VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1905. NO. 19

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

Killed By a Colt.—Thomas Wrench, the sixteen-year old son of Thomas Wrench, of near the Iron Bridge, Delaware, was killed Sunday. He was taking a colt out to water and had tied the halter around his body. The colt ran away and dragged the boy over the road until his lifeless and badly mangled body was found later by some of the neighbors.

Drowned.—Richard T., son of Richard and Rebecca Crouch was drowned Sept. 26th, above Philadelphia, age 42 years and 3 months. He leaves a widow and 5 children and 2 sisters, Mrs. George Venable, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Harry W. Moore, of Kent county.

Accidents.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Harris met with a severe accident while playing at school. One of her playmates with a switch accidentally hit her in the eye inflicting a wound which may result in the loss of the eye She was taken to a Baltimore specialist and is getting along very well. The doctor hopes to save a portion of the eye if no complications set in.

Who Can Beat It?—Capt. Henry O. Brown, of Quaker Neck, sent to the NEWS office an oyster that for size and weight is hard to beat. It measuras 10½ inches long and 5½ inches wide and weighs 2½ pounds. The Captain caught it in Comegys Bite, Chester river. An oyster expert, of Chestertown says, judging by the rings or layers of shells on it, the oyster is 13 years old. Others place its age at 5 years. But to settle it we'll have to send it to Mr. Haman or Prof. Brooke.

Property Sales.—Mr. Simon Dishong, of Western Pennsylvania, has purchased through J. Waters Russell, Mr. A. P. Solloway's farm of 67 acres at Hanesville. Mr. Russell says he is daily getting inquiries for Kent and Queen Anne's farms.

Mr. Charles S. Smith has sold to Messrs. Wm. L. Fowler and Wm. C. Sutton the Hudgins property now undergoing extensive improvements. The Adams Express Co., will occupy one side and W. L. Fowler with his paint and wall paper the other side.

A Big Affair.—A number of Kent Countians have become financially interested in The Climax Automatic Sales Company, of Washington D. C., which promises to be a big paying concern. This company has been organized with plenty of Capital for the purpose of putting on the market and operating a newly patented automatic slot machine for vending peanuts, candy, chewing gum and six or eight other articles. The patentee is a resident of Washington, D. C. Mr. J. Henry Hurtt has been elected secretary and treasurer and Mr. Charles S. Smith, vice-president and purchasing agent. John D. Urie, Esq., L. B. Russell and other well-known gentlemen are interested. The machine is simple in design and easily operated and we predict a great future for it. Mr. Smith will enter upon his duties at once and may remove to Washington at an early day.

Team Found.—Mr. Wm. H. Minner hitched his team in front of Bartley's big store Monday night and when he was ready to return home the team was missing, the halter having been cut or broken. The team was found at Morgnec by a colored man named Charles Duckery. He says the horse was trotting along the road with a piece of halter dangling from the bridle. Duckery left the team with Mr. McKee and said if there was any reward he wanted it. Officers are investigating and hope to find the guilty parties.

Treed by a Bulldog.—Aaron Long, residing near Klines Corner, is the owner of a chestnut tree laden with what are known as Italian chestnuts, about three times as large as the ordinary chestnut. He and his wife left on a visit, and when they reeturned Tuesday evening they found their bulldog at the foot of the tree and two very meek and very tired young men roosting in the branches, where they had been since 9 o'clock in the morning, with the dog ready to receive them in case they descended. The owner of the tree, who knew them both, came to the conclusion that they had been punished enough, and let them go.

Attacked.—Deputy Sheriff Startt was attacked by Elmer Hynson, a colored prisoner, one day this week and bears the marks of same. Hynson refused to leave his cell when ordered to do so and when the officer approached him he jumped into him and would have done serious injury but Officer Startt was too much for him.

Big Pear Yield.—Rev. A. H. Covey, of Pomona, harvested his Kiefer pear crop this week and it was a record one. Mr. Covey has two orchards. From his 13 year old orchard of two acres he picked 2680 baskets and from his 7 year orchard of five acres he picked 2120 baskets. He received $1.00 per barrel for them. The pears were fine. One basket brought to the NEWS office yesterday contained 31 pears and completely filled the basket.

A Recherche Affair.—The home of ex-Judge T. D. France and wife was the scene of a most delightful social event last Saturday evening, it being the first reception of the season. Miss Adele France, president of the Shakespeare Club, gave the reception to friends of the club from 4 to 5. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. T. D. France, Mrs. Paul Turner, Misses Irma Eliason and Julia Burchinal. In the evening Miss France entertained the members of the club at a most delectable dinner. Vocal and instrumental music by Baltimore talent was an enjoyable feature of the entertainment. It was indeed a recherche affair in every particular.

UNDERSIZED FISH.

Confiscated by State Game Warden and Given to Hospitals—Fishermen Warden.

The action of Col. John W. Avirett, the State Game Warden, in confiscating undersized fish is commendable. It is strange that fishermen cannot realize the great wrong they are doing to themselves in shipping small fish. The NEWS man watched a shipper fill a box with small rock which was sent to the city and as other fishermen looked on we could hear the remark, "Why I could ship hundreds like them!"

Col. Avirett says the fish are inspected and all the undersized fish are taken possession of by the inspector, who is a deputy warden, and given to the hospitals and charitable institutions of the city.

"The loss falls on the shippers down the bay or in other States, as the receiver in the market will not pay for fish he is not allowed by Maryland law to sell. The cost of this work is now borne by me, but I trust soon to arrange for a relief from this.

"The continued loss to the shipper will cause him to refuse the fish from the catcher, who will in turn learn to cull his fish alive and put them back in the water, instead of landing them, paying freight to Baltimore and then having them taken up by the inspector and given to hospitals.

"In addition to this I write to every shipper telling him of the fate of the undersized fish and ask his co-operation to prevent their being caught. Many of the shippers reply, promising to take an interest in the work. Those who do not reply will, of course, finally be dealt with as the law provides.

"The work began on September 8, 1905, and up to October 6 the enormous total is taken from the daily reports:

"Yellow perch, 1,298; white perch, 415; tailors, 3 379; rock, 4,179: miscellaneous, 774, a grand total of 10,045, which, at the prescribed fine of $5 each, amounts to $50,225."

Col. Avirett incloses tables showing the names of firms from which the fish were taken, together with dates and the numbers of fish of each class that were confiscated. There are 17 firms in all.
