Arters, pastor of Madeley M. E. Church officiated, and a goodly company of neighbors and friends were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Cole left on Wednesday morning for their future home in Chestertown.

Mrs. I. Day Carter has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Helen Carter, to Mr. Logan Rudolph Fay, at St. Mark's Church, Locust and Sixteenth streets, on Wednesday, June 14, at noon, Miss Carter's summer home is "Walnut Hill," near Singerly, Md, and she is a sister of Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, of Chestertown. The ceremony will be held in St. Marks P. E. Church, Philadelphia, and will be attended by the elite of that city. The presents are said to be perfectly magnificent and exquisite.

JARRELL-SCHEIB WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place on Thursday evening, June 1st, at the home of Mrs. Margaret M. Schieb, of Rochester, New York, when her daughter, Lillian Elizabeth, was married to Mr. J. Oscar Jarrell, formerly of Baltimore but now of Rochester. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Lyon Caughey, of Memorial Presbyterian Church.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Pearle Marquedant, as maid of honor, and Miss Cornelia Martens as bridesmaid. The best man was Wilber F. Parker, of Baltimore. The bride's dress was of white silk, trimmed with Duchess lace. She carried a shower boquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Marquedant wore dotted swiss and Miss Martens wore Persian lawn. Both attendants carried bouquets of pink sweet peas tied with pink ribbon.

The brides gifts to her attendants consisted of a locket for Miss Marquedant and a pearl lace pin for Miss Martens. The groom's gift to the best man was a pearl and emerald scarf pin.

After the ceremony an elaborate course dinner was served. Many beautiful gifts were received. After a trip which will include New York, Old Point Comfort, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and a visit to the groom's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jarrel, of Kennedyville, the bridal couple will be at home at 7 Evergreen St, Rochester.

Among the guests at the wedding was Mrs. Elizabeth Scheib, the great-great aunt of the bride. Mrs. Scheib is 93 years of age.

The bride was a popular teacher of Rochester and upon her resignation a luncheon in her honor was given by her associate teachers.

The groom is the son of Mr. J. R. Jarrell of this county and is well and favorably known here. He is one of the bright, enterprising young men whom Kent has sent out and of whom she is justly proud. He holds a responsible position with the Bansch & Lamb Optical Company, of Rochester. [Queen Anne's pape.s please copy.]

COMEGYS—BROWN.

Beneath a bower of June roses on the velvety lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. D. Brown, at Claymont, Del., their daughter, Miss Alice Ether Brown, became the bride of H. Grafton Comegys on Saturday afternoon. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an exquisite gown of white French batiste, trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of gardenias and ferns. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ada L. Brown, as maid of honor and by Miss Marie Ramsey, of Philadelphia, Miss Elizabeth T. Doughten and Miss Alice Bell, of Wilmington, as bridesmaids. The maid of honor wore a frock of white net and lace and carried pink roses. The maids were gowned in white net and lace carried bouquets of pale yellow roses. Bridesmaids and maid of honor wore white picture hats. Little Helen Egbert and Oline Dickinson were ringbearers. The ushers were Messrs. Joseph Comegys, R Comegys, Bedford Hackett, Carroll Dickinson and Ellwood S. Garrett. To the strains of Lohengrin wedding march sung with piano accompaniment by Louis Craig, the bridal party emerged from the house and crossed the lawn to the rose bower, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thos. A. McCurdy, D. D., pastor of Central Presbyterian Church. The double ring ceremony was used. After their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs Comegys will reside at "The Cottage," Claymont, Del. Mr. Comegys was formerly one of our Millington boys and moved to Wilmington several years ago We wish him a happy and successful future.

Monument To A Good Man.—Mrs. James B. Merritt and her daughter, Mrs. Hepbron, of Baltimore, have had a tomb erected at Shrewsbury cemetery to the memory of the late Dr. James B. Merritt It is a large dark barre granite shaft seven foot high, beautifully polished, the inscription raised in a panel filling one side of the shaft. The family name Merritt in raised polished letters on two sides of the base Dr. Merritt was for 52 years a Methodist minister and his name will long be remembered. A. L. Davidson, of Chestertown, furnished the work.
