HEALTH PHYSICIAN for Kent county, Dr. H. G. Simpers, on the 2nd page of the NEWS today gives warning and advice in regard to typhoid fever. Every person should read this and take heed.

THE Kent County Teachers' Institute held in Chestertown this week has been a model of its kind. Prof. Melvin has had the very best speaker she could engage. the music has been of a specially high order and the entertainments in Stam's Hall were arranged for the benefit of the public. We are sorry to note, however, the unappreciativeness of our citizens, the Institute having been poorly attended. These matters concern the vital interests of all parents and they should awake to these things. The teacher cannot do it all.

THE well-known phrase "go away from home to learn news" had a striking illustration some weeks ago. The NEWS stated on good authority that the contract for building a new town hall in Centreville would be awarded to W. S. & A. M. Culp, of Chestertown. The Queen Anne's papers both contradicted this statement. They have since learned better and this week will simply confirm the news item made in the NEWS two weeks ago!

THE Kent county Republican convention dealt very largely in resolutions but said not one word against the Democratic management of county affairs. The proceedings were all in the interest of the darkey. How we can retain for him his voting privilege is the burden of Republican effort in the county and State. The all important matters that touch the interest of the poor taxpayer is forgotten, and our worthy board of county commissioners get no word either of commendation or censure. No doubt that august convention would have fired hot shot into county affairs if the way had been open, but it was not. The members of the board of county commissioners individually and collectively have conducted their work so carefully and so manifestly in the interest of the people that their most bitter political enemies cannot find cause for censure. Under the good work and economies of the present levy court the county tax rate has been greatly reduced and an encouraging outlook presented for even greater reductions next year. The people—the taxpayers certainly—appreciate results and have no desire to turn the county over to the Republicans. Our neighbors in Cecil tried this experiment and the Cecil county taxpayer today is paying a tax-rate nearly double that under Democratic management.

Assessment of Colored Residents.

The following table will show the total assessment of property owned by colored residents in Kent county:

1st District	$40,936
2nd District	33,855
3rd District	33,191
4th District	39,308
5th District	15,166
6th District	39,203
7th District	32,196
Total	$ 233,945

The total assessment of property owned by the white tax-payers amount to about $7,500,000! Isn't this a strong plea for the passage of the Poe Amendment? What tax-payer can vote against such a measure with these figures before him?

A Beautiful Store.—Saturday was opening day at Harry F. Jefferson's new store on High street, Chestertown, and notwithstanding the rain scores of persons visited the palace of beauty and bargains and expressed their good wishes. The building which adjoins the postoffice is of brick; two stories, 25x85 feet, with modern full glass front and skylight, heated throughout by hot-water radiators, lighted by a private gas plant and electricity and with latest toilet and sanitary conveniences, equipment is a credit to the town and a monument to Mr. Jefferson's energy and spirit of progress. Magnificent stock of merchandise has been arranged and displayed in catchy and pleasing manner by himself and his efficient staff of assistants, composed of Mr. A. W. Carmine, of Queen Anne's, head salesman; Mrs. J. Lane Finley, supt. notions department; Miss Katie Wheatley, supt. millinery department, and Miss Emma Knight, cashier. Duyer Bros. were the builders of this fine store and M. E. Baker did the painting.

Sudden Death.—Rebecca Maze, wife of Henry Maze, a well-known colored resident of Chestertown, dropped dead at the depot Tuesday. She was about to go to Philadelphia to visit her daughter, had bade her friends good-bye and was buying her ticket when she died. She asked Mr. Culp about her baggage and while he was talking to her she dropped to the floor dead. She leaves a large family. Dr. Hines pronounced the cause of the death to be heart disease.

THE annual meeting of Almshouse board was held at the home on Wednesday. Mr. Wm. Ford was re-elected as superintendent and Dr. C. W. Whalano physician. Two excellent and most efficient officials.
