BREAKING campaign promises is made a crime by a bill now up in Kentucky Legislature.

NINETEEN applicants took the examination for census take at the Chestertown High School Saturday. Postmaster Thomas had charge. One of the applicants gave it up in disgust and says it was the most rot he ever saw.

THE Governor on Thursday re-appointed Dr. W. Frank Hines Superintendent of the Bureau of Immigration. Dr. Hines is making an enviable record in that position and his Bureau is doing great work for Maryland.

THE movement being made to take the roads of Kent county out of politics will have the indorsement of all good citizens. Other counties are asking for similar bills. The new law may not accomplish everything desired but it will be a sincere effort at least to improve the system.

ISN'T it about time to repeal the Haman Oyster Law? It has been tried and proven a disappointment, if not a failure. Since its enactment there has been appropriated moneys from the State Treasury aggregating about $130,000. As shown by the last report of the Board of Shellfish Commissioners, there has been less than $11,000 received from the rentals, most of which was received from the renewals of old leases issued under the law authorizing county surveyors to issue such leases.

The buoys set out to mark lands open for oyster culture have been practically destroyed by wind and tide, and as conditions now exist it will be necessary to relocate these grounds from year to year. The $600,000 which was promised for the construction and repair of roads has not materialized, and the whole subject has been an absolute failure except in so far as it has provided salaries and comforts for officials of board.

In repealing the existing law the charts and surveys already made could be turned over to the clerks of circuit courts for the counties and collections upon leases now issued made in future by county collectors and treasurers and turned in to the State Treasury. Future leases could be made by the county surveyors. No lease of more than 50 acres in the bay or 5 acres in the tributaries should be made.

Increase of acreage for a single individual from 10 to 30 in the bay's tributaries.

Increase of the acreage in the bay proper from 100 to 500 acres.

Flat rental of $1 an acre for a period of six years.

Permission to the owners of rented lands to take up oysters as they see fit.

Oyster planting, to be made a success, must be pursued as a business rather than a side issue. Limited acreages now allowed do not justify a man in giving his undivided attention to oyster culture. With the acreage increased and the rentals reduced to $1, experienced oyster culturists can, it is asserted, be induced to give Maryland's waters a trial. Those investigating the subject have invariably turned away when they learned of the limited acreage.

In the law as passed rentals were on a sliding scale. They are now $3 an acre. Ultimately they will be $5. Oysters must be permitted to grow to marketable sizes before any return can be secured from barren bottoms.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

DAVID BRUCE CREW,

The funeral of Bruce Crew, aged 31 years, son of Harriett and the late J. Lewin Crew, took place from his late residence near Worton station, on Monday morning, Feb. 7, the Revs. J. A. Morris and Leonard White officiating.

For several months Bruce had been a great sufferer, yet bore his afflictions with christian grace and fortitude, and when the summons came early Friday morning, Feb. 4th, he gladly responded to the divine call, exchanging a life of suffering and sorrow for one of eternal bliss. To him death had no terror, the sting having been removed by his accepting Christ as his Saviour, and in simple faith trusting in Him for help and strength.

Death to him was rather the breaking of the bonds and shackles of his earthly prison and setting free his spirit in the Heavenly Kingdom. When our loved ones are taken from us how hard it is to say, "Thy will be done," and it is especially sad and distressing when we mourn for them without hope of being reunited in that day when "He shall make up His jewels."

To the aged mother of Bruce and the loving sisters who so tenderly watched over and cared for him during his illness it is indeed comforting to know that he has gone to a country where the inhabitants never say "I am sick," and where there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain. He has gone only a little while before and his loved ones have the blessed privelege of again joining hands on the "sunny banks of the river."

How short is life and how certain is death, yet, with what indifference we treat the whole affair "Let us flee from the wrath to come" ere it is too late and in the words of the psalmist earnestly pray—"O teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom" and when our work is done and we are called from this earth may we be as ready and willing to obey the summons as was this young man.

"O, these tender broken ties.
How they dim our aching eyes.
But like jewels they will shine
In the morning;
When our victor palms we bear.
And our robes immortal wear.
We shall know each other there
In the morning."

A NEW milk route has been started in Chestertown by Messrs Shauber and McGrugan. It is said that another party is also arranging to start a wagon.

It Will Pay U
To Read All This Advertisement

TO read every description of land offered in this advertisement will pay you, because the failure to read even one description may mean that you will miss a wise and profitable investment. Just for an illustration: In the Third District of Kent county, in 1907, I made a number of sales; since then the purchasers have sold, and in every instance realized a profit. It is natural for me to promise you an advantageous purchase, and in the face of the complete satisfaction of buyers through my agency, it is natural and wise for you to consider carefully the farms I NOW OFFER, and let me have a personal talk with you about these properties.

FOR SALE:

NO 516. In the most fertile part of Kent (Massey) 248 acres, sassafras loam soil, the best. Frame dwelling and usual outbuildings; some woodland. Only $7,500.

NO. 513. 202 acres, 200 tillable, First district, 2½ acres in chestnut timber, excellent apple orchard of 35 trees, near church, school and stores, and only 1 mile from wharf, 4 miles from railroad station, sassafras loam soil; 12-room house, with porches and cellar, granary, stables, sheds, etc. Produces from 1800 to 2500 bushels of wheat and corn. Price $14,250.

NO. 512. 111 acres, only 6 miles from Chestertown, no improvements, 100 acres in cultivation, balance in timber, one acre meadow, near church, school and stores. The land is of nice quality and very productive; divided into five fields. Price $3,500.

NO. 489. 100 acres, 80 acres tillable, 3 miles to steamboat wharf, near church and school; 7-room frame dwelling, good barn, new stable, new carriage house, shade, some apple trees; soil adapted to grass, grain and fruit. Only $3,600.

NO. 486. 217 acres, Kent county, near wharf, station, church and store; decidedly well located; 90 acres in timber, balance tillable; frame house 7 rooms, only fair outbuildings. Worth $6,500, but will sell for $5,500.

NO. 484. 74 acres Kent county, 5 miles from Chestertown; 6-room frame dwelling, stable for 4 horses, barn, fine shade, fruit, asparagus, on the water, fish, oysters and boating, near wharf. Worth $3,100, but will sell at $2,700.

NO. 471. 150 acres, between Crumpton and Millington, in Kent county; 120 tillable, 25 in timber; plenty of pine, oak, poplar and chestnut; 600 peach, 100 keiffers, 4 acres apples, etc., near Millington; good outbuildings, well arranged; fine water, soil varied and very productive, medium light and heavy; easy terms. Price $5,000.

NO. 452. 187 acres, 27 in chestnut and oak timber, Kent coanty, 3 miles from Chestertown; 7-room frame house, outbuildings, fine land, nice neighborhood. Price $6,200.

If you have funds which you wish safely invested, communicate with me.
