Depend Upon Having Eggs During the Winter When Prices Are Highest

Egg production falls off at this season as the hen is deprived of the egg-making materials contained in her summer diet. She must also utilize the most of her food in keeping her body warm and has very little material to spare for the development of eggs.

SCIENCE MAKES IT POSSIBLE to overcome these adverse conditions and bring Winter egg production up to the Summer standard. All that is necessary is to add to the hens regular Winter ration the egg-making chemical elements contained in her Summer diet.

FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC AND EGG PRODUCER

is a Scientific Poultry Powder composed of the elements of which eggs are formed. These are so combined with other elements that tone up the digestive organs and purify the blood that that they are immediately assimilated and carried to the Egg Sac of the hen. The hen's egg sac contains the Embryo of all the eggs she will ever lay, and when these Embryos receive proper nourishment they develop and MUST BE PRODUCED. Make your hens lay their eggs NOW, by feeding Fairfield's Egg Producer regularly. It will increase your profits and keep disease from the poultry yard. The small dose makes it inexpensive and it is sold under a written guarantee by dealers named in small advertisement on page 1 of this paper, who also carry

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Miss Elizabeth Stork died at the home of Mr. Lloyd Skeggs, Worton, Tuesday, of pleuro-pneumonia, aged 75 years.

WILLIAM D. PENNINGTON.

Mr. William D. Pennington, one of Kent's best citizens, died at his home in Still Pond Neck last Sunday afternoon after a long illness.

Mr. Pennington was born in 1839 in New Castle county, Delaware, and is a representative of a family of English origin, which was founded in this country about 1750. His grandfather, Atkie Pennington, was a native of Maryland, but his father, Fredus R. Pennington, was born in Delaware. In early life the latter was a sailor, and as mate of a vessel went to France, being there at the time Bonaparte landed from the Isle of Elba. He followed farming, however, during the greater part of his life and continued to make his home in Delaware until called to his final rest at the age of sixty-three. As lieutenant he served in the Fourteenth United States Regiment during the war of 1812. Politically he was a Democrat and socially was a member of the Masonic order for many years. He married Miss Elizabeth Van Hickel, of Delaware, who passed away previous to his death, and only two of their nine children are now living: E. B., who makes his home near Kennedyville, Md., and William D.

Our subject was the youngest of the family, and his early life was passed upon the old homestead in Delaware, where he remained until eighteen years of age. He then spent one year in farming in Missouri, after which he returned to his native State and lived near Delaware City until coming to Kent county, Md., in 1868, with his brother, E. B., and sister. For three years they resided on a farm at Howell's Point. In 1886 Mr. Pennington purchased the Grange farm of two hundred and sixteen acres, where he successfully engaged in general farming and made a specialty of the raising of fruit, particularly peaches, pears and berries.

December 3, 1872, Mr. Pennington married Miss Louisa Kelley, by whom he had three children. Lena, born September 21, 1873, died February 26, 1890; Edgar Reyland was born July 24, 1875; and William L., born August 6, 1877. Mrs. Pennington died February 25, 1879. Our subject was again married October 3, 1883, his second union being with Miss Ella G. Sparks, a native of Kent county, and to them have been born four children, Mary G. and Helen Louise, and two sons, Edgar and William. The family attend the Methodist Episcopal Church and occupy an enviable position in the social circles of the community.

Mr. Pennington uniformly voted the Democratic ticket, and had the reputation of being one of the most straightforward and reliable business men of the third district. He was public-spirited and liberal, and there were few men more popular with all classes than Wm. D. Pennington.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. J. H. Beauchamp, of Still Pond M. E. Church, officiated. The bearers were Geo. W. Harper, E. M. Bonwill, Charles H. Price, Howard Turner, L. W. Ford and Edw. Hepbron. Interment in Still Pond cemetery. W. H. Krusen, undertaker.

The Still Pond Grange and the Farmers' Club attended the funeral in a body

FAIRLEE NOTES.

