ROCK HALL ITEMS.

The K. of P. Hall was well filled with appreciative hearers on Sunday morning while Rev. Mr. Burr delivered a strong and timely sermon on "Life's Work" from the text "What hast thou done," John 18, 35. From the preacher's point of view life,s work among christian parents is a grand success in the matter of rearing children for the service of the Devil.

Frescoing and otherwise improving the interior of the M. E. Church, is now well underway; next week the outer walls will be plastered, etc The pastor is personally superintending the work.

The M. E. Society are again called upon to relinguish the hymnal now in use for the purpose of installing the new hymnal recently adopted for the church North and South. It is difficult for the average worshippers to understand the reason for so many changes in the standard song book, except for the special benefit of the publishers.

There never was a more down in the dumps set of people than are our oystermen at this time. Oysters are scarce and below medium condition, the weather is anything but favorable and the future looks gloomy indeed. There are immense quantities of young oysters on all the bars that cannot be merchantable before November and by that time they will be caught up and sold off, not because our efficient police crew will be derelict in duty but because it is simply impossible for them to give the protection necessary on so large a teritory. Because of the fact that the young oysters will go, quite a number of the tongmen who have heretofore faithfully complied with the cull law are now tempted to fall in line with those who give no thought for the future and retain and sell, whenever possible, all they catch without regard to size. A number of our foreign oystermen have secured permanent employment at Sparrows Point, and as soon as they can obtain dwellings there they will remove their families. They have found it impossible to make more than money enough in the oyster business to buy bread and meat, and nothing left for house rent, wearing apparel, &c., hence their departure for a new field of labor. Others would do likewise if they could. Let's cheer up, men, the thing may not be so bad as it looks. Some oystermen are favorab y impressed with the suggestion of a rest for two years for all the oyster bars. Rest is the needed thing. Unless this is obtainable somehow, the industry will have run its course. A two years rest for all bars would be tough for the fraternity, but a two years toughness is far better than a lifetime of toughness.

Capt. J. R. Downey is paying strict attention to oystermen in both bay and river. He has already made several arrests for violation of the cull law.

Mr. Thomas Warram, our boot and shoe cobbler, who has been in a state of poor health for quite a while, entered one of the city hospitals on Wednesday of last week to undergo a course of treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Rodney visited their daughter, Mrs. James Davis, of South Rock Hall, on Saturday last. John looks remarkably well. He says the cause of his good physical condition is that he sits right by the coffee urn at meals and works hard between meals.

Miss Mamie Wickes has been making some improvements to her Grey's Inn building, where resides Mrs. Edward Wilkins, by a new roof, &c.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Flint, all of Washington, D. C., have been spending their vacation at the summer boarding resort of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Leary, on the bayside. The gentlemen are members of the U. S. Engineer Corps. All have largely enjoyed their stay in driving, sailing, bathing and fishing.

Mr. Leary's place has been a popular resort for Washingtonians this season. He is well equipped to fully accommodate his guests with all enjoyment on land and water. Others are yet to come.

Our harbor improvements are nearing completion. One dredging machine has departed and the other two machines are finishing the deepening of the channel from Huntingfield Point buoy to the inner harbor. The company has been doing the square thing for our oyster bars by dumping the mud far down the outer bar.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.—On Sept. 13 an unusual number of the Executive Committee of the W. C. T U. met at the M. E. Parsonage to complete the work of convention. A balance to pay over to treasurer proved the venture of Kennedyville Union a success in this as other respects A donation for placing prize for temperance essays in High School of Chestertown was gratefully received. Others also have been given and it is hoped to place them in all the High schools of the county. Literature was reported furnished colored Sunday schools. In accordance with resolution of convention relative to Curfew Law, the corresponding secretary was instructed with officials familiar with the work. Miss Rachel Hill was appointed Supt. of L. T. L. work. Other superintendents were continued. Any one unwilling to serve will please notify the County President.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Gressart entertained most royally on Saturday, it being Mr. Gressart's 50th birthday. Messers. Louis Dreka, John Dorsey, Henry Dorsey, were among the guests for dinner No one would ever think Mr. Gressert was near that old, he is so youthful and bright in his manners and they both are great favorites with every one here.

There is to be a swell wedding not many miles from here next week and the groom is one of our most moral and industrious young men of Kent county, and this unexceptionally fine gentleman will lead to the altar one of Cecil county's fair young maidens, and we think this will be a great occasion when these two are united in marriage. The bride should be congratulated and be proud that she is to take one of our brightest young Kent countians, he is just and kind to everyone and the sole of honor, perfectly moral, and we feel we can't speak too much of him. Guess who?

Word has just been received here today that Mrs. Agness McCall, of Chester, Pa., formerly Mrs. Tarbutton, of Sassafras, is lying critically ill with a tumor on her brain.

Home Made

Have your cake, muffins, and tea biscuit home-made. They will be fresher, cleaner, more tasty and wholesome.

Royal Baking Powder helps the house wife to produce at home, quickly and economically, fine and tasty cake, the raised hot-biscuit, puddings, the frosted layer-cake, crisp cookies, crullers, crusts and muffins, with which the ready-made food found at the bake-shop or grocery does not compare.

Royal is the greatest of bake-day helps.
