as all good Democrats of old Queen Anne's have done in the past. Remember that the majority of you have pulled plums from the political tree in Queen Anne's, and you should be willing to give others a chance to pull a plum. Don't try to rule or ruin."

Annual Card Club Supper.—The first annual supper of the Church Hill Card Club was given by the members at the residence of Mr. E. Stephen Valliant, Church Hill, on Tuesday evening. Cards were played from 9 to 11, after which an elaborate supper was served. The prizes were won by the following: First honor prizes, Miss Daisy Parvis and Mr. Sterling Evans; second honor prizes, Miss Louise Hall and Dr. Norman Dudley; consolation prizes, Miss May Porter and Mr. William Hall. The following members were present: Misses Helen and Georgie Dudley, Edna and Daisy Parvis, May Porter, Blanche Walls, Nannie Keating, Louise Hall, Eliza P. Faithful and Mrs. E. Stephen Valliant. Drs. Norman Dudley and W. G. Coppage and Messrs. Arthur Reed, Sterling Evans, E. Stephen Valliant, Wm. Hall, Henry Bowen, H. Warren, C. Randall and R. A. Rowlenson.

THE PIERIA RECEPTION.

The Pieria Literary Society of Washington College held its annual fete Saturday evening May 6th. Usually the night chosen for this celebration has been rainy, but the ladies played a joke on the weather this year by arranging for an earlier date than usual. The night was fine but lacked (?) the smiling face of "the man in the moon." There was not any "butting in."

The day preceding this eventful evening was spent by the ladies in decorating the halls and reception rooms of Normal Hall. The result of their indefatigable labor was a treat to the eye never have these apartments been so tastefully decorated. The willow boughs hung in profusion about the doors gave to the place the perfume of "new-mown hay." The dogwood and tiny lanterns lent a charm to the scene which words cannot express. Many pennants hung upon the walls, showing loyalty to W. C. One of the crowning decorating features was the well from which Rebekah gave Isaac to drink—it was a little different in the Book—of the ade prepared by her hand; there Isaac kneeled upon the moss and received the cup from the hand of Rebekah.

Promptly at eight o'clock the guests began to arrive. The time passed so swiftly, as all pleasant times do, that we knew not how it went or where. Many parties enjoyed the cool, fresh air out on the lawns, while the distant worlds shown down in all their splendor upon this joyous scene.

The refreshments were unique. Here again we saw the work of the artists' hands. When the second course was served each person was given a little flower pot in which was growing a blooming pansy, rooted in the richest of soils. Upon further investigation the soil proved to be the best of Cream, the rest is an old story.

Many persons besides our immediate College family were present and enjoyed themselves very much.

On the reception committe were Misses Hale, Griffin, Walker, Smith and Kirby. Their pleasant smiles added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

The committee of arrangements consisted of Misses Susiebelle Culp and Adele France, two former members of the Society, whose skill and taste in arranging such affairs cannot be surpassed.

At eleven o'clock the guests, expressing in glowing terms their appreciation of the honor the Pierians had conferred upon them, bade their fair hostesses farewell.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Josephine Wickes entertained the Young Ladies Card Club Wednesday afternoon at her home on High street.

A "fish-fry" was given on Mr. James Bramble's bay-shore Saturday evening to a party of young people from St. James Church. It was one of the most unusual occasions given in that section for sometime from the fact that the menu consisted of plenty of eatables, but no fish! The fishermen had left their nets and not a fish could be found! It is reported that one gentleman caught a "Mary-maid" but he was the only lucky fisherman in the party and was unwilling to share his good fortune. A big supply is promised on the next occasion.
