CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

DEAL with your home merchant.

BUY now. Don't wait until next Friday or Saturday.

FAIRLEE'S foremost merchants, Warren & Kilbourn, are doing a live business and deserve it.

A COHEN, the proprietor of the Sandy Bottom department store, has made special provision for the Christmas season and is able to save the public money.

ROCK HALL merchants are ready for the holidays. M. Kramer, Marion T. Miller and others have a fine stock.

STILL POND'S big stores—F. H. Harper & Son, Medders & Co., Hague, Hackett & Turner, are full to overflowing with everything needed for the holidays from a needle to an elephant.

MILLINGTON is a very different place this Xmas from what it was last year. The new stores look fine and have a splendid assortment of goods. H. H. Beneman, C. M. Hurtt, Hall & Gillespie take the lead.

THE real worth of Christmas gifts is not counted in coin. Not the money it cost, but the spirit which inspires it and the loving thought and care which have been expended in its selection or its preparation are the real measures by which to appraise the value of a Christmas gift.

THE Chestertown stores never were better prepared to serve the public with Christmas supplies than today. There is no need for anyone to go away from home while such stores as R. F. Parks & Son, A. L. Sparks, H. F. Jefferson, Moody & Lusby, J. D. Lucas, T. S. Bordley, J. K. Aldridge & Co., J. H. Sides, A. Levine, Mrs. A. H. Stam, M. A. Toulson, W. A. Carroll, T. G. Wroth, John Bartlev, Smith and Graham, Owen B. Crow, C. L. Jarrell, George Z. Roland and others have such a tremendous stock. The window displays this year are artistic and specially attractive.

HEARST has landed thirteen election law violators in jail and about thirty other indictments have been found. Such men as Hearst evidently have a place in the upbuilding of a city.

SENATOR GORMAN has been chosen as the leader of the Democrats in the Senate, notwithstanding the talk to the contrary. The opposition proved to be on paper only.

CONGRESSMAN SMITH, of this district, was lucky in his assignments to the different committees in Congress. He was made a member of the Educational, Private Land Claims, Railways and Canals.

MERRIWETHER, the midshipman who was tried for killing a pal in a fight, was acquitted of manslaughter, but sentenced to one year within the Naval Academy walls. If this trial ends the diabolical practice, it is well; if not, then the authorities should be tried and severely punished.

THERE is a movement on foot, backed by the different produce associations, the canned goods exchange and the transportation companies, to have a law passed at our next General Assembly relative to establishing a uniformity of packages to be used by the fruit and produce shippers of this State. This is considered necessary, owing to the fact that there has been a growing disposition on the part of the fruit and produce shippers to use various sized packages when shipping their products to market, which has worked against the best interests of all concerned.

GENUINE MERIT gives Harry J. Hopkins, Esq., the position of chief clerk in the comptroller's office at Annapolis. The salary is $1800 per annum. Mr. Hopkins has been in the office for twenty years and is known by public men generally throughout the State and by all who have had business with the office as a high toned and honorable christian gentleman and an accountant without a superior in the State. Mr Milton Tull's promotion to a $1500 clerkship is also in line with the best public service.

The Rock Hall sewing factory is the subject of many rumors. It was rumored that Mendels Bros., were only paying one-quarter of the price per dozen to operate of what it costs them in Baltimore. But Messrs. Mendel authorize us to say that this is "absolutely without any foundation." Of course the operators should not expect to make too much money at first. They ought to take into consideration that they are learners and it will require a few months for them to get their hands in the system of handling the garments. They are making up the wrappers on a piece work and section work basis, same as they do in Baltimore; and that it is only natural that the longer an operator works on the one individual part the more proficient she will become. Two weeks ago they sent one of their most prominent demonstrators to Rock Hall, her name is Miss Effie Flohr, who convinced conclusively to the operators that they can earn from $1.00 to $2.00 per day at the prices they are paving. Of course Miss Flohr is an experienced worker and has been at the business for at least 5 years.

STILL POND NOTES.

Our merchants are displaying an unusually fine line of Christmas wares. The decorations are neat and pretty. And their line embraces gifts for any member of the family.

Our teachers Misses Moffet and Anderson deserve the highest praise for the supper which was held in the school house last Friday night. As we can truly say, it was fine.

Rev. T. S. Holt preached at the M. E. Church, Betterton, Friday night.

The Epworth League was led Sunday evening by Mrs. J. W. Harper. The subject being "The City of God."

Misses Maude Latham and Bertha Cooper, of Melitota, are visiting Miss Ruth Robinson.

Mrs. Willis Hackett and little daughter, Hope, have returned home from Washington.

Mrs. Sallie Norris who has been quite sick, we are glad to say is much better.

Rev. T. S. Holt visited in Federalsburg from Monday until Thursday.

Miss Mabel Norris has returned home from visiting friends in Chesapeake City.

Mrs. James Warren and Miss Lillie Thompson spent a few days in Baltimore.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Drs. Cain and Micou, Profs. Clark and Jones were in Baltimore on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Micou have been entertaining friends at their home during the last two weeks.

Misses Florence Bishop, Mabel Jones, Edna Downey and Mabel Jefferson visited Miss Jane Rochester at her home in Queen Anne's county last Saturday and Sunday.

The Adelphia Literary Society will hold its open meeting Saturday evening, January 6th, 1905.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society of Washington College held an open debate Friday evening, the question discussed being "Resolved, that arbitration can be made a substitute for war." Affirmative—Messrs. W. H. Davis and S. N. Pilchard. Negative—Messrs. C. Morris and V. R. Truitt. The pr gram was as follows: Calling to order, E. G. Breeding, chaplain; address of welcome, W. Houston Toulson; declamation, T. K. Bordley; declamation, C. T. Wheatley; impromptu, A. Hitch; impromptu, W. R. Huey; essay, C. V. Goslee.

Preserving Pork.—An expert pork packer of Chestertown says he has tried the following recipe for curing meat and it never fails: Take salt and molasses and mix until it becomes consistency of brown sugar; 1 peck salt to a quart of molasses; put one ounce saltpetre and one ounce white pepper; rub well over meat.

Another "packer" gives this receipt: For 80 pounds meat use 5 pints of fine salt, 4 pounds brown sugar or 1 quart best molasses, 3 ounces saltpeter. Rub the meat well all over and lay upon boards in the cellar for 24 hours. Then put a few clean round stones in the bottom of a barrel and lay some sticks across these so that the meat will not soak in the liquor that drains from it. Pack the meat in layers, between which the remaining 4 pints of salt should be divided. Let remain in barrels 15 or 16 days, drawing off the liquor every day, and pouring it back on the meat in small quantities at a time. Take out at end of 14 days, rub each piece well with dry salt and return to barrel. If the liquor does not cover it, add fresh brine in the proportion of 2 pounds of salt, ½ ounce saltpeter and 1 quart water, poured on cool after being boiled half an hour. Lay a round piece of board on top of the meat and keep down with weights. The pork should be laid rind upward so as to prevent oversalting. Examine from time to time to be sure meat is keeping well.

SMITH & GRAHAM have some bargains in stoves, sleds, blankets, guns, etc. See them before buying.
