VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1905. NO. 15

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

SERIOUS DRIVING ACCIDENT

Misses Mary Rogers and Maud Carter Injured in an Accident near Fairlee Thursday Evening.—Other Accidents.

Misses Mary Rogers and Maud Carter while returning from Tolchester Thursday afternoon met with quite a serious accident in which Miss Rogers had her leg broken below the knee and Miss Carter sprained her foot.

The ladies were driving Miss Roger's spirited chestnut gelding and when near Mr. P. Jump's corn field the animal took fright and bolted. Miss Carter took hold of the reins to assist Miss Rogers, and in some way the rein or buckel parted or became unfastened from the bit. Having but one rein in order to check the animal he was pulled up on the road bank. Miss Rogers was thrown out and struck her leg against the wheel, breaking it in two places. Miss Carter jumped from the runabout and sprained her foot.

Judge John P. Nicholson telephoned from Fairlee for help. But in the meantime Mr. Percy Hatcherson arrived and had Miss Rogers on mattress in dearborn in which they were brought to town. Drs. W. F. Hines and C. W. Whaland attended the ladies and at this writing they are doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Carter, is a niece of Mrs. Hiram M. Brown, and lives in Washington Square, New York City. Miss Rogers is the attractive niece of R. D. Hynson, Esq., and is known as a fearless driver.

Mr. William Jones, foreman on J. B. Jacquette's farm, caught his hand in a corn harvester yesterday and injured himself quite severely. Dr. Simmons dressed the wound.

Mrs. Annie Hayes in returning to her home on Washington avenue Thursday evening mistook the old crossing for the new one and fell cutting her face slightly and receiving a general shake-up.

An unfortunate accident took place in Clayton Monday night when Hiram Woolfred the popular baggage agent at the Clayton Depot was shot in the hand by Robert Reese who mistook him for an intruder in his bean patch. It appears that Reese has a bean patch that has been considerably trespassed of late and he made up his mind that he would shoot the next man he caught in the lot. Some one informed Rees that a man was in his bean patch. Grabbing his double barreled gun he rushed out of the house and without stopping to inquire who it was, fired a load out of his gun toward the supposed intruder. Hiram Woolfred gave a yell but too late He received the load in his left hand which acquired the attention of a physician to dress the wound. Reese was much disturbed when he found who it was and regretted the accident exceedingly.

PULLED THE CAPTAIN'S LEG

Passenger on Steamer Corsica Got No Money, But Was Sayed from a Watery Grave. Capt. Vandyke Made Swinging Ladder of Himself and Rescued Unfortunate Man.

Capt. William Vandyke, master of the steamer Corsica, of the Chester river fleet of the Maryland, Delaware, and Virginia Railway Company, by making a swinging ladder of himself rescued a passenger on his boat from being drowned during the trip from points on the Chester river to Baltimore Friday.

The man refused to give his name, saying that he did not want his friends to know that he had taken a bath with his clothes on. According to the passenger's statement, he was sitting on a chair on the upper deck while the boat was taking on grain at Chambers' wharf. In some way, the chair slipped, and he shot over the rail and into about 20 feet of water.

Capt. Vandyke, who was on the lower deck, heard the splash, which was immediately followed by a cry for help. Appreciating the fact that only by prompt action could the man be saved, and without waiting to secure unweildy hawsers or nearby life-preservers, the captain, who is more than six feet in height, swung himself over the Corsica's guard rail and as the man was about to disappear for the second time called to him to catch his (Captain Vandyke's) leg. The struggling man seized the extended limb with a tenacious grip and both men were hauled on board.

Further than a slight nervous shock and the wetting of a new suit of clothes the passenger suffered no inconvenience from his unexpected bath. He was transferred to the steamer B. S. Ford at Love Point a few hours later and brought to the city, where he lives.

Captain Vandyke refused to acknowledge that he had performed anything worthy of comment, or to accept the congratulations that were lavishly bestowed upon him by his friends along Light street. As a matter of fact, but for his promptness in going to the rescue the man would have been swept under the steamer by the swift current and drowned. The rescued man said, it is alleged, that the accident was entirely due to his own carelessness.

