GET TOGETHER AND ACT.

It is learned that the three members of the Chestertown Water Board cannot agree on the recommendations of the able committee of seven appointed by said Board to suggest needed improvements to the water plant. One member wanted to indorse the whole report, another to indorse a part and the third a small part. This condition, to say the least, is unfortunate. If the Water Board were going to act according to their individual ideas what was the reason for naming a committee to study the situation? This committee comprises Messrs. Thomas W. Eliason, Marion deK. smith, Lewin W. Wickes, Thomas D. France, W. Bradford Copper, Wilbur W. Hubbard, L. B. Russell, representative citizens as much interested as the members of the Water Board and whose judgment, to say the least, equally as good.

With such a condition there would be nothing done and the town's great need be left unsupplied. We are glad to learn that the Volunteer Fire Co., seeing the grave situation, appointed a committee who waited upon the Town Commissioners and requested them to prepare a bill for submission to the Legislature carrying out the suggestions of this Citizen's Committee of seven. This is the duty of the Commissioners and it should be done at once.

If the citizens in the next election do not see fit to endorse this plan all well and good but the present duty of the Commissioners is to authorize their counsel to prepare a bill embodying the recommendations of the committee.

We may have and do have our opinions as to what is best for improving the town's water supply, etc., but we do not set them up as the only right thing. It may be the wrong thing, therefore we indorse the committee's report and throw the responsibility on them.

By all means GET TOGETHER and ACT!

THE PRIMARY BILL.

There is no one who believes more in the carrying out of all the promises made by the Democratic platform than the NEWS. But we do not propose that the Baltimore Sun and city reformers shall interpret these pledges and frame bills to their own liking in carrying out the same. The county people will find that especially in the Primary Law proposed the city of Baltimore would have a great advantage over us. Because of its large number of voters a county man like Hon. Blair Lee, Joseph D. Baker, Esq., and others would have but little chance of being nominated for Governor or any other State office if the city chose to put up a candidate. Furthermore we do not think the party would get as good a candidate in such primaries as if nominated by a convention of true Democrats. It is arduous enough to stump the State for election, and if the same thing has to be done in a primary many good men would not enter. Oh, yes, there would be plenty of candidates, but would the party and State get as good a man? We think a Primary Law which shall include all county officials, delegates, etc., is a necessity, and this law should require all voters to give their party affiliation so that only the accredited members of each party could vote in the primaries.

Senator Blair Lee, the coming candidate for Governor, has put into type the changes he thinks ought to be made in the Primary Election Law prepared by Attorney-General Straus, and which is a decided improvement, but to which there are also objections.

His idea is to allow the Primary Election law for Baltimore city to remain unchanged except that he makes the Crawford county plan compulsory on both parties, as in the Srraus bill, but to extend the envelope system of voting to all the counties.

The measure proposed by him provides for compulsory State-wide primaries for both parties, to be held on the day, for the nomination "of all candidates for public office, all delegates to conventions, all members of the local managing bodies of the political parties and all precinct ward, city and county executives or executive committees by the Australian ballot in Baltimore city and by the envelope system in the counties, with all the safe-guards of the general election laws."

State officers, United States Senators, Representatives in Congress and judges are to be nominated by conventions, delegates to which are to be elected by the system mentioned. Voters are to be permitted to designate their first, second and third choice for any candidate who is to be nominated by convention, and these selections must be regarded by the members of the convention as instructions which, by dropping the lowest candidate on each ballot, will permit delegates to vote for their second choice and so, in time, arrive at a choice.

Senator Lee believes in the envelope system. He would require ballots to be ready for distribution at least four days before a primary, and that they may be had by any voter upon demand. The voter may prepare his ballot at home or, upon entering the polling place, demand one of the judges. He may take into the voting booth as many ballots as he pleases but is required to mark one, seal it in the envelope and hand the envelope to the judges. Mr. Lee regards the Corrupt Practices act, rigidly enforced, as the only safeguard against bribery and undue influence, and that there can be no objection to permitting voters to prepare their ballots at home or wherever they may desire outside the voting booth.

