VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1905. NO. 9.

DownweCome

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

ARCHER HEPBRON DROWNED

A Grandson Of Mrs. J. B. Merritt Goes Bathing At Harris' Wharf And Loses His Life.

Mr. Archer Kerr Hepbron, who lives in Baltimore, has been spending a few weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Merritt, in Worton. Monday morning in company with the two Ivens boys, John Sutton and James Hepbron, he went to Harris' wharf crabbing. During the day Archer and John Sutton took a bath, Archer got over his head in a hole and came near pulling his companion in with him. Archer could not swim and John found it impossible to help him so that the young man lost his life. His body was soon recovered.

The unfortunate young man was just 21 years of age and was a student at the Maryland University of Law, Baltimore. He was intelligent to a high degree and specially talented for his chosen profession. Funeral services were held from the home of his grandmother on Thursday morning, interment in Shrewsbury cemetery; W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

SHOCKED BY ELECTRICITY.

Dave Blake Knocked Senseless in Chestertown Sunday Night by Live Wire.

Dave Blake, a well-known employe on Mr. Wilbur Eliason's farm, near town, was burned aud shocked by an electric wire on the streets of Chestertown Sunday night.

Dave and his wife drove to town and stopped near the postoffice in order to mail some letters. Dave accidently caught hold of a live wire dangling from the pole in front of Miss Townsend's store. A touch was sufficient. He was knocked senseless to the ground and sparks flew from his hands while the burning of his flesh was nauseating. Dave's wife began to yell which drew quite a crowd to the scene. Messrs. Kennard Aldridge and others, by means of a cane soon removed the wire, after which Dr. C. W. Whaland rendered medical aid. He was taken to the home of his daughter and on Tuesday removed to his home in the country. Supt. Latham says the shock amounted to 500 volts and was caused by a telephone wire coming in contact with an electric wire.

SUBSISTED ON BERRIES.

For 72 Hours Two Little Ones Had Not Tasted Water—Apparently Unharmed By Experience.

With only wild berries for food and not a drop of water during the seventy-two hours in which they wandered aimlessly in the thickets of Anne Arandel county, Lena and Sophia Cohen, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cohen, of Baltimore, who disappeared Sunday morning while on an outing with their father at Altona, on Stony creek, were found by Walter Johnson, a 12-year-old farmer boy, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning sitting in a clump of bushes on the banks of the creek.

The children were perfectly well, and, after being provided with food and otherwise cared for by women at Altona, were taken to the city and restored to their parents at 1 o'clock The news of the finding of the little ones was received in the city about 12 o'clock, and when the Music, the launch in which they were brought to the city, arrived at Brown's wharf, more than 300 men, women and children crowded the pier.

It Pays.—Mr. A. L. Hudson says it pays to advertise in the NEWS. He advertised a pair of mules a few weeks ago and since then he has had calls for eighteen mules! He sold the mules after the first publication in the NEWS. Moral—If you want to buy or have anything to sell, try the KENT NEWS.

THE picnic to Love Point Wednesday by the Protestant Episcopal Sunday school was enjoyed by 125 persons and all report a splendid time.

A JOLLY PARTY of young men from Elkton enjoyed a trip to Betterton on the Spray Sunday. They had a delightful trip, but on the return noticed that while the engine was running smoothly the craft did not make her usual good speed An examination disclosed the fact that some bather at Betterton, shocked at seeing the three young blades disporting naked in the water had modestly decked the propeller in a bathing suit consisting of an old pair of trousers and a waistcoat.

A LARGE COMPANY from Chestertown enjoyed an outing at Betterton and Port Deposit Thursday afternoon.

WANTED.

ESCAPED PRISONER CAUGHT.

Sheriff Keyser Gets Elmer Hynson In Delaware—Charged With Arson.

An important arrest was made Friday afternoon when Elmer Hynson, colored, was taken into custody at State Road, Delaware, by Chief of Police Black and Special Officer Cornish on a charge of arson, and of being a fugitive from Maryland justice.

Hynson was found working with a threshing machine and was greatly surprised when Chief Black and Cornish accosted him and told him he was under arrest. He had been at liberty so long he imagined he was immune from recapture.

Hynson is alleged to have set fire to Mrs. Cannon's house in Quaker Neck, over a year ago, in a spirit of revenge. The house was occupied by two women, and it is charged that Hynson tried to burn down the dwelling to "get even" with them for some imaginary grudge.

He fled to Delaware and was captured by Officer Cornish in August last while attending a negro campmeeting near Christiana, Del. He was returned to Chestertown and placed in jail there. While the grand jury was considering his case he walked out of jail and escaped about the time an indictment for arson was returned against him.

Sheriff Keyser brought his prisoner to jail Saturday. Hynson skipped on a cattle ship and has but recently returned from London.

LOCAL NEWS.

Oysters on a Bottle—Mr. Wm. Urie, of Rock Hall, while crabbing this week caught an empty beer bottle and sent it to the NEWS office. It's a curiosity. Clinging to the bottle were fifteen good sized oysters which showed that oysters if given half a chance will thrive and flourish on most anything But this was not found on one of Brother Haman's barren bottoms.

