Stop Women And Consider

This Fact—that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. Such questioning and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

PEARCE, ABELL, AMBLER

Governor Appoints Public Service Commissioners—George Automobile Commissioner And Baker, Powell And Baughman on Conservation Board.

Named By The Governor.

Governor Crothers announced Monday the following appointments:

Public Service Commissioners.

JUDGE JAMES ALFRED PEARCE, Kent county, chairman.

MR. W. W. ABELL, Baltimore.

MR. JAMES M. AMBLER, Baltimore.

Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

MR. H. ARTHUR STUMP.

Automobile Commissioner.

MR. JOHN E. GEORGE, Queen Anne's county.

Members of the Conservation Commission.

MR. BERNARD N. BAKER, Baltimore chairman.

COL. WILLIAM S. POWELL, Ellicott City.

COL. CHARLES H. BAUGHMAN, Frederick.

Governor Crothers Monday appointed the Public Service Commissioners, the Automobile Commissioner, the Conservation Commissioners and a member of the Supreme Bench for Baltimore City. The names of those appointed are given above.

The Governor Explains.

In making the announcement the Governor said:

"I have tried in making these appointments to select the very highest type of men in the State. I have tried to get men who are not only not in politics, but who have no political ambitions of any sort. I want to say that I have not spoken to any one of the men named on the subject. I have not asked any one of them whether he will serve on the commission or not. I have taken it for granted that no public spirited man in Maryland will decline to accept appointment on the Public Service Commission when he realizes the service he can render to the people of the whole State."

As most of the public service corporations are in Baltimore the Governor at the beginning decided that two Baltimoreans should be named on the commission. He realized that no stronger county man acceptable to the people of the entire State could be named than Judge Pearce, who has made an enviable record in the Court of Appeals. As the work of the commission will involve the handling of many intricate legal questions, the Governor deemed it advisable to put two lawyers on the commission, irrespective of the fact that the commission will have a chief counsel and other legal assistance. Since the retirement of Judge Wright Mr. Ambler has been prominently spoken of for the judicial appointment. He was highly endorsed for the appointment by a number of leading lawyers of the city, and the Governor concluded that he was the right kind of a man to place on the public Service Commission. He is regarded as one of the best equity lawyers in the State.

The Selections Commended.

As soon as the personnel of the commission was known the Governor was highly commended by a number of friends on his selections. While all three of the appointees are Democrats they have never been active in the affairs of the party. They supported its candidates and principles when they regarded them as right and proper. It is expected the commission will have many legal technicalities to decide. With his thorough knowledge of the opinions of the Court of Appeals on public service corporation cases it is believed that Judge Pearce will be able to add strength to the findings of the commission. In this work he will be assisted by Mr. Abell and Ambler, who thoroughly understands the workings of public service corporations and their relationship to the general public.

Terms And Salaries.

Within the next few days the Governor will designate the length of the term of each of the Commissioners.

It is expected that Judge Pearce will be named for the six-year term. As chairman he will receive $6,000 a year, while the other commissioners will receive $5,000 each.

More Offices To Fill.

The Board of Public Works is expected to meet within the next week and elect the State Banking Commissioner, who will administer the new Banking law. Mr. J. Duke Downes, of Caroline county, the present State Bank Examiner, is regarded as the strongest candidate for this place.

The Governor is also called upon to appoint the chief counsel to the Public Service Commission, for which a number of lawyers have been mentioned. Among these are former State Senator Robert Moss, of Anne Arundel county; former State Senator Clarence W. Perkins and Mr. Harry L. D. Stanford, of Somerset county.

With the appointment of Judge Pearce as chairman of the Public Service Commission, the Governor will also be required to name his successor as chief judge of the Second circuit, and the names of a number of lawyers present themselves in connection with this appointment. The associate judges of this circuit are Judge Adkins, of Talbot county, and Judge Hopper, of Queen Anne's county. It is believed that the chief judge will be selected from one of the other three counties in the circuit, which are Cecil, Kent and Caroline.

Judge Pearce Deelines

Judge James A. Pearce, who had been selected by Governor Crothers as chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, declined to accept the place, holding that he was better fitted to discharge his duties on the bench than he would be to deal with new business problems with which he was totally unfamiliar. The Governor could do nothing but accept this declination and later in the day he named Mr. Philip D. Laird, of Montgomery, for third member of the Commission, promoting Mr. James M. Ambler, of Baltimore, to the chairmanship. Mr. Laird is a well-known citizen of Maryland and will no doubt prove a useful member of the new body.
