SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1910.

THE Baltimore American says:

"Colonel Vannort, of Kent, should make an ideal commander of the Maryland G. A. R. He was a good soldier and is a first-class citizen."

Kent county is the place to find first-class citizens. Congratulations, Colonel.

THE return of Dr. F. T. Little is a source of pleasure to not only his congregation in Christ Church but the whole community rejoices. He is an able preacher, an ideal citizen and a polished gentleman. Welcome home, doctor.

THE Town Improvement Association is doing a great thing for Chestertown and the united support of the people of the entertainments this week evidenced appreciation. "In union there is strength." Keep it up.

CHARLES L. DODD has been named by Hon. Murray Vandiver as Democratic chairman of the State Central Committee for Kent county in place of Lewin W Wickes, Esq., resigned. If the party had searched all over Kent county a more earnest and enthusiastic party worker nor a more popular and efficient chairman could not have been found. Success to you, Mr. Dodd.

THE Slay Road Bill is a good name for the new system of working roads given the law by those who would make SPOILS out of them. This Bill simply "Slays" the spoilsmen and we hope will place the roads outside of politics. The NEWS will do all in its power to place them on a business basis. Will you, reader?

THE residents of Kennedyville have petitioned the County Commissioners to finish the road which is being built through the village the total width of the street. The State Commission has begun the road work which only extends fourteen feet—the residents have received an offer from the contractor to widen the road fourteen feet extending from sidewalk to sidewalk and running 850 feet for $1500. This is an opportunity which the county should accept and we would urge this economical expenditure.

GIVE a calf enough rope and he will be sure to hang himself! It turns out now that the roads were considered the SPOILS, and all the reform talk about taking them out of politics was simply noise. Senator Slay and his friends are sincere in their efforts to put the roads under a system that shall remove them from politics and give to the people a business and economical administration of them. If every tax-payer will give his encouragement to the officials named by the Governor and his subordinates, we feel confident they will be pleased. Of course, it is not expected that all will be satisfied; but a great majority of voters will certainly be pleased.

GOVERNOR CROTHERS must appoint the members of the Public Utilities Commission on or before April 21st. These men will be paid salaries ranging from four to six thousand dollars. If he has any difficulty in finding a man in Baltimore we would modestly suggest that he turn to Kent and pick one of Chestertown's young lawyers. Then there are the Automobile Commissioner and assistants, at salaries varying from $3,000 down. We are sure Messrs. J. H. Sides, A. L. Sparks or J. F. Thompson could enforce this law and use the salary to good purpose. Next is the Banking Commission to be named by the Board of Public Works, with good salaries. Chestertown banks have men who can fill the bill. But can the town afford to let them go?

A NEW ASSESSMENT.

The Reassessment bill for the counties has been signed. The real estate and personal property of the entire State is to be reassessed, and it is believed that many millions of dollars will be added to the taxable basis. The reassessment does not apply to Baltimore city. The Governor is required under the law to appoint on behalf of the State two assessors for each county, and these appointments must be made before the 16th day of April.

The Governor is working on his appointments now, and is anxious to make them immediately. He is determined that none but first-class men, who are familiar with the duties of the position shall be appointed, and is closely investigating those who have been recommended and suggested to him. Under the law the County Commissioners of each county appoint an assessor for each election district, and these, with the two at large appointed by the Governor for each county, compose the Board of Assessors of each election district. The assessors named by the Governor are to receive $5 a day from the State, and those by the county $5 a day from the county. The assessor representing the county is also to act as secretary of the board, and is to receive $2 a day, paid by the county, for this extra service.

IT was certainly a shame to have taken the children's candy, wasn't it?

LET every citizen in Chestertown put up a flag Tuesday Wednesday in honor of the convention which will be in session here.

Miss Eloise Ringgold Of Kent Weds Lieut. J. A. Merritt.

