Right Clothing at Right Prices

This season finds us better prepared to serve the trade correctly and places us in a position to claim the title of headquarters for

MEN'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S

CLOTHING

beyond doubt. This is evidenced by our increased trade, demonstrating that fair, square dealing, void of subway subterfuges pays in the finish, at any rate the public seem to realize this fact by trading here.

OUR CLOTHING FITS IS MADE CORRECTLY

Our Children's and Boys' fit the same as men's, and the cost very much less than city houses will ask you. Why so? We buy from same manufacturers at spot cash prices, and the small expense in handling is why. Think of this and see who is in the best shape to give you the most for your money

HATS, HATS, HATS,

We sell them.
We don't keep them.

We are glad to report that Dr. W. Frank Hines is improving rapidly, and expects to leave Baltimore shortly for Tennessee to visit his son and recuperate his health.

Friends of Mr. Samuel G. Lee gave him a pleasant birthday surprise at his home at Melitota last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Potts have returned from an extended trip to Alaska and other Pacific points. The NEWS hopes to publish an interesting letter from the "Professor" next week.

Mrs. L. J. Smith, who is at the City Hospital for treatment, is doing well but will be compelled to remain there several weeks.

Mr. Wm. Copper, the carpenter, who is at the City Hospital, has just recovered from a spell of pneumonia and has had the bones of his limb knitted together with wire. He will be at the hospital for a month or more.

Mr. Pryor Armstrong, of Washington, was a visitor to Kent this week. He was looking at Kent lands with the idea of purchasing a farm for a home.

Mr. W. Earle Withgot, a student at Washington College, has been appointed runner in the Easton National Bank, and left Chestertown this week to assume his duties.

Mr. W. Harrison Newnam who was formerly an honored citizen of the Eastern Shore, and now connected with the Chas. T. Matthews Company, of Baltimore, paid a visit to his father, Mr. W. H. Newnam the past week.

Miss Janie Cooper, of the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, visited her parents in Kent this week. Miss Cooper is a licensed pharmacist and is among the few female persons who have passed the State examination.

Mr. Wm. Hague, is one of Still Pond's most active young (old) men. Although in his 70th year he has husked 117 barrels of corn this year, besides tilling a big garden, stacking wheat and doing other farm work.

Mr. Sterling F. Evans, who is at Saranac Lake for his health, has gained in health and strength and hopes of permanent recovery. It will be gratifying to his friends to learn of this encouraging news.

Mr. Geo. E. Thawley, who is at Saranac Lake for his health, while not much improved in so short a time, is holding his own and expects to grow stronger as time passes.

Capt. John T. Covell for 29 years conductor on the Queen Anne's & Kent Railroad has been on sick leave for the past three weeks. This is more time than Capt. Covell has previously lost from sickness during his 29 years of service. He is in Wilmington at his son's, J. C. Covell and is improving.

Mr. Thos. Dyot, of Baltimore, has been visiting the home of Mr. M. A. Toulson.

Miss Eva Hurlock has been visiting her brother, Mr. A. C. Hurlock, in Cambridge.

R. Groome Parks, Esq., has moved his law office to rooms on the first floor of the Voshell House.

Messrs. Oswald Saunders and Jesse Graham, of this county, who are students at the Maryland Agricultural College, came over on the steamer "Rock Creek," to witness the M. A. C.—Washington College football game and rooted hard for the farmers, but to no avail, their pets were vanquished.

Dr. and Mrs. John Lowe, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Chas. R. Twilley, Chestertown.

Mr. Arthur Bacon is assisting jeweler Sides. Mr. Geo. Bacon and family, of Camden, N. J., will likely return to Kent to live.

Tenth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Smith celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary at their home on Park Row Thursday evening. The house was tastily decorated with ferns and palms, the dining room being specially attractive. Large bouquets of chrysanthemums lent their charms, while soft light from candles in silver candelabras shed a radiance over the scene. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Emory S. Wroth, who was her maid of honor, and two of her ushers, Postmaster M. Wilber Thomas and Fred. G. Usilton. The menu comprised chicken salad, biscuits, coffee, fruits, confectionery, salted almonds, harlequin cream, &c., served in a most delectable manner by Misses Cecilia Taylor, Hallie Toulson and Nannie Bordley. Mrs. A. L. Sparks, Mrs. J. H. Simpers and Mrs. Mollie Farringer presided in the dining room with marked ability.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, Rev. W. L. White and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wheatley, Mr. and Mrs. George Rouse, Judge J. H. Simpers and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley, Dr. H. J. Simpers and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pippin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Pippin and family, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Toulson, Mrs. Georgie Reed and Miss Cora Reed, Mrs. M. A. Toulson and daughters, Mrs. Mollie Farringer, Mrs. W. F. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hilary Sides, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks, Mrs. J. D. Kemp, Mrs. A. M. Culp, Mrs. Hodgkins, Mrs. William E. Moody, Misses Emma Knight and Mary Knight, Maud Kemp, Clara B. Usilton, Fannie Baker, Lou Jewell, Lottie Russell, Miss O'Connor and Miss Taylor; Messrs. Jesse Medders, Kemp and Carl Bordley, J. Waters Russell, Thos. Dyott, Emerson Sparks, Raymond Simpers, Prof. Epes, Dr. Frank Smith and others.

