THE CHANGE OF LIFE

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period, and may be relied upon to overcome all distressing symptoms and carry them safely through to a healthy and happy old age.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with falling of the womb for years and was passing through the change of life. My womb was badly swollen. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

Local Notes.

EVERYBODY—certainly every Democrat—who possibly can should come to Chestertown on Wednesday next. If you have an honest doubt about the one great issue of the campaign—the amendment—come and hear it explained dispassionately by the men who know its every feature. If you are opposed to it it will do you no harm to hear the arguments of its friends. So come, everybody!

Back From Klondike.—Elwood Riley, of Cecil, who on the outbreak of the Klondike fever several years ago concluded to take his chances in the new found El Dorado, surprised his sister, Mrs. Ella Mace, one night last week by applying at her door for lodging for the night. "I'm sorry sir," she replied, "but the house is filled." The next morning the stranger called again and still being unrecognizable revealed his identity to his astonished sister, who had given him up as dead.

New Baggage Checks in Use.—The Pennsylvania Railroad on Monday of last week put into use a new form of baggage check. It is designed to protect both the company and the traveler, and chiefly differs from the old form in that it describes the baggage and the condition in which it is received. Thus there are spaces marked "trunk, valise, bad order and fragile" Upon checking a piece of baggage the agent punches out a description. If the trunk or valise is received at the starting point in good order that fact appears from the check given to the passenger The new form of check will largely do away with the release which passengers may be required to sign in case they present baggage in bad order.

THE Metropolitan Magazine (New York) for October has an interesting illustrated paper by Charles M. Harvey on "President Roosevelt's Prestige in the West," with many pictures. There is a prize story by Elsa Baker, who writes "Where Ignorance is Bliss" Jane W. Guthrie considers "The Romance of the Trees," and F. J. G. Alsop furnishes a short paper descriptive of "The Taj Mahal." There is the beginning of "The Doomsman," a novel, by Van Tassel Sutphen, and other features of the usual kind.

The Big Yields of Grain.—The federal crop report issued this week indicates a yield of spring wheat of 14.7 bushels to the acre, which, applied to the area under cultivation, would make a total crop of 285 911,000 bushels, which added to the winter wheat production of approximately 425,000,000 bushels, makes an aggregate wheat crop of about 984,000,000 bushels. This affords abundance for domestic consumption and a surplus for export. The corn crop promises to reach a total of 2,707,000,000 bushels, which breaks all previous records, and the oats crop, from the latest official data, is computed at 938,000,000 bushels, which has been only once exceeded. The three chief cereal crops combined show an increase over those of last year of 415,000,000 bushels, which is a very substantial contribution to the wealth and prosperity of the country.

Special Train For Negro.—A special train for a solitary negro passenger was run Friday night over the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Lewes to Rehoboth.

The negro had purchased a through ticket to Rehoboth in Philadelphia, but as the summer season is over there was no regular evening train. He insisted on being carried to his destination, and the special was run

The winter residents gathered at the station as the special drew in, thinking that a visitor of distinction was coming. They were amazed when the single passenger alighted.

W. Maryland, 32; Washington 0.

WESTMINSTER, MD., Oct. 14—In the first game of the season played on home grounds the Western Maryland College football team defeated Washington College by 32 to 0 Western Maryland made the first four touchdowns, with only six second downs, and every time the Washingtonians had the ball they were held for down. They did not succeed in the whole game in getting nearer their opponents' goal than 25-yard line, and this only once.

Captain Higgins made a 23 and a 20 yard gain, and Marcus made a 20-yard run just at the close of the second half. The two goals were kicked by Tredway. The line up:

W. M.	Position.	Wash.

Carver	Right guard	Maddox, Johnson
Stayton	Right tackle	Moore, Brittingham
Stine	Right end	Rasin
Higgins (captain)	Quarterback	Wilson
Sellman	Left halfback	Hitch
Adams, Marcus	Right halfback	McGinnes
Adkins	Fullback	Gill

Referee—Philip Ramer. Umpire—W. Q. Mouck, of Western Maryland. Time of halves, 25 minutes.

Chased by Mad Man.—J. Harvey Estes, of Washington, D. C., nephew of Mr Chas. Estes, of Chestertown, was chased five blocks by a mad man with open knife a few days ago, and was overtaken and grabbed. Harvey, thinking his life was at an end, made a desperate struggle, but could not break away. When the lunatic saw he was trying to get away, he said laughing, "tag, you are it, now chase me!" Harvey escaped many dangerous chances of being run over by passing street cars.
