LIVER TROUBLES

"I find Thedford's Black-Draught a good medicine for liver disease. It cured my son after he had spent $100 with doctors. It is all the medicine I take."—MRS. CAROLINE MARTIN, Parkersburg, W. Va.

If your liver does not act regularly go to your druggist and secure a package of Thedford's Black-Draught and take a dose tonight. This great family medicine frees the constipated bowels, stirs up the torpid liver and causes a healthy secretion of bile.

Thedford's Black-Draught will cleanse the bowels of impurities and strengthen the kidneys. A torpid liver invites colds, biliousness, chills and fever and all manner of sickness and contagion. Weak kidneys result in Bright's disease which claims as many victims as consumption. A 25-cent package of Thedford's Black-Draught should always be kept in the house.

"I used Thedford's Black-Draught for liver and kidney complaints and found nothing to excel it."—WILLIAM COFFMAN, Marblehead, Ill.

Is it right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes 50 cents more on fourteen gallons of ready-for-use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property-owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

ADVENTISTS SERMON.

Preached at Rock Hall by Rev. O. O. Farnsworth, of Washington. D. C.

Rev. O. O. Farnsworth, of Washington, D. C., preached at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Rock Hall, on Sunday evening recently from the following text: "Grace be to you and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God, and our Father." Gal. 1:3,4.

Christ gave himself for something. He gave himself for our sins. Then how shall we be cleansed from these sins? The only way we can be cleansed from these sins is to give ourselves to Christ.

If you went to Baltimore and at one of the large stores there bought a suit of clothes for fifteen dollars, and in paying for them gave a twenty dollar bill, you would of course look for the change to be given to you for you had given more than you had received.

When Christ comes to us and asks us to give to him the sins—our sins, and the Holy Spirit brings to our mind those things which we have done, then at last we see ourselves lost in the sight of God. The past can never be reclaimed, therefore the only way we can do is to confess before God our past sins, and having done this we have peace with Him who has given himself for our sins.

Does it mean that we shall confess our sins to night and then worry about them on the morrow? Abraham was called by the Lord, to go out of his country, and from his kindred, and from his father's house, but Abraham was not quite ready, he was not ready to forsake all. Abraham did not quite fully obey. We are not quite ready to give up all. We harbor in our minds something which we cannot give up. Why not surrender all, and thus get rid of worry which is done.

When Abraham took his father by his hand and started forward on his journey he did not get very far because he had not forsaken all as God had directed. So we, like Abraham, do not get very far on our journey to the promised land. On New Year's eve we reflect of the many crooked paths into which our feet have turned during the past year and resolve to do better. But how soon we fail! The Lord does not want us to stand year after year in the same position, but to get out of those crooked paths and let our characters develop in the way of righteousness and truth. When we confess our sins let us forsake them and get out of our sinful ways. He came forth to deliver us from this present evil world.

The greatest evil we have to contend with is ourselves. It is the evil that is natural to ourselves; but it is the will of God and Our Father that we shall be delivered. Then why not let us accept this deliverancy. My mind goes back to the time of slavery, and the president of the United States proclaimed freedom unto slaves. When these words were heralded from this proclamation, how long do you think it took to herald this message of freedom? Only a few hours passed, until almost every corner of the United States had heard the result of such a message. It is our privilege today to proclaim that we are free men in Christ Jesus. And yet there are many in bondage to-day. I want to say to such that Jesus Christ has come and proclaimed us free in Him.

When the children of Israel were captive in Babylon they were asked to sing the song of Zion, but replied, how can we sing? we are now in captivity. But by and by the proclamation went forth that turned their captivity into singing. Upon their return to Jerusalem, they could now sing their songs as of old. They no longer needed to hang their harps on the willows. Why is it that our songs do not arise from our hearts day after day? Because there are things which bind us down.

There will be three classes of persons in the judgment. We will, however, recognize only the two in our study to-night. There is a book often spoken of in the Bible as The Lamb's Book of Life.

When an individual accepts Christ his name must necesarily be entered on the Lamb's Book of Life. Now if you and I will not be faithful here we will not be faithful in heaven. We must form character here. The Book of Life will show a clear record of our life here on this earth. If we have stood loyal and faithful and made a clear confession here, then we shall stand clear before God.

Now after God has rewarded his children, then the wicked dead come for their reward. They will have to reap what they have sown. Is it not true that men work for wages? Then is it not fair for the wicked to receive that for which they have worked. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. 6: 23. We gave him our sins and what did he give?—his life he gave.

What do we get when we receive Christ? He that gets Christ gets life.