Miss Eloise Davis Ringgold, daughter Mrs. M. C. Ringgold, now of Salisbury, but formerly of Chertertown, was married to Lieut. James Alfred Merritt, of the Fourteenth Infantry, U. S. A., in St. Peter's Church by Rev. H. B. Martin, of Chestertown. The wedding music was played by Miss Mabel Toulson, of Chestertown. The bride was given away by her uncle, Judge James Alfred Pearce of the Court of Appeals of Maryland. Mrs. John M. Toulson and Miss Ethelinde Ringgold, her sisters, were, respectively, matron and maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were: Misses Dovie Connelly, Mary Hines, Edith Moors, Mrs. Hubard Ringgold, Hallie Toulson, of Chestertown, and Miss Josephine Hawey, of Washington; Miss Winifred Trader, of Salisbury, and Miss Frances Tyler, of Baltimore. Miss Maud Toulson, of Salisbury, was flower girl, and little Miss Anne Craven and Thomas Craven were ribbon bearers. Lieutenant Merritt had as his best man his brother, Paymaster William A. Merritt, U. S. N.

The ushers were Lieutenant Arthur Campbell, C. A. C. Lieut. Marcel Keene, C. A. C. Mr. Roscoe White, Mr. Walter Humphreys, Dr. John M. Toulson and Mr. Vickers White, all of Salisbury; Mr. Hubard Ringgold, of Baltimore, and Mr. George Brice, of Chestertown.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dr. John M. Toulson entertained about 200 guests at a brilliant reception at their home, "Mill Grove."

Later in the evening Lieutenant and Mrs. Merritt left for a short wedding trip.

Lieutenant Merritt, who is the son of Mrs. James Alfred Merritt, of Baltimore, will later in the month take his bride to Fort Lincoln, North Dakota, where his regiment is stationed.

Announcements.—Dr. and Mrs. John W. Chambers, of Baltimore, have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Margaret, to Mr. T. Alan Dill, on Saturday, April 30th, at Mt. Vernon M. E. Church, Baltimore.

THE Chestertown High School Glee Club will give a concert at High School on Friday, April 29. This promises to be a treat as much time has been given by the instructor, Miss Fannie Stuart to the training.

Spraying Demonstration.—The Maryland Experiment Station will conduct a spraying demonstration at Mr. D. B. Stewart's White Hall farm Chestertown, Thursday, April 21st. The public is invited.

CONFESSED SPOILSMAN.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

Gentlemen—It is certainly amusing, and at the same time, shocking, to read in the editoral columns of Mr. Barroll's paper, presumably written by the "plumed peacock" editor, in reference to the Kent County Road Law. In it the writer endeavors to heap "coals of fire" upon the head of Senator Slay for the provisions of that act, especially the one single provision that all fair-minded men concede to be the sefeguard to the taxpayer—the appointment of the Road Engineer by the Governor.

We cannot believe that any intelligent and self respecting citizen in Kent can subscribe to the political doctrine as laid down in the article referred to which the writer says: "The people's faction won by every fair and honest means the board of County Commissioners, and they should have been allowed to enjoy the SPOILS of their victory." This is a frank confession, to say the least, that the SPOILS SYSTEM is the creed of the youthful exponent of political economy, and also the Boss whom he so faithfully represents.

We are very glad that this gentleman has so early and so boldly acknowledged the spoils system to be his creed and the creed of those for whom he is the mouthpiece, because we now feel sure that the plain people and the unsuspecting voter, as well as the large tax-payers, will "sit up and take notice," and not be deceived by the "hide and seek" policy of the plumed editor and his crowd of calamity howlers.

We are now more than ever convinced that Senator Slay displayed good judgment in framing the Kent Road Law so that the Governor and not the county commissioners should appoint the Engineer, thus relieving our board of commissioners of the responsibility and of the temptation to reward the faithful at the expense of the public. We feel certain that this board of commissioners will sooner or later thank Senator Slay, Hons. J. S. Harris and H. C. Willis for the provisions of the Law.

The people at large judging from expressions we have heard here and there, fully endorse Senator Slay's faithfulness in the discharge of his duties as Senator from Kent, and no citizen with a grain of self-respect would have the audacity to impugn the motives of so worthy representatives.