Our community was shocked on last Saturday morning by the announcement that Mrs. Jennie Crouch, wife of Mr. Amos Crouch, had died at 1 o'clock A. M. She was taken suddenly and seriously ill on Friday morning and died in about eighteen hours. The sympathy of the citizens of the village and the surrounding neighborhood for the bereaved husband and three little children was very manifest and substantially expressed. The funeral was held in Salem M. E. Church on Monday at 2 P. M. Rev. Leonard White officiating. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery, Mr. J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

At the 3rd quarterly meeting of Fairlee charge held a few weeks ago, our pastor Bro. White was invited to return by the unanimous vote of the officials of both churches on the charge. We are apprehensive that we will not be able to keep him. Just such men and preachers are sought and are in great demand. His sermons are those of thought, master productions. His congregations are good, but many more might avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the gospel proclaimed with power.

Mrs. J. C. Staats has just returned from a visit to her sisters in Middletown, Del.

Mrs. J. W. Skirven, of Baltimore, is spending a while with her children in the village, Mr. and Mrs. Lewin U. Skirven.

Fairlee Church Sunday will elect officers for the ensuing year tomorrow morning in the session of the school.

Dr. Frank W. Smith is kept very busy these days driving around visiting the sick. The doctor had quite an experience a few days ago. While driving along the road in Worton he saw an old colored man in the distance ahead of him walking along slowly towards him. Just as they met the old man, Philips, fell dead by the doctor's carriage.

The Fairlee Grange is an ideal and progressive organization. The membership is large and is constantly increasing. The regular weekly meetings are well attended and they are very interesting. The special meetings are particularly attractive.

Mr. A. Hudson is having put up large wagon platform scales at his home in the center of the village. These will be very convenient for heavy weighing such as hay, cattle, coal, etc.

Many have enjoyed the sports that the cold weather has afforded, sleighing, skating, sledding, etc. Many novel methods have been in use, whereby motive power for sledding could be secured, especially by the children. One 12-year-old brother harnessed his shepherd dog to his sled to give his 3-year-old sister a sleigh ride. "Shep" was disposed to balk, so brother devised a plan to make "Shep" move. Placing his sister securely on the sled, "Tabby" the pet cat was brought out, and Scat! was proclaimed. Away went cat, Shep, sled, sister and all at Maud S.'s speed. Luckily he didn't jump a fence or run through a thorn hedge.

Some ice houses have been filled.

A fine supper for the benefit of Fairlee Church will be given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth next Monday evening, Jan. 24th. Members and friends of the church are invited to attend thereby interest in the church and appreciation of the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Smyth. Let's make the supper a grand success.

THE PRICE.

It's another cent on the price of milk
And a cent on a pound of tea,
And a cent on this and a cent on that,
To be paid by you and me—
To be paid by you and me, my man,
But it oughtn't to make us rage
Or to make us mad if they'd only add
A cent as well to our wage.

It's only a cent on a pound of meat,
On a loaf from the flour of the wheat,
And a cent on the clothes we've got to wear
And a cent on all we eat.
Oh, they haven't forgot a thing, my man,
From your shoes and your coat to your hat,
Excepting the pay you earn each day—
They've added no cent to that!

But every cent they add, my man,
Is a cent they've got to pay
When a halt we call to their greed and all,
And that time will come some day.
And the cent that you pay today, my man,
Today when you're sore oppressed,
Will be yours when due—and it's up to you
To collect it with interest!

WHAT THE PEOPLE HAVE TO SAY.

Chestertown, Md., Jan. 15th, 1910.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF KENT NEWS:

Behold the "Uncrowned King" has come, with his destroying hand for all people who are not subjects of his or bow at his bidding. Everybody in his eyes are thieves and rascals except those who jump at the crack of his whip or bow and tremble at the sound of his voice. He goes about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour, jealous of every effort and every good deed that any other citizen should put forth. He will try to make it appear to the public his purity and correctness when we will venture to say it is only an excuse he is trying to give the people of his own inability, and we might say, ignorance of whether the money was spent correctly or whether it was a necessity to spend it to protect the county from lawsuits that will surely follow if the roads and bridges are not kept in repair.

