DO YOU SEE THIS FELLOW?

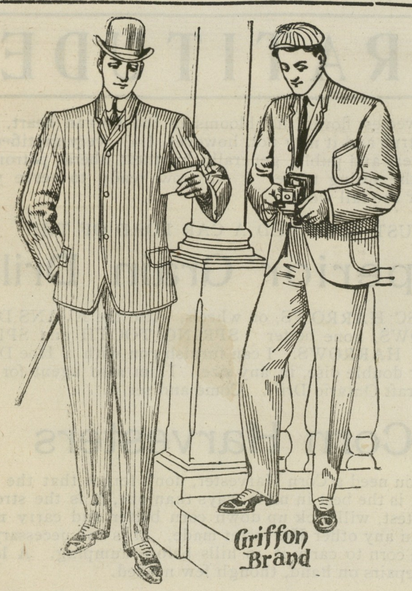

LOOKS SURPRISED, DON'T HE?

Well, this is about the expression of those visiting our Regular Semi-Annual Reduction Sales.

We now propose to clear up all Summer goods at very much reduced prices.

Now we mean reductions from our already low quotations and every article of merchandise in our establishment is marked in plain figures. You can well see the significance and realize the difference in prices asked for similar qualities by city houses.

Come early while we have a fair assortment in Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing, Straw Hats, Summer Underwear, Separate Trowsers and all Summer Merchandise will now be cleaned up.

Woodal Power Barge.—Mr. Andrew Woodall, the merchant and ship owner of Georgetown, Md., sent to Baltimore, Monday the latest addition to his power barge fleet, the Kitty Woodall, which with the A. Woodall and Island Mills, he has built within three years. All the hulls have been built by the Cambridge Manufacturing Company, of Cambridge.

The Kitty Woodall is 106 feet long, 23 feet beam and 6 ft. 6 inches depth of hold. She has a carrying capacity for 225 tons deadweight, and Monday she brought 3,000 bushels of wheat as her maiden cargo. One 85-horsepower Globe gasolene drives the craft 10 miles an hour under even conditions of weather, whether loaded or light.

Capt. James E. Woodall is in charge of the barge, with Walter R. Woodal, engineer; Harry W. Newman, mate, and W. C. Scotten, second mate. The last addition to Mr. Woodall's fleet, like the others, will be used in transporting grain cargoes from the Eastern Shore and return with general merchandise.

WORTON ITEMS.

Quarterly Conference was held at the Union M. E. Church last Saturday. In spite of the inclement weather a good number was present.

A good many of our people attended the fair last week to witness the fine trotting of West Morrill, owned by Mr. George Rash, and great was their delight when he won both races. He is a fine horse and we all feel very proud of him.

John Duyer, Jr, who has held a position at Betterton all summer has returned to his home here.

Captain and Mrs. John Thomas are visiting relatives in Rock Hall.

Mr. Gus Vannort, of Philadelphia, has been spending some time at the home of Mrs. Rachel Taylor.

Miss Lula Hines and brother Mr. Frank Hines, of Wilmington, have returned to their home after a long and pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Turner.

Miss Smith, of Cecil, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jos. Atwell.

Mrs. Frank Dalton, Phila., is guest of her parents, Mr. & Mrs. J. P. Sutton.

Mrs. Ida L. Young, of Wilmington, spent some time this week with her niece Mrs. George N. Cooper.

Ayer's

You know the medicine that makes pure, rich blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your mother, grandmother, all your folks, used it. They trusted it. Their doctors trusted it. Your doctor trusts it. Then trust it yourself. There is health and strength in it.

Sarsaparilla

"I suffered terribly from indigestion and thin blood. I found no relief until I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Four bottles permanently cured me."
MRS. F. R. HART, Mt. Kisco, N. Y.
