A delightful surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore at the bride's home in Galena on Thursday evening, Nov. 2d. Among those present were Misses Evelyn Ford, Hattie Gray, Katherine Tarbutton, Etta Whitaker, Bessie and Louise Hayes and Prof. Simeon Jester, of Galena; Adele Ford, Charles Ford, of Still Pond; Harvey Moore, of Betterton; Robt. Shallcross, of Chestertown; Irving Spry, of Sassafras, and Miss Anna W. Melvin, of Millington. The evening was spent in music and various other amusements. At eleven the guests were invited into the spacious dining room, where ices, cakes and fruits were served. At twelve they departed, wishing the bridal couple many happy years of prosperous life.

Cashier William F. Russell has been entertaining Dr. John King, pastor of Grace M.E.Church, Mr. John S. Mullin, of the well-known firm of Mullin & Sons, and Mr. John A. Connor, of Wilmington. These gentlemen enjoyed fine sport gunning. The first day there were seven gunners and they only killed one rabbit. Mr. Connor says they got the rabbit in a corner where Dr. King wounded him and then John Mullin murdered him with a club!

FACTORY STARTED!

The overall factory began operations on Wednesday morning with fourteen young lady employes. There will be more to enter next week. Prof. Semis, of Easton, is instructing the operators. Mr. Harry J. McWhorter is cutter. Mr. T. D. Larrimore is manager.

The new enterprise starts under favorable auspices and has the best wishes of Chestertown citizens.

RESULT IN THE STATE.

Atkinson was elected Comptroller by 6,800 majority.

The House will be Democratic by 7. The Senate will stand 18 Democrats and 8 Republicans.

Cecil elects France over Crothers for State Senate by 415. Democrats win Davis for Legislature, the treasurer and assistant and one commissioner.

The Independent ticket won over John E. George in Queen Anne's by about 250. Col. John Evans and Mr. John Smith are on top.

Talbot elected full Democratic ticket.

Applegarth was defeated in Dorchester but balance of the Democratic ticket was elected.

Wicomico Democratic by 500.

Worcester gave its usual Democratic majority.

Dr. Goldsborough was elected Senator from Caroline but balance of Democratic ticket was defeated.

Somerset went Democratic by 500.

Senator Robinson was defeated by 700 majority in Hartford but balance of Democratic ticket was elected.

The Democrats defeated Senator Dick in Alleganey and elected Shannon.

Montgomery, Prince George's, Baltimore and Howard counties went Democratic.

In Carroll and Anne Arundel the tickets were split.

Baltimore city went Democratic on State ticket by 1180, but lost Sheriff.

On Monday evening the 6th inst., the Ladies Aid Society of Wesleyan Chapel met in session at the parsonage. Though the number was limited there were some among them who have not attended for several years. This was quite encouraging. Plans were drawn for a supper to be served at the parsonage on the evening of Dec. 8. All members of the society, all members of the church and friends of the church are cordially invited. Supper 25cts.

The magic touch of the artist has so transformed the interior of Wesleyan Chapel that one of former years would realize himself in quite a strange place as he gazed upon the charming beauties within. The work which has been in progress since about the 10th of September is about complete but now we must wait the shipment of our windows from a Chicago firm. We have planned for a reopening service to be conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheridan and other visiting ministers on Nov. 26th. We sincerely trust the presence of the Lord and the public of the county will fill this historic old church to its utmost capacity on that occasion.

ELECTION NOTES.

A voter in Kennedyville voted for and against both Amendments and made no other mark. Another one made his cross marks next to the candidates.

In Fairlee the officers were frightened when a negro fell sprawling upon the floor while in a booth. The blood flowed freely from the negro's mouth and no one knew the cause. His friends carried him home and he soon revived.

In Edesville there were 29 votes rejected, twenty of which were Democrats. One voter marked every man on the ticket.

The following gratifying news comes from Wicomico and is worthy of initiation in every county: Hon. James E. Ellegood, of Salisbury, confirms the report of the agreement among party leaders that money would not be used to influence voters in the election. This is a reform which Mr. Ellegood has long advocated—indeed, it was upon this question mainly that he conducted his campaign for Congress when he ran against Hon. William H. Jackson. Of the present agreement he says:

"The leaders of the Democrats and Republicans got together Monday and agreed that there shall be an absolutely nonboodle election in Wicomico county. Wicomico becomes the pioneer in clean elections on the Eastern Shore. 'Votes will not be worth the price of a crown,' and your advice to the Indian family to move to the 'Sho' ' will have to be withdrawn unless they find better reasons than the price of a vote."

Mr. Ellegood was employed as counsel to prosecute offenders, and $1,000 was placed at his command to be used in paying rewards for the detection of those who violate the law against bribery. Detectives were employed to ferret out all cases of violation.

The first two full Democratic ballots counted in Fairlee had Wm. E. Keyser's name scratched! Mr. Keyser was watching the count, but when he saw this he threw up his hand and went home in despair! But what a pleasant surprise Wednesday morning!

The colored voters insisted in calling the Amendment by the name of "Commandment," and when asked, which one, replied "the one against our voting."

Messrs James H. Watts and Clark Taylor are probably the oldest voters in the county, each one being over 80 years of age. They are two Democrats of sterling worth.

"Billy" Wagner lead his ticket and ran 14 votes ahead at home. Hurrah for Mr. Wagner!

Who'd a thought that Fairlee would ever go Democratic? John E. Morris carried this district by 10!

Honest "Bill" Keyser had an unfortunate place on the ticket which accounts for his majority being only 268. Scores of voters overlooked his name, as it was just between both amendments and he lost at least ten votes in each precinct of the county.