When this "Uncrowned King," with his "Great Discoverer" clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, endeavors to show up the honest efforts of Democrats that are as good and better at heart than he and his henchmen, men we know who have souls and a regard for their fellow man, why is it that the "Uncrowned King" and his "Great Discoverer" clerk do not in all honesty and in justice to Democrats that have the welfare of the county at heart as much so as he publish the cost of the work and how much each and every worker made out of their respective work? No, they want to make it appear that all was profit and that the county did not get the benefit of the money expended, but was put in the pockets as graft. Can't we readily see it is only an excuse to hide from the public what they are going to do and instead of them going along like men and try to do their duty as elected representatives of the people, they want to hide their own weakness and try to draw off the people's censure that will surely come to them or any other public official who tries to do his duty.

Will this "Uncrowned King" or this "Great Discoverer" clerk say that these bridges and repairs were not needed, and will they say that most all this work was not put out to the lowest bidder whether it was a Democrat or Republican, and will they say that it would not of cost the county as much from law suits if the public highway was not put in repair for the safety of travel, etc.?

Shall we have narrow strips of roads with bushes and trees for highwaymen to hide and hold up peaceable citizens at will? We would like to ask this "Uncrowned King" why he went to the cost of filling in the marsh below his house and beautified his grounds with tennis courts, cozy corners, lawns, etc. Why is it that he is raising such a howl about the duly elected representative officials of our county trying to improve our county highways to the best of their ability of whom he is a member? Why do you not if your intentions are pure and good go on and do your work and let the people see for themselves whether your administration will be any better than your predecessors.

Now my fellow Democrats, do not be fooled by this "Uncrowned King" for its only for a bluff to hide their own weakness and prejudice the public against those who have tried to do their duty. Let him crow who taketh off the honor, not he who putteth it on.

DEMOCRAT.

A Complaint About the Roads.

EDITORS NEWS:—I am not one to complain of the manner in which our roads are worked, but I do think it is the duty of our county commissioners to give some attention to the present condition of our roads. For more than two weeks our roads have been blocked with snow, and it is almost impossible to get over some of these places without the risk of breaking your buggy or your horse's legs. I have asked one or two of the men who work our roads why they did not look after these places, and if nothing more to fill up the ruts with snow, which would only take any one of them a few hours. But they say they do not get any orders for such work. I, for one, think such work is more necessary and should be paid for than paying for going over the roads in the summer after a shower and letting the water out of the ruts, as so many of them do. On last Sunday I came very near turning my buggy over on account of two big holes that have been in the road for weeks. You could put a barrel in either of them, I am sure. Please open the roads.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Oronogo, Mo.—"I was simply a nervous wreck. I could not walk across the floor without my heart fluttering and I could not even receive a letter. Every month I had such a bearing down sensation, as if the lower parts would fall out. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done my nerves a great deal of good and has also relieved the bearing down. I recommended it to some friends and two of them have been greatly benefited by it."—Mrs. MAE MCKNIGHT, Oronogo, Mo.

Another Grateful Woman.

St. Louis, Mo.—"I was bothered terribly with a female weakness and had backache, bearing down pains and pains in lower parts. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly and used the Sanative Wash and now I have no more troubles that way."—Mrs. AL. HERZOG, 5722 Prescott Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

What To Do With the Holiday Books

Just now this is a leading question in many thousand American homes.

How can all the new books, with their attractive bindings, be displayed to the best advantage, arranged and classified so as to always be accessible.

Now is the most propitious moment of the entire year to settle this question for all time to come by procuring GLOBE-WERNICKE "Elastic" Book Cases which are graded as to height to fit the books of any library, and in lengths to fit most any room

Made in dull and polish finish, quartered oak and mahogany—with plain, leaded and plate glass doors—controlled by the only patent equalizer that absolutely prevents binding.

Three different styles are described in the catalogue—Standard, Mission and Ideal—each one a distinctive type.

We carry the goods in stock and sell at catalogue prices
