TOWN ELECTION.

Mr. Merrick Clements Elected Unanimously a Commissioner—Bond Issue Carried by Large Plurality—Only Five Negroes Voted.

The municipal election in Chestertown passed off quietly Monday. Mr. Merrick Clements, the efficient book-keeper in Chestertown Bank of Md., and member of the firm of Graham & Clements, was the only candidate for Commissioner and received 120 votes, total number cast. He will be sworn into office Monday and succeed Capt. Thomas S. Bordley. We think it due to state in this connection that Capt. Thomas S. Bordley has made a most faithful, efficient and sacrificing official. He has diligently served the town for six years and retires with the consciousness of duties well performed.

The Bond Issue was quite a bone of contention but the aggressive and enterprising citizens won in this matter as they deserved to do. There were 84 votes cast for the increased fire protection, etc., and 33 against. There were only 5 colored men who voted.

The young gentlemen of the Volunteer Fire Department who threw their influence for the support of the Bond Issue for needed improvements "as proposed" by the citizens Committee deserve commendation and the vote shows the confidence of the public in their judgement.

The vote is also a vindication, unsolicited, of Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, who has been unjustly assailed and held up to public ridicule. Chestertown and Kent county is proud to claim him as one of its foremost citizens and most persons will feel gratified at the result of the Bond Issue for this and many other good reasons.

Miss Anna Smyth lead the song service in Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening.

The National Sunday School Convention is to be held in Washington next month.
