FAIRFIELD'S FEED BLOOD TONICS
POWDERED
A SEPARATE PREPARATION
FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE BUTTERFLIES SOARING HIGH.

A Splendid Entertainment Given in Stam's Hall to Large Audiences Two Evenings—Local Characters, Home Training.

One of the most successful entertainments given under the auspices of the Chestertown Ladies' Improvement Association was that presented Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in Stam's Hall. A pleasing fact was that it was given by home talent. To specify any particular feature would reflect on the other so that we refrain from particularizing. Mrs. Hope H. Barroll with her untiring energy and enthusiasm directed the affair to its successful issue and had the ready and willing help of a talented corps of home workers. Dr. Edward J. Clarke had charge of the dramatic roles and Mrs. David B. Ford the musical numbers.

The entertainment was well called the "Butterflies," including a play which was interspersed with songs, dances and choruses from the opera "Three Twins." The characters in the play were as follows:

Mr. Wheedleton Coaxer, an elderly lady killer, Dr. E. J. Clark.
Capt. Clarence Courtland, Capt. of Dragons, Mr. Hynson Rogers.
Sim—A trusty man to look after things, Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley, Jr.
Letty Hawthorne, a charming widow who does not object to a little flirtation, Mrs. D. B. Ford.
Kate.....Miss Mary Ahern
Frank, Lettie's Lover.....Mr. Morris Barroll
Tom, Kate's Lover.....Mr. Hilt
Dr. Munyon, Specialist in charge of sanitorium, Mr. D. B. Ford.
Orderlies, Nurses, Chamber-maids, Society Ladies, Etc.

It is thought the Association will net nearly $200 from these entertainments.