Miss M. O'Connor, of Baltimore, rendered some fine vocal music.

Death's Shining Mark.

MARY E. TAYLOR.

Miss Mamie E. Taylor, the beloved daughter of Charles H. and Annie L. Taylor, died at her home, 928 West Franklin street, Baltimore, on Saturday evening, aged 32. The deceased was taken sick with tuberculosis some time ago and was carried to the mountains with the hope of arresting the terrible disease. It proved futile, however, and she returned to her home after a few weeks stay and declined rapidly. All that mortal man could do was at the disposal of this beautiful girl and her loving friends saw her fade daily until the end came on Saturday. Her life ebbed away quietly and without a struggle and the patient sufferer entered into the Haven of Rest.

Mamie was a heroine of high rank, Her life was given as a sacrifice for those she loved. She was the light and life of the home and around her clustered dependent loved ones. She was a noble woman, an example of unselfish devotion to duty, a bright, loving, beautiful girl, and had about her a large circle of devoted friends. Her girlhood days were spent in Chestertown and she frequently visited her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lambert, where she was idolized.

The funeral took place from her home Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. P. Wilson, of Eutaw Street Methodist Episcopal Church, and Rev. Edward Hayes, of Franklin Street Church, officiated. The interment was in Mount Olivet cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Casper W. Erek, Joseph C. Custliff, Lawrence F. L. Wilson, August Lemmert, Fred. G. Usilton and Edw. G. Demuth. G. W. Little was the funeral director.

The floral offerings were magnificent, including a large cross, anchor, gates ajar, bouquets of chrysanthemums, &c.

OBITUARY.

GRACE BLACKBURN, daughter of V. R. and Mary Ellen Blacburn, died at Piney Neck on Tuesday, the 17th day of October, 1905, age 2 years, 6 months and 16 days.

Another little limb has gone
To dwell with him who gave;
Another little darling babe
Is sheltered in the grave.
God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent with loving smile,
And clasped our darling's hand.

Though cast down, we are not forsaken,
Though afflicted, not alone.
Thou hast given and thou hast taken,
Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done."
Thou hast left us and we miss thee,
Sadly miss thee, daughter dear,
In vain we listen for thy footsteps,
Still we are thinking thou art near.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep:
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes,
Asleep in Jesus, far from thee,
Thy kindred and their graves may be,
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

ROSE BLACKBURN, daughter of V. R. and Mary Ellen Blackburn, died in Piney Neck, Thursday, the 16th day of November, 1905, age 3 weeks and 4 days.

The little crib is empty now,
The little cloths laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arm doth lie.
Go, little pilgrim, to thy home,
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here, but soon will come
Where thou hast gone before.

Will you come to my grave
When my spirit has fled,
And beneath the green sod
I am laid with the dead,
When the heart that loved you
Is turning to clay,
And in Calvary's cold dows
I am passing away.

Three less at home!
The charmed circle broken, a bear face
Missed day by day from its usual place,
But cleansed, saved and perfected by grace,
Three more in heaven!
Three less on earth!
Its pain, its sorrow, and its toil to share.
Three less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear.
Three more the crown of the blessed to wear
At home in heaven.

CLARENCE BLACKBURN, son of V. R. and Mary Ellen Blackburn, died in Piney Neck, Friday, the 17th day of November, 1905, age 4 years and 3 months.

This lovely bud, so young, so fair,
Called hence by earthly doom,
Just come to show how sweet a flower,
In Paradise would bloom;
Ere sin could harm or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to heaven conveyed
And bade it blossom there.

A bud the gardener gave us,
A pure and lovely child;
He gave it to our keeping,
To cherish undefiled.
But just as it was opening,
To the glory of the day,
Down came the heavenly gardener,
And took our bud away.

We miss thee from our home, dear,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee—
We miss thee everywhere.
