A BUGEYE ran into Chester river bridge draw at 2 A. M., Thursday and damaged it considerable. Traffic was not delayed many hours.

A BOARDER in a local private boarding house left Chestertown Monday owing a week's board bill and taking with him a new pair shoes and an overcoat from Mr. Robert J. McWhorter.

A REPORTER of the NEWS interviewed Mr. Lewis, of the Wilson Mercantile, Co., who is to sell out the $15,000 stock of Clifton L. Jarrell, who stated that never in the history of this town have the people of Chestertown and surrounding towns ever witnessed or will again, a sale like this.

WORTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Perry Hague has been attending the big revival services at Crumpton M. E. Church the past week.

We are all sorry to learn that Mr. Leonard Turner, of near Kennedyville, has a very sick child. We hope the little one will soon be all right.

Mrs. Leck Bacon and pretty daughter, Miss Mary, were guests at the home of Mrs. Sallie Anderson, Sunday.

Mrs. A. S. Turner and Mrs. Guy Turner visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Turner, Kennedyville the past week.

GALENA NOTES.

The farmers are busy just now husking, some are done and the greater number if the weather holds good, will finish in a week, all report a good crop and the grain in good condition.

Several in the town are improving their property, the Odd Fellows are painting their Hall, Capt. Woodall is having the old Horsey Store painted, Mr. John M. Pennington has enlarged his dwelling and expects to have it painted in the near future, Mr. Harry Todd has built an addition to his dwelling, our bank is nearly completed; that with the Dempsey buildings has made our town a busy place for the different kinds of mechanics during the past season.

We had a small fire near here a few days ago, Mr. Andrew Taylor's fodder ricks were burned down we have not heard what was the supposed cause of the fire whether it was thought to be incendiary or not. Just the day before Mr. Andrew Vansant, near Lambsons, had all of his outbuildings burnt down, his crop of corn in the cribs, hay, fodder and farming implements all burned, by hard work they sayed the dwelling.

Our town was shocked on Monday morning last to hear of the death of their fellow citizen Mr. Samuel Todd.

SAMUEL TODD.

Samuel Todd died about 7 o'clock on the morning of the 13th inst. after being confined to the house and bed for about 2 months with bright's disease, heart trouble and other complications. He was buried in Galena cemetery on the afternoon of the 15th of November, Rev. Mr. Edson officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Smoot, undertaker W. T. Hicks Mr. Todd was in his 75th year when he died. The community has lost a good citizen; his widow a good and kind husband; his children a kind and indulgent parent, and the Protestant Episcopal Church, of which he was a communicant for a good many years, has lost a long and faithful member. He loved the church and was always in his place there unless prevented by sickness. The church and the community will sadly miss him for he was always ready to help any one in trouble. The family have the heart felt sympathy of the community. The bearers were Samuel F. Caldwell, L. C. Hayes, J. F. M. Woodall, Theo. Dempsey, John N. Vansant, B. F. Merchant. Mr. Todd was a life long Democrat and filled the position of county commissioner for four years in a most capable manner and was president of the board.

OBITUARY.

GEORGIANA HENRY was born in Kent county, Md., in the month of August, 1862, and departed this life Thursday, October 26, 1905, at 11.30 o'clock P. M., making her 43 years and 2 months of age.

She embraced religion at Janes when 18 years of age at Janes M. E. Church, Chestertown, Md. At the age of 16 she joined Asbury M. E. Church, Georgetown, of which church she was a faithful member until death. From her childhood days until she fell asleep in Jesus she continued to grow in grace and in the fear and knowledge of God. At the age of 18 she was united in marriage to George T. Henry. From this union twelve children were born. For 27 years, 2 months and 18 days Brother and Sister Henry walked side by side and shared the joys and sorrows of life. She was strictly moral in her habits and a regular attendant upon the means of grace. Her assurance was strong and joy great. Everywhere she went she bore witness to the power of God to give present salvation. Her work in the church was in such a faithful manner that the pastors, the widows and the sick of the church found in her a friend. All classes looked upon her as a bright light. As a member of the fraternal orders she was Grand District Deputy of the Auxiliary Court of Calanthe, which position she held for nearly 14 years. Devoted and faithful as wife and mother, she was dearly loved in her home; to know her there was to know her best and love her most. After 2 months and 16 days of illness, during which she gave testimony of the sustaining grace of God and manifested the triumphs of faith, on October 26, 1905, she fell asleep in Jesus. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, 6 boys, 5 girls, 1 brother, 4 sisters and a host of friends.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to take from us our beloved wife and mother, we, the bereaved family, wish to extend our thanks to our many white friends for their kindness towards us; namely: Mrs. James L. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Noland, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W. Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bramble and others. We also wish to extend our many thanks to Dr. F. W. Smith, and also to Mr. John N. Dodd for his noble manner of conducting the funeral, and to Rev. J. R. Brinkley and wife; and lastly to the choir of Asbury M. E. Church for singing her favorite hymn, "He Leadeth me."