Pomona tried hard to get in the "white belt" and came very near it.

Every District in the county except Pomona gave a Democratic majority!

Messrs. S. P. Townshend and D. B. McMenamin were the active leaders of the "double 1 party" and certainly had the fourth district colored voters well drilled.

J. D. Urie, Esq., predicted that the Democrats would win in Kent. Mr. Urie is an experienced fighter and knows Kent county well.

Chairman Wilbur Eliason did good work for his party but says he was badly "handicapped!" The sinews of war were somewhat lacking.

The election officials in Galena remained in the polling room until 7.30 A. M. Wednesday! The Chestertown and Edesville officials got out 1.30 A. M. A voting machine will relieve the public of such arduous labor.

Hon. Joseph A. Wickes calls the Kent County ballot a "table cover!" He struck a responsive cord when he remarked that he was in favor of the old way of fixing a ticket at home and depositing it at the window!

The total registered vote in Kent is 4515. The total vote counted on Tuesday was about 3320, or over 1300 short of total vote. The stay-at-homes are estimated at 600, most of whom were white, thus leaving 700 votes rejected, spoiled or mis-marked.

It is quite evident that the Democrats lost heavily by the rejected ballots. In Chestertown both sides lost about even but in Edesville the white lost twenty out of twenty-nine.

A Queen Anne's tenant in renting a farm told his landlord that he usually voted the way the latter wanted him! He then asked his landlord if he was an Independent to which he replied, no, man, don't you know that I am married!

The Republicans get the glory in Queen Anne's while Col. Evans, John Smith and others get the offices.

The Independents in Queen Anne's claim that they have paid their debt to the Republicans by voting against the amendment and are pure Democrats.

As some officers failed to sign the returns, the official vote will not be published until next week.

WEDDING EVENTS.

COLEMAN—HENDLE.

Miss Lula Mae Hendle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hendle, was married at noon Oct. 28th, to Mr. J. RASIN—WATSON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the M. E. Church, Still Pond, on Wednesday at half after six o'clock, when Miss Florence Prince Rasin became the bride of Mr. Herbet Watson. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreen draperies and wreathes, with potted plants and cut flowers upon the organ and in the chancel. Promptly at the appointed hour the wedding march was skillfully played by Miss Dryden. The bridal party entered the church and preceeded to the altar where under a beautiful arch of white chrysanthemums and evergreen from which was suspended a large wedding bell, the happy couple were pronounced man and wife by the Rev. T. Holt. The bride was becomingly dressed in white silk with a tull veil and carried an immense bouquet of white roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Fritz, of Wilmington, sister of the groom, was attired in white chiffon over white silk and carried roses. Misses Lena Rasin sister of the bride and Mary Harper were bride's maids and carried Chrysanthemums. Mr. Claude Dilwolle, of of Wilmington, was best man and wore black with white gloves and white rose boutonier. The ushers were Messrs. Jack Jones, Dr. Louis Atwell, Edward Hepburn, Mr. Anderson. They wore black suits and white gloves and boutoniers of white roses. The couple were recipients of many handsome and useful presents. The bride and groom left on the morning boat for Washington.

HILL—BOYER.

Still Pond Church never looked prettier than it did Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Hester A. Hill, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hill, was married to Mr. Murray Humphreys Boyer, of Queen Anne's. The church was trimmed with arches, from which hung wedding bells and opening gates. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C Smoot, assisted by Rev, J. W. Prettyman. The bride was attired in a handsome poi de soie silk and carried a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were Misses Nellie Barwick, Nannie Matthews. Emma Harrington, who wore French lawn over green silk and carried pretty chrysanthemums.

Miss Helen Baxter was flower girl and wore chifon over blue silk. The Misses Hill, sisters of the bride, were maids of honor and wore white chifon. The ushers were Messrs. Walter Hill, Harry Jefferson, Mr. Boyer, brother of groom and two Mr. Jones, of Philadelphia. An elegant reception was held at the brides parents' home, after which they left for their future home at Templeville. The presents were indeed beautiful and numerous.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS GALORE.

The Chrysanthemum Tea held Wednesday evening in Mrs. S. F. Smith's store-room was a grand success. The cramped quarters prevented a larger display of the fall beauties, but there were some magnificent blooms displayed. Mrs. H. B. Simmons, an artist in the raising of the Jap flower, had charge of this department. The enjoyable tea was presided over by Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. J. R. Clements and Mrs. Milton Peregoy assisted by Misses Cox, Sallie and Ella Wilkins, Anna B. Smith, Reba Strong, Rose Vickers, Laura Thomas and others. The Country Store was well managed by Mrs. T. S. Bordley, Misses Fannie and Bessie Stuart, Miss Wright and others. The affair was a success socially and financially.

Chestertown ladies can rival the city florists in the cultivation of this beautiful flower. Miss Etta Edwards has thirty different varieties; Mrs. J. F. Thompson has a hot-house full; Mrs. W. H. Lambert has a lot of exquisite blooms as has Mrs. Harvey Boggs, Mrs. Wm. J. Hudson, Mrs. J. R. Clements, Mrs. James Brice, Mrs. Wm. A. Pippin, Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Mrs. Frank M. Miller, Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Simpers, Mrs. J. T. Twilley, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and others. Mr. Edw. Lambert sent a fine bunch from his garden in Easton which evidences the fact that he knows how to raise the beauties.

THE Biograph Motion Picture Show which is exhibiting at Stam's Hall this week is about the best that has ever showed in Chestertown. The singing of Master Charlie Fisher, of Frederick, was especially good and well received by the audience. They show again tonight.
