THE POLITICAL SITUATION.
The discussions which have occured in the week since the State Convention met, would seem to indicate that Maryland Democracy, as an organization, enthusiastically favors adopting the suffrage-restricting constitutional amendment.
The city forces are already busily at work for its passage. Democrats in the counties may rest content that nothing will be left undone in Baltimore to secure as large a vote as possible for the fulfillment of the pledges made by the convention of two years ago and advocated by the candidates nominated and elected on that issue, The issue has undergone no change by anything of occurence since; least of all has it changed by reason of the present attitude of its then picked champions—champions still, perhaps, though inexplicably in the cause and camp of the enemy.
Opposition to the amendment is confined almost entirely here in the city, and its opponents with these unfortunate and doubtless a few others not more notable, exceptions are men who nearly always fight the Democratic party and its candidates. These gentlemen have easy access to the columns of the newspapers and whatever they have to say on such subjects is loudly proclaimed as an indication of public sentiment. As a matter of fact they express their personal opinions and no more opinions by the way, of such genuine interest to them that on election day they have been known to forget to vote. Their principal aim in life seems to be to see themselves in print; they like denunciation since it couples well with the high sounding phrase and the sophistical argument; the Democratic party is a large affair and safely public in character; why not burst out suddenly at almost any time against the Democratic party and anything it advocates. This however, is scarcely fair: they really are "agin the government" no matter which party may be in the ascendency; the Republican party in power is big and safe and public.
Hence it is that for thirty years this same old crowd have "roasted" each succeeding administration as they have been presented with the opportunity. Although the late Governor Lowndes was elected by their assistance to do the very things he did, they scrupled not to attack him and his administration, the moment a newspaper led the way, even though he did everything in his power to gratify them, he failed. They are at present silent as to Governor Warfield, yet before the close of his term in office they may with their views, confidently be expected. He is doing his utmost in their behalf, they did their utmost to defeat him during his campaign; yet if this slight tub have the smallest effect upon these loud whales, it will be the first cause in the period already mentioned to produce such result.
The convention last week was remarkable in several ways, probably in not more than one other since the Civil War has there been the general and large attendance. Not oftener has there been the spontaneous enthusiasm; and not in that time have there been in the audience more Marylanders of destinction. It was "packed," in that the house itself was crowded; it was a "cut and dried affair," in that for forty years a per cent of the men present, had waited to do what they helped to do that day.
Four of the six-living ex-governors were in attendance on the convention and in harmony with the proceedings; ex-Governors Jackson and Carrol favoring the amendment, spoke with force and to the point, calling on all white men in this State to vote for it at the election; ex-Governor Frank Brown spent most of the day on the floor of the theatre or in its lobby, where he met many old friends and with all or nearly all of whom, and prominent Marylanders were there; it was not regular organization gathering; the audience was plentifully mixed with independents and voters of no party.
Such men as ex-Governors Brown and Jackson, Mr. Blair Lee, General John Gill, Congressman John Gill, Jr., the Messrs. Peter, of Montgomery, Mr. J. Augustine Mason and at least one hundred others, hardly wear collars about their necks as political handles, nor do they obey the mandates of bosses. They attend the State Convention of their own free will to do what they consider best for the interests of the State.
PAUL WINCHESTER.

ST. PAUL WAS AGAINST IT.
Dr. Stoddard, pastor of a fashionable Episcopal Church in New York objected Sunday to women appearing bareheaded in church.
He based his objections to "Hatless Women" on the seventh chapter of the First Corinthians, in which St. Paul distinctly forbids women to remain bare-headed in church. The reason for St. Paul's objection, Dr. Stoddard says, is that the chief glory of women is her hair, and naturally she devotes much time to its care. It is practically one of her chief vanities, and therefore she should not display it in church.

WE, FOR THE 60TH SEASON PRESENT
...Our Fertilizers...
TRADE MARK
TO THE FARMERS AND PLANTERS OF KENT and adjoining counties. With pride we say that we are better equipped than ever, this year to give you your money's worth.
Many cannot understand why, after so many years doing business here, that Wilbur W. Hubbard's Fertilizers are more extensively used year after year. But the mystery is solved by a visit to our factory, which is always open for inspection to the public, and those who go down to our works marvel at the pains taken in manufacturing the goods.
First the bone is shoveled in the crusher with a scoop shovel and prepared for the Denmead mill, then it is dissolved, and after getting in good mechanical condition, if making a dissolved bone goods, so many pounds of bone is put in the mixer. The nitrate of soda, fish and high grade potash are added, the whole thoroughly mixed, passed through a phosphate mill and screened and thrown up in bulk, to remain until it is shipped, and then it is bagged in new treated acid proof bags and sent out in splendid shape. We are often asked, "why don't you run the goods when first mixed, right in the bags, and not go to the expense of treating the bags, as do other manufacturers?"
We are often asked if this is not a needless extreme, but we reply—it pays to make the best.
Whilst there is some loss by evaporation by bulking, an additional expense in rebagging and an expense to treat the bags, when we remember that a farmer appreciates a good goods, and in first class mechanical condition it pays to go to extremes as it is impossible to make a first class fertilizer otherwise, and by treating our customers right in their purchases, making the time of payment of the bill to suit them, we have gotten a personal hold upon our trade.
The Fertilizers for 1905 are the best we have ever put out. Each year has its experiences. We learned something in 1904—the users of Wilbur Hubbard's Fertilizers will get the benefit of it. A poor article may sell rapidly for a time if it is pushed energetically, but a record of steady gain over a period of 60 seasons among the same people, can only be achieved by a good, reliable article. You can only judge the future by the past. If you have used Wilbur Hubbard's Fertilizers in the past you may be assured they will give you satisfaction in the future. If you have not tried them, we ask you if a record of Thirty (30) successful years with the farmers of the Middle States is not a sufficient guarantee to justify you in using the goods.
Soliciting your patronage, and thanking all our friends for their substantial support in the past, we remain
Very truly yours,
Wilbur W. Hubbard,
Manufacturer of Standard Bone Fertilizers,
July 15, 1905. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

GRATITUDE
is the sweetest flower that blooms in the human heart, that may be true and it may not, however, I m very gratified to the farmers and public generally for their liberal patronage during the spring trade. I am now ready to serve your wants for the fall work.
JUST RECEIVED A CAR LOAD OF THE Superior Grain Drills
And DISC HARROWS, on wheels. Also the EVANS DISC HARROWS, none better. SPRING TOOTH and SPIKE TOOTH HARROWS. I can furnish you with a Hoe Drill, single or double disc, in any size. I am also agent for the Light Draft Ontario Drill. Come and see it.
Corn Harvesters
If you need a Corn Harvester, don't forget that the McCormick is the best in more ways than one, it is the strongest, lightest will pick up down corn better and carry more corn than any other Harvester made. It is not necessary to bind the corn to carry it 40 hills before dumping. A large line of repairs on hand, though few needed.
Fertilizers
Piedmont Mt. Airy Guano Co.'s goods are sold by me at very close prices. Some of the best farmers are using these goods with very satisfactory results. I ask a trial.