A Surprise Party.—On Tuesday evening of this week about fifty people appeared at the parsonage at Pomona and all wanted to take supper with the pastor and his wife. Furthermore, they wanted a bill-o'-fare to suit themselves. Far be it from a preacher's pantry to be prepared to satisfy such demands. They even went so far as to drive the preacher out of his own kitchen and take charge of his own home. But their conduct was not so outrageous as it might first appear for they brought their supper along and only took charge of the parsonage in order to entertain their pastor and his wife in the royal fashion that only a preacher who has lived in Quaker Neck can fully appreciate.

We had just settled down, pen in hand, for an evening's work, when the door bell rang and people seemed to come from everywhere bearing bundles, bags and baskets that made groan with its unusual burden. Who were present? It seems to us that it would be easier to tell who were not here, for with few exceptions, all the people of Bond Chapel congregation were present.

We do not know that we are easily embarrassed or excited but we were so overcome this time than we even forgot to thank the donors for their hospitality until most of them were gone, and even then knew hardly what to say. So we wish to express herein our sincere thanks to them all as best we know how. It seems to us, however, that we utterly fail to express our full gratitude. Perhaps we will do better next time.

Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. TILGHMAN SMITH.

THE stockholders of the Continental Life Insurance Co., held their annual meeting yesterday at their offices in the Dupont Building, Wilmington, there being present about 100 of the principal stockholders, for the purpose of electing directors for a term of three years, and the following gentlemen were elected to succeed themselves for the said term: Wilbur W. Hubbard, Joshua Miles, Dr. Chas. M. Ellis and DeCoursey W. Thom, all of whom were unanimously elected, the total amount of votes cast for them being 852 The President's report to the stockholders was exceedingly gratifying.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS

Miss Myrtle B. Mann gave a beautifully arranged Valentine party at her home, "Hawthorne Place," Betterton, on Monday evening. The house was handsomely decorated with potted plants and flowers. Progressive hearts were played, Mrs. John S. Owens and Mr. William Owens being the prize winners. Later in the evening the guests were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served The decorations all being in keeping with St. Valentines Day—the color scheme being pink with pink shaded lights. The favors were handsome valentines.

A sumptuous dinner was given on Tuesday of last week in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of Mr. Walter B. Strong, one of Kent's most prosperous farmers, residing near Lankford. The spacious dining room was artistically arranged and a splendid repast prepared by the host's most estimable wife was served in eight courses. Those present spent a most enjoyable time and returned to their homes well filled, wishing the genial Walter many happy returns of the day. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brice and daughter, Miss Bessie; Mrs. James L. Beck and daughter, Miss Bertie; Mr. Hynson, Beck, Misses Emma and May Mills, Mr. Earle Nicholson and Mr. Charles Jessop.

Senators Wells, of Prince George's, and Slay, of Kent county, look enough alike to be brothers, and one might easily mistake one for the other. Both wear the goatee and mustache which Southern gentlemen are so fond of affecting, and both are unusually good-looking, men, with dignified, thoughtful expressions and fine features. They are stopping during the session of the the legislature at Carvel Hall, and are frequently seen together, as they are great friends. —Balt. Star.

Dr. Barrett C. Catlin, formerly of our town, made a plea before the Committees of the Legislature for St. Luke's Hospital, of Baltimore, Thursday for continuance of State aid. This hospital has made rapid growth. Several patients have been cared for there from Kent. We hope the Governor and the Legislature will continue to aid St. Luke's.

THE Architectual Commission of Baltimore city have selected Mr. Robert F. Leach architect of the new school building to be erected on Ann street. It will cost $120,000. Mr. Leach is the architect of the handsome new Kent County Savings Bank nearing completion in Chestertown.

A NICKEL FOR A DOLLAR

My NICKEL CLOCKS are WORTH a dollar; there ARE Nickel Clocks sold that are dear at seventy-five cents. Mine STAY good; for they do not have soft pinions and a case as thin as tin.

I have another NICKEL ALARM that rings for FIFTEEN MINUTES (unless you get out of bed and stop it); then it stops to see if you turn over for another snooze. Then it begins again; and the "Intermittent" keeps up this periodical racket until you MUST get up, or go crazy. It is a great cure for sleepy cooks; and a great comfort for the man who MUST have breakfast on time.