W. A. CARROLL, next door to Post-office, has a special line of school shoes. Watch for his new adv. next week.

FIVE SHARES of Second National Bank stock exchanged hands this week at $150, par $100.

ACCOSTED ON ROAD!

Mrs. Cochran's Team Stopped by a Negro—She Has a Pistol Near and Scares The Villian Off.

Mrs. Jack Cochran was accosted on the road in the upper part of Kent a few nights ago, but her resistance was too much for the negro and he ran away. She was returning home in her carriage alone and when near Golt's Station a burly negro stepped out from the bushes and grabbed her horse! Mrs. Cochran was prepared for such an emergency, for beside her lay a seven-shooter! She picked up the pistol and leveling it at his eyes told him to let go her horse or she would fill him with bullets. The negro saw the weapon and made a quick retreat.

"SHORTY" MITCHEL MURDERER.

A Well-known Chestertown Character Kills Isaac Anderson in Wilmington, Monday.

Following a quarrel over a woman one colored man shot and killed another in Wilmington, Del., Monday afternoon. Isaac Anderson, aged 31 years, was the murdered man, and James Mitchell, of Chestertown, is the negro who sped a bullet through Anderson's heart. Mitchell fled after the shooting, but was afterwards arrested at the home of his sweetheart.

In the saloon of James Bryan, the tragedy occured. Anderson and Mitchel wrangled over a woman, it was said along Front street, and about 1 o'clock they confronted each other in the saloon. They did not renew their discussion there, and had exchanged but few words when Mitchell dug a revolver from his pocket and fired point-blank at Anderson.

With blood streaming from a wound in his left breast Anderson reeled around and fell in a heap behind the bar. Bryan was behind the bar at the time and Elzie Briscoe, colored, was in the place getting a drink. The shooting occured so quickly that they could scarcely realize that a murder was being committed,

Mitchel, who did the shooting, left Chestertown, about three years ago, and had been living in Robert Kenyon's stable, near Front and French streets, where he took care of some horses quartered there. He is about 30 years old, and was known here as "Shorty" Mitchell. He bore a bad reputation here.

Fine Fishing Sport.—Local fishermen have been enjoying excellent fishing with rod and line near Chestertown, Cliff City and elsewhere. Ex-Justice T. D. France and S Q. Moody brought home a basket of fine rock, perch and taylors on Wednesday which they caught opposite Mr. France's farm. Mr. Moody took the prize by hauling in a 2½ and 2¾ pound rock! Messrs. Dr. D. L. Greenfield, Chas. L. Dodd, T. D. Bowers, H. C. Collins, D. A. Bacchus, Capt. J. A. Russell, Harry MeWhorter and others also caught a fine lot of fish off Cliff City this week

Capt. Wm. Crouch and wife of Piney Neck, entertained a company from Chestertown Tuesday. Luscious white catfish and juicy Chester river oysters were served hot off the coals. The party also caught a mess of rock, perch and eels!

Kent Man Had Hard Time.

When Thomas E. Seyfus, a farmer of Kent county, Marvland, finished his season's work recently, he decided to come to this city for a little enjoyment. Evidently he had more than his share of pleasure, for when officer Morrow, of the 2nd district, was patroling his beat past midnight he found his Maryland rustic raising high jinks in Davis Court, at Thirteenth and Bainbridge. Flourishing an old gun, patched and worn from much army service, Seyfus threatened to repel any one who was daring enough to approach him.

The policeman, however, has no difficulty in relieving Seyfus of his antique weapon. When brought before Magistrate Moore, of the Second and Christian streets station, the farmer from Maryland appeared in a most repentant mood. The magistrate, however, decided that his action of last night warranted a further inquiring into his career, and held Seyfus in $500 bail for Court on a charge of disorderly conduct.—Philadelphia Press.

CARRIER PIGEON came to J. Fletcher Clark's marked B. Y., No. 19180, Wednesday.