Enlarged.— If all of Uncle Sam's employes swelled the revenues as does Postmaster Thomas there would be no deficit of $25,000,000. The office here is increasing in revenue quarterly and a change has been made this week which will further increase the revenue by the rental of 82 additional lock boxes. This building is fast becoming too small for the needs of this office.

To Be Improved.—Mr. F. H. Russell, a former superintendent of the Chestertown Electric Light Company, has been recalled to Chestertown and will take charge at once. A new boiler has been contracted for and other important changes will be made so as to place the plant in first class condition and insure better service. The public will welcome Mr. Russell to Chestertown. He and his estimable wife have rented the cottage of Mr. A. M. Culp on Kent street near Washington avenue and will take possession at once.

Farm Notes.—W. Y. Burke got 25 bushels per acre off a 25-acre field on the Dodd farm.

Vincent Lee has rented Gresham Hall and J. B. Jacquette takes the Barroll farm.

Mr. Augustine Money has rented the Snitcher farm in Queen Anne's. Ivanhoe Willis will have a sale early in September.

There are twelve sail vessels carrying grain out of Chester river above Quaker Neck wharf.

Mr. Sam'l Loller has rented Mr. W. W. Beck's farm, Mr. Harry Deputy intending to quit and will sell Sept., 7th.

A Beautiful Tablet.—The former pastors of Sacred Heart Church, Chestertown, and a personal friend of the late Miss Josephine Redue have placed to her memory a costly and handsome bronze tablet in the church she loved so well. The tablet is 26 inches x 3 feet and was put in place by Mr. Milton Baker. The inscription is as follows:

Sacred to the memory of
MISS JOSEPHINE EMELINE REDUE
For nearly fifty years a member of this parish
Born January 12, 1827.
Died March 15, 1704.

Simple in character, warm in heart, untiring in energy.

She was full of love and good works for her Divine Master.

And for this sanctuary so long her spiritual home.

"I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of thy house; and the place where thy glory dwelleth."—Ps. XV 8.

A monument has been placed at the grave of Miss Redue in Chester cemetery by her friends in Chestertown through the efforts of Mrs. Marion Rogers. Mr. Davidson furnished the stone at cost and donated his work on same.

Cut Her Hair.—One of the most singular occurences which has been reported in this section was the accident that befell Miss Maud Giddings, an attractive young lady of Rocky Mount, last Tuesday night.

Miss Giddings had a very beautiful suit of hair, which was greatly admired. The weather being extremely warm Tuesday night, she drew her small bed near to the window of her room, which was on the first floor of her father's home, and she soon fell asleep. Upon awakening Miss Giddings was astounded to find her head shorn of its locks, which were lying in a heap on the floor beside her couch. Some time during the night some miscreant had crept to the window, and with a sharp pair of shears had clipped every one of the beautiful golden locks. Neither the family nor the young lady herself has any clue to the haircutter.

Harbor Notes.—The yacht "Josephine," commanded by owner, Mr. C. E. Crane has been on a little cruise this week to St. Michaels, Talbot Co., Md. The "Josephine" is as pretty as a picture in her new white dress; is as graceful as a swan with all sails set and drawing; is swift as the winds, and plunges the briny waves with perfect security; and the Master is as hospitable as men of "ye olden time." His friends almost envy him his love of the beautiful craft.

Capt. King, accompained by Geo. E. Lambert, Jr., piloted the launch "Cinderella" to Betterton Saturday. Owing to the storm they had to take harbor at Rock Hall over night but reached their destination at night on Sunday.

The Emma Ford leaves Chestertown, Saturday evening at 7.30 arriving in Baltimore about midnight; returning, arrives here 1 A. M. Monday.

Commodore, J. K. Aldridge on his yacht "Hesperus" is cruising down the river in company with his two sons. Capt. Charles S. Smith weighed anchor Thursday on board his yacht "Lucy." Capt. Thos. Storkes in command. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith and four children, Mrs. S. F. Smith and cook. The Lucy is provided with toilet room, ladies' cabin, men's cabin, ice chest to hold 500 pounds of ice, water chests, etc.. etc. Captain Smith expects to touch at various towns on the Eastern Shore, and will be absent about two weeks.

Boat Sunk.—Capt. John Hess, a well known fisherman of Pond's Creek, together with three colored men, John Sewell, Thomas Irelan and George Ransom, of the same locality, were drowned in the Susquehanna River below Havre de Grace Saturday afternoon about four o'clock. Capt. Hess and five colored men had gone to Havre de Grace that morning in his small naphtha launch, the "Jessie," to lay in supplies. When near the Battery the engine became disabled and as a high wind was blowing the small craft soon filled with water from the waves and sank in about five feet of water. Capt. Hess and the men tried to wade to safety but only two of the latter succeeded, the others either becoming exhausted or stepping into deep water.
