CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. D. L. Greenfield, pastor of Christ Church, Chestertown, has received a flattering call from a Seattle, Washington, Church and is now holding the same under consideration. The salary is nearly $2,000 and the field wide. Seattle is one of the prettiest cities of the Pacific coast, located on Puget Sound with scenery surrounding it which is hard to eclipse. The Maryland Conference will be loath to give up this able preacher and his friends in Chestertown will not listen to it.

The Kent county Christian Endeavor Union will be held at St. James Church on Thursday, August 10th. The program will be published later.

The big Endeavor Convention begins in Baltimore next week. It will be the largest convention ever held in this State and all who can possibly attend should not miss this rare opportunity. A number from Kent heard the big chorus of 2400 voices in concert last night.

The Chestertown churches have made arrangements to hold their picnics at Love Point. The P. E. School will go Wednesday, July 5th; the M. E. school on July 12th and Christ church on July 19th. Each passenger will be charged 15 cents so that the schools will find this picnic more costly than heretofore.

Excellent Program.—The closing exercises of the scholastic year at Cherry Lane School took place Wednesday, June 21. The room was artistically decorated, green being the prevailing color, while daisies and roses were used most profusely. The following program was excellently rendered by the pupils of the school:

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Rev. Warren Burr was sufficiently recovered from his illness of last week to occupy his pulpit on Sunday morning and preach a most excellent sermon on Spiritual growth, using for his text Col. 3: 1. Tomorrow morning he will preach to the Secret benevolent societies who will attend service in a body. A good old brother belonging to the Holy Jumpers, or other Holiness Order, recently moved here from Tilghman's Island, has been giving the Secret Order members of the church "Hail Columbia." He declares the Orders to be all works of the devil, and we are all going to the devil unless we get out of them. Parson Burr is not much of a Secret Society man, but we hope there is a warm place in his great heart for the Orders, and that he will send forth some ray of hope to the fraternal brotherhoods, who have for lo! these many years considered the fraternal orders handmaids of religion, as they have from year to year been caring for the sick, burying the dead, relieving distress, educating orphans and succoring the widow.

The proposition to add several new rooms to our already ill-shaped public school house meets with very little favor here, but what does meet with much favor is the razing of the present structure and the erection of a substantial up-to-date school building and an effort is on foot to bring that to pass.

The recent wet weather has been very detrimental to our farmers in their harvesting operations. Some fear wheat will be in a damaged condition. The cool dry wind of Tuesday no doubt has put such fears to route.

Capt. Dowling, as he was bound home in his vessel the latter part of last week saw a dead man floating in the bay off Swan Point, but it was so rough that he could not pick the body up, he reported the matter as soon as he rerched harbor and some went out and found the man. He was clad in a bathing suit and it was thought he was drowned at Tolchester. The body was given a decent burial.

Mr. E. E. Leary and crew on board the power boat Bye, is freighting popular logs from Wye river this week.

Virgil Kendall is one of our boss gardeners in this section. He has a splendid tillage of corn and takes special delight in calling the attention of passers and the goods box fraternity to the fine corn and other crops. His trucking success is such that there is talk of his renting a farm for next year.

Mrs. C. W. Ayres who has been quite ill, is reported convalescing, which affords joy to many in this section.

Rev. Mr. Conoway, of Piney Neck Church, has with the aid of some of his membership, established a Sunday School in Skinner's Neck.

Some parties have toured R. H. harbor and swiped nearly all the boat rigging, patent tongs, and other implements of the watermen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester entertained for the day on Sunday Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D. and Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Cain.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and children, of Black's, visited relatives here on Sunday.

Sunday was surely a red letter day for the old historic church built 49 years ago on June the 24th, remodled 25 year ago, and on Sunday reopened after an entire renovating, painted outside and interior most beautifully, white with green trimmings, oak doors, chancel and seats oak and beautiful new furniture for the pulpit. Long before the hour for services the doors were thrown open to a large gathering of visitors. The church looked beautiful. Rev. F. T. Tagg, D. D., of Baltimore, preached a most eloquent sermon. The church was filled from chancel to doors. The choir and our faithful organist, Mrs. John F. Ernest, rendered some beautiful music. Mrs. Frank Bablett and Miss Bessie Gunkie sang a beautiful duette very sweetly. Mr. Andrew Reynolds sang a beautiful solo in his usual fine style, and indeed all did most excellent. The amount raised was $157, and much to the surprise of every one our former beloved superintendent, Mr. Robert S. Griffith, presented the church with $135 he had collected by his own effort, making in all nearly $300, and now this old historic church is entirely clear of debt and the cemetery will be fixed. The ladies have been untiring, and too much praise can't be given them. The day will long be remembered.

Report of Sassafras School.—In May the Merit System was begun in the above school. Those making a record clear of demerits are as follows:

Theresa Dreka, Mildred Shepherd, Helen Stradley, Mary Davis, John Ernest, Masten Shallcross, Phean Vansant, John Rosin, Douglas Ernest, Frank Sylvester, Robert Johnston, Clark Colgain, Ethel Johnston, Ruth Vansant, Mary Griffith, Lloyd Johnston, Warren Johnston, Wilson Vansant, Irving Atwell, Buelah Stradley, Elizabeth Johnston, Linela Morris, Willie Baker, Annie Colgain, Willie Turner, Edith Spry, Allen Johnston, Elizabeth Gibbs.
