FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)
"I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)
"It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

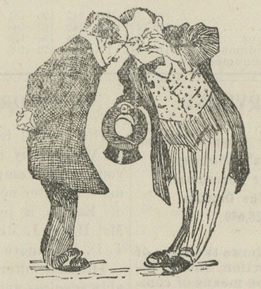

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my monthlies were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.

"But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my monthlies are regular, and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

A NOBLE RECORD.

The following dispatch came from Terre Haute, Ind., a few days ago:

Mrs. Clara Krauss became the mother of her twentieth child to day. Mrs. Krauss is 41 years old and has been married 23 years. There are no twins in her family.

What a noble record! If all her children arise at the same moment and call her blessed, it will be like the shout of an army or the tumultuous applause at an enthusiastic political meeting. If her sons are like young plants, her family reunions will look like a growing forest. The achievement of Mrs. Krauss illustrates what may be done for the census by steady and well-sustained efforts. Some who are ambitious to excel in this excellent work indulge in twins, or even triplets. But Mrs. Krauss does not resort to any such spectacular methods, and she leads in the race. It is the old story of the hare and the terrapin. The hare made some leaps and bounds and then rested, while the diligent tortoise kept right along.

Think of this happy home! Think of the table with the children, like the olive branches, ranged around it, or perhaps like the arrows in the hands of a giant. If they are all boys, the family should remove to the Eastern Shore of our own favored State, where a vote is worth a king's ransom. Think of the breakfast table, with 10 on a side, and the clatter of knives and forks. Consider the adolescent appetites and the price of beefsteaks. All hail to this fruitful vine! "She done her duty as she seen it." All honor to Mr. Quiverfull Krauss, her husband! It is certain that he shall not be ashamed when he speaks with his enemies in the gate.—Sun.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

On Saturday, October 18th, at "The Cottage," the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Keene, their daughter, Barbara, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Harold Butterfield, of East Orange, N. J. On that occasion the parlor, hall and dining room presented a scene of tropical beauty. Looking upon the foliage of the palm and rubber trees, one could imagine one's self on the banks of the Amazon instead of in the cool, crisp air of our own Monumental City. The bride, dressed in white crepe de chine and carrying a bouquet of lillies of the valley, entered leaning upon the arm of her father. The bridesmaid, Miss Brydon, with her bouquet of Catherine Mermet roses, preceded the bride. The groom and his best man, Mr. Marcel Keene, brother of the bride, joined them where the clergyman stood in a bower of palms. The Episcopal marriage service, always beautiful, seemed to have an added charm as read by Rev. Howard Walkner, of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church. As the couple stood before the white-robed priest to receive the blessing the low, sweet tones of the piano and violin were heard, as "O, Promise Me" was beautifully rendered by two young ladies of the Peabody Conservatory of Music.

As I looked upon the bride and groom I thought of another youthful couple who lived long years ago. History tells us that upon receiving the news of the old king's death Marie Antoinette and Louis fell upon their knees, and she sai, "Lord, have mercy upon us; we are so young to reign." So I said mentally, "Lord, have mercy upon Barbara and Harold; they are so young to start out on life's journey together."

After the ceremony a collation was served, and then came the parting. The bridal party, amid many kind wishes and a shower of rice, took their departure for an extended trip North. The lovely flowers worn by the bride were taken to London Park and placed upon the grave of a dear friend, while those of the bridesmaid were taken to church and placed upon the altar with a special prayer for the bride's happiness.

The guests, about sixty in number, were received by a near friend of the family, Mr. Newton Haen. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Zell, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Zell, Mrs. Rosalie Zell, New York; Mrs. M. Marsh, Mr. W. Butterfield, East Orange, N. J.; Miss Juliet Merritt, Kentucky; Mrs. De Witt Mott, New York; Misses Gillman, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Goldsborough, Prof. and Mrs. Irving Strayer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brydon, Mrs. Bolenius, Miss Haen, Miss Comegys.

SUNDAY INDISPOSITION,

Morbus Sabbaticus, or Sunday sickenss, is a disease peculiar to church members. The attack comes on suddenly every Sunday, no symptoms are felt on Saturday night; the patient sleeps well and wakes feeling well; eats a hearty breakfast, but about church time the attack comes on and continues until services are over for the morning. Then the patient feels easy and eats a hearty dinner. In the afternoon he feels much better, and is able to take a walk, talks politics and reads the Sunday papers. He eats a hearty supper, but about church time he has another attack and stays at home. He retires early, sleeps well and wakes up on Monday morning refreshed and able to go to work, and does not have any symptoms of the disease until the following Sunday. The peculiar features are as follows:

1. It always attacks members of the church.
2. It never makes its appearance except on the Sabbath.
3. The symptons vary, but it never interfers with the sleep or appetite.
4. It never lasts more than 24 hours
5. It generally attacks the head of the family.
6. No physician is ever called.
7. It always proves fatal in the end to the soul.
8. No remedy is known for it except prayer.
9. Religion is the only antidote.
10. It is becoming fearfully prevalent and is sweeping thousands every year to destruction.
