KENT FISHERMEN FINED.

The trial of the first of the purse-net cases, growing out of the recent raids made by Assistant State Game Warden Oregon Milton Dennis was held before Justice Robert C. Rhodes, in Baltimore, on Monday.

The case was that of the schooner Rebecca, of Rock Hall, Kent county. State Senator Clarence W. Perkins represented the captain of the schooner, Frank Davis, and the crew, consisting of Lawrence Davis, William McCullison, Carroll Davis, Nelson Williams, Pierce Ore and Clarence Cully, all of Rock Hall.

They entered a plea of guilty, whereupon Justice Rhodes imposed a fine of $50 on the captain and the same fine on each of the crew, and confiscated to the State the schooner, two twenty-four foot yawl boats, and one purse net of about 135 fathoms, the whole penalty amounting to about $1800.

Some remission of this heavy fine will be granted by Assistant Warden Dennis, but just what will be done Mr. Dennis declines at present to say.

A case is also pending against the schooner Mary E. Crockett, Captain Sewell, of Rock Hall, and his crew of six. It will shortly be tried.

In speaking of the cases Mr. Dennis said there will be no let-up on the purse netters. He stated he is credibly informed that even since the arrests lately made a number of boats have been violating the law in the Chesapeake Bay above the line, and that no leniency will hereafter be shown to any of the captains or crews caught in the future, and that there will be absolutely no remission of such fines as may be imposed.

In a trial yesterday before Justice Calder, of Chestertown, Mr. H. H. Hardesty, of Piney Neck, was found not guilty of selling goods without license.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Of the fishing cases recently brought before the law by the Deputy Warden, Capt. George Davis, was acquitted. Capt. Frank Davis compromised his case by the payment of about $160. Capt. G. T. Sewell believing he had a good prospect of acquital, concluded to let the Warden "jump his length," the result be as it may. There are among us many followers of Sir Izaak Walton these days and are having lots of sport among the finny tribe.

The annual outing of the M. E. Sunday School took place on Wednesday in Wilkinsons' Grove. It was an all day affair and everybody irraspective of church affiliation, was invited to join in the occasion, an abundance of refreshments were served. A feature of the occasion was a song service immediately after the mid-day lunch.

Mr. Charles Brown late of this place, who for sometime past has been employed in Washington, met with an accident which incapacitated him from work. He was granted a two weeks vacation, which he is spending here among his many friends.

Mr. Wesley K Ayres is quite ill with typhoid fever, so is Mr. Harry Rich. Jupiter Pluvius has been on a rampage this month sure and there is no sign of a halt.

The dredging operations in our harbor seems to be displeasing to some. The work is now going on off Huntingfield Point and it is considered useless, consequently some have been making an effort to have the work discontinued.

The oystermen are getting a hustle on now in preparations for September 1st.