Wife and mother, thou has left us.
And thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

THE Cambridge Standard says: "The house which is being constructed for Mr. Arthur Hurlock on Oakley street is being very much admired. The material that is being used is an imitation of stone, and will add much to the beauty of the street. We predict that others will copy after Mr. Hurlock's house." The material for this house was made by H. S. Barnett, Chestertown.

PREPARATIONS are being made by the Baltimore City Alumni Association of Washington College for a banquet to be held at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, on Friday, Dec. 8th at 8 P M. The banquet is not only intended for the City alumni, but the General Alumni Association are also deeply interested and the prospects are for a most successful and large gathering of the friends of the venerable Eastern Shore college.

COLLEGE NOTES.

This afternoon on the College Campus Maryland Agricultural College and Washington College will meet to battle for the foot ball championship of the Maryland Colleges. M. A. C. defeated St. Johns badly and it is up to Washington to turn the tables on M. A. C. Here's wishing for a Washington College victory.

Our second foot ball team defeated the Pollys last Saturday in fine style.

Washington College Reserves defeated Baltimore Polytechnic Institute at Chestertown Saturday by the score of 10 to 0.

Two halves were played of 20 and 15 minutes, respectively. The visitors kicked off at the start and were never able to regain the ball, but once thereafter gained 15 yards, lost it and the half closed without their being able to gain any more ground.

The second half found the visitors weak on defense, and though no points were scored the game was played entirely in Baltimore territory. Moore, of Washington College, was conspicuous in ground gaining, the visitors not being able to stop him at all. The line-up.

Simpers' Reward Paid.—Governor Warfield forwarded by Wednesday mail a check for $1,000 to Deputy Warden Riggin, of the Maryland Penitentiary, the amount of the reward offered by the State for the capture and conviction of the murderer of Albert Constable. The question of paying the reward has given Gov. Warfield considerable concern, several persons having claimed to be entitled to a part of it. After a careful examination he came to the conclusion that Deputy Warden Riggin is clearly entitled to the reward. It will be recalled that Deputy Warden Riggin obtained information from John Simpers which led to the recovery of Mr. Constable's watch, pawned by Simpers, thus definitely connecting him with the crime for which he was tried, convicted and hanged. The police authorities of Wilmington, Delaware, claimed part of the reward on the ground they had arrested Simpers on another charge and while in their custody they ascertained that he had pawn tickets on his person, and some time later it was discovered that one of these pawn tickets had been given Simpers when he pawned Mr. Constable's watch. Detectives Weaver and Dougherty, of the Baltimore detective force, who also worked on the case, made no claim for the reward.

OYSTERMEN, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS—

Now that the election is over it is time for the oystermen to get their brain pans busy and find a compromise for the Haman bill, which will certainly pass our next Legislature unless we oystermen can present a good substitute. The Haman bill, as I understand it, guarantees protection of the natural bars, nothing but new ground, barren bottoms and abandoned patches to be taken up as planting ground. That sounds nice, but after a few years would not every bar in the rivers be virtually abandoned? With thousands of acres to plant, would not a certain class of tongers deplete the natural beds and sell all to the planters or plant their own beds? Of course, this article could be elongated to a column, but the remarks made should be sufficient to set them to thinking and then to doing Messrs. Gibbs and Crane will do all they can to benefit the county and people, but unless we let them know our "thinks" they will be handicapped. As the fifth istrict contains most of the tongers, they should start some movement immediately. Now let us hear from them through the KENT NEWS—individually—till we can form some means of getting together in mass-meeting. H.
