VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 12, 1905. NO. 10.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

Money In Peaches!

Mr. Alexander Bacon, of near Melitota, has five acres in peaches which paid him $500 in 1903, $700 in 1904, and this year he expects to get at least $560. He carried 100 baskets of fruit to Buck Neck wharf one day last week and brought home $100 The purchaser got $1.30 per basket!

Messrs. James S. Harris and son, James, of Still Pond Neck, have sold their fine crop of peaches for 90 cents per basket delivered on Betterton wharf. These gentlemen will have about six or seven thousand baskets!

J. G. Harrison & Sons, of Berlin, will accept our thanks for a beautiful sample of Ray peach which arrived in good condition through the mail.

The peach orchards of central Delaware, though damaged in many places, are proving veritable gold mines as the remains of the 1905 crop comes into bearing, says the State News.

"Give from $1.00 to $1.75 to $2.00 per basket for good peached" was a record-breaking telegram received by A. E. Jardine, of Smyrna, Tuesday and C. P. Gears and others of Smyrna growers hurried in their ripe fruit. Mr. Gears has nearly 2,000 baskets on two farms.

James Keith, the Dover farmer whose peach orchard on the Jackson farm seems to have been providentially protected from the April freeze, hauled his ripe fruit to Wyoming this week and received an average price of $1 32 per basket for the fruit as it came.

While his wagon contained some of the famous white peach known as the Champion, yet he also delivered a large number of Lodge peaches, a peach only meritorious in looks. Mr. Keith has 1,500 baskets. Fancy fruit at Wyoming Tuesday brought $1.90 per basket.

OFFICER GETCHALL created some excitement uptown Saturday night by firing a pistol after a colored prisoner. It seems that a negro named Barroll was being carried to jail by the officer and when near Dodd's shop he broke away and ran. The officer's bullet failed to stop him and he has since been at large. A number of girls were on the street and thought the negro was chasing them!

CAMPING IN KENT.

A Jolly Club of Dutchmen at "Staunton"—They Eat 150 Chickens at a Meal—"Cousin's Reunion" at Galena.

"Staunton," the beautiful bayside farm of Mr, Harry Price, is the camping ground of a club of 150 wealthy Dutchmen from Alleganey City, Pa. This club brought 130 kegs of beer and 100 tons of ice as a "starter" and for dinner the first day consumed 150 dressed chickens! Mr. Price finished threshing wheat a few days before their arrival and they nearly took all his straw to make beds!

This jolly club have a brass band and enjoy themselves dancing, fishing, bathing, boating, etc. The wives of many of them are at the hotels in Betterton and only visit the camp when especially invited. These gentlemen pride themselves on being Hollanders and do not want to be called Germans

The past week was one which will long be remembered by the young people who were present at the "Cousin's Reunion" at the home of Mr. Theo. Dempsey, of Galena. From the time the first guest arrived on Monday morning, July 24th, until the last farewells were waved on the following Monday, the Dempsey homestead was the scene of such a good time as only a crowd of young people can make. Two points on the Sassafras river were visited on Tuesday and Wednesday, and crabbing, fishing and bathing were indulged in to the delight of all. A strawride was Thursday evening's diversion; the party being delightfully entertained at the home of friends near Millington.

On Friday the "Cousins," with friends from Galena and Cecilton, gathered at a beautiful spot on the river's bank, where after a most pleasant afternoon they were ready to do ample justice to the supper which was spread on the grass by the lassies,, ably assisted by the lads. When the "Cousins" were at home they enjoyed the swing, hammocks, croquet, and tennis on the shady lawn or whiled away the hours with music and merry chatter. The "Cousins" were: Misses Carrie and Gertrude Dempsey, of Galena; Minnie and Nellie Hicks, of Washington, D. C.; Sadie and Mary Dempsey, of Newark Elsie and Ethel DuHamell, of Earleville; Frances M. Dempsey, of Dover; Ethel B. McNamee, of Marshalton; George R. Dempsey, of Newark, and Harman C. Dempsey, of Dover.

He bore his affliction with christian fortitude. All that loving hands could do was done by his faithful and loving wife and children and kind friends. He was a man loved and respected by all who knew him and his home was one where love and sunshine always dwelled and he was happiest when he could minister to the needs of others or have his friends around him.
