Considerable interest is being manifested not only there, but by the other societies of the union as well. A choir of forty voices which is being arranged for is a feature that should do much towards the success of the convention. Several local speakers will be heard for the first time as convention speakers. Our three out of the county speakers are new to us. State President, Mr. Fred. Ohrenschall, is expected. Rev. C. E. B. NEWS UP THE COUNTY.

Fishing and crabbing parties seem to be in their bloom at Golt's and one which will long be remembered was the one which left the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Matthews near Golts on Friday last. About two o'clock with Mrs. Matthews as chaperon the young folks started on a jolly old straw-ride bound for Wilson's point where fishing, crabbing and boating were indulged in until about six thirty o'clock when a magnificent lunch which the ladies had prepared was brought forth, and for quite a while every one was so busy that they lost their appetite. To some the time flew by so fast that they could not half guess the hour. All enjoyed the occasion. Those present were, Mrs. J. F. Matthews, Misses Mary McKay, Mary Stewart, Addie Ford, Hattie Higgins and Blanche Hewitt. Messrs. Rosco, Worton, Rev. T J. Smith, C. W. Spry and Edwin E. Morris.

Miss Johnson, of Washington, D. C, has been visiting Miss Etta Whitaker, of Galana.

A party of young people from Galena enjoyed a trip to Betterton on the launch "Myrtle," Friday afternoon. Those of the party were Misses Frances Johnson, Viola Merchant, Lena Bishop, Etta Whitaker. Messrs. Irving Vansant, Frank Rodgers, Wm. Merchant, Ernest Hicks and Hanson Horsey.

Misses Carrie and Gertie Dempsey had as their guests last week, Misses Frances, Sadie and Mary Dempsey Messrs. Harman and George Dempsey, of Del., Misses Elsie and Ethel DuHamell and Wm. Dempsey, of Cecil Co. Misses Minnie and Nellie Hicks, of Washington, D. C.

Has Driven 221,564 Miles.—Capt. James A. Russell, the veteran stage driver of Chestertown and Tolchester, is indisposed. Mr. A. L Benjamin is substituting for him. Capt, Russell has been driving a twice-daily back from Chestertown to Tolchester for 27 years, and in that time it is estimated that he has driven at least 221,564 miles going and coming from Tolchester.

A Valuable Work.—Mrs. Hester Dorsey Richardson, president of the Public Records Commission of Maryland with her husband, Albert L. The Commission was established by the last session of the Legislature, and its purpose is to examine the public records of the same, and to recommend whatever is necessary to preserve them. It is expected that the next session of the Legislature will appropriate sufficient money to pay for re-copying all records where this is considered necessary, and to meet the other expenses of the Commission.
