DON'T forget to clean up your yards before the 18th.

HAVE you seen the comet? It is approaching the earth at the rate of 4,000,000 miles per day. It can be seen in the Eastern sky at 3.30 A. M.

THE outlook is for a big crop of peaches. The trees are loaded with young fruit past the critical stage. The June drop is the next enemy.

MEN are so impatient! For instance, a Virginia banker kills himself "on account of cigarettes," when he might have waited a little while and let the cigarette do the work itself.

CHESTERTOWN was honored this week by the presence of the noted Maryland poet, the Bentztown Bard. A bunch of mint decorated his table giving to him an air of homelikeness which he appreciated.

THE report that the great Susquehanna power dam, once it is completed, will stamp out the Chesapeake shad by robbing that imperial fish of his ancestral nursery up the river need cause no disquiet among votaries of the perfect victual. Whether or not the dam will have that effect we do not presume to predict, but we do know with the utmost certainty that if it does it will be a dam of exceedingly short life.

THE Judges of the Circuit Court at Centreville Monday appointed Henry R. Lewis, of Denton, state's attorney for Caroline county, vice Elmer W. Deen, deceased. Mr. Lewis is one of the oldest members of the bar, and has an extensive practice. He was state's attorney 10 years ago. He was twice elected to the Maryland House of Delegates from Caroline, and was a delegate to the Chicago convention in 1896, which nominated Bryan.

THE NEW PRIMARY LAW

Does It Apply To Congressional Nominations For This Year.

The question has arisen whether the new Primary Election Law does or does not require the nomination of congressional candidates by both parties at direct primaries, thus doing away with delegates and conventions.

Mr. Straus' examination of the law in Senator Lee's presence did not swerve him from his first view that nominations for Congress must be made by the direct system of voting. At the same time he stated that his view may be subject to change after a more thorough examination of the law and after consultation with other lawyers, including former Attorney-General W. S. Bryan, who has had long experience in interpreting election laws.

Senator Lee insisted that the law devised by him expressly provides that it is still optional with the political parties whether they nominate the candidates for Congress by direct primaries or by the old delegate convention system.

The Attorney General will lay his final opinion before the Democratic State Central Committee at its meeting on May 19. This opinion will have the full effect of law until reversed by a decision of the courts.

Senator Lee, in reviewing the provisions of the law called attention to the fact that the ward executives of both parties of Baltimore must be elected at direct primaries during September. He also called attention to the fact that all members of the state central committees of both parties must be similarly elected These elections must be held annually. The chairman of the Democratic State Convention still has the privilege of naming the chairman of the state committee.

There are several counties in which the question of direct nominations will be submitted as a referendum.

Football.—A Baltimore paper in speaking of Prof. M. J. Thompson, the coach at Washington College, says:

"There is hardly a more famous exponent of athletics in the country than Professor Thompson, who was graduated at Georgetown University in the class of 1900. He has been in great demand all over the land as a referee, and umpired all the big football games of the season, officiating in no less than 16 notable contests. His work has been of the highest character, and a more intelligent and fairer-minded judge was never called upon to make decisions.

"Football, I think, can justly claim precedence as the great American sport," said Professor Thompson. "Every year there is a great increase in the crowds that throng to the plays between noted teams. The Yale-Harvard match was witnessed by 42,000 people, while 15,000 more were unable to get in the grounds, although willing to pay record-breaking prices for admission. In none of the games which I refereed last season was anyone hurt. A few years ago there was imminent danger of concerted action by the college and universities looking to the abolition of football because of the numerous tragedies it entailed. By changing the style of play so as to make it more open it reduced the chances of severe bodily harm to a minimum and at the same time made the game far more entertaining to the public."

ROAD ENGINEER APPOINTED.

Gov. Austin L. Crothers yesterday appointed Mr. Issac Gibbs, Jr., as engineer for Kent County and his commission was forwarded yesterday to clerk of Circuit Court. The new appointee graduated at Delaware College, is 23 years of age, and has been at work in road surveying, plotting etc., since 1907. He was strongly recommended to the Governor by letters from persons under whom he worked. Last year he worked with the government survey with headquarters in Wilmington. He is a young man of fine character and has the influence and strong support of his father, Hon. Isaac Gibbs, a well-known resident of Massey's, economical and industrious and directly interested in lowering the taxes of Kent.

It cannot be said that the Governor acted in other than what he really believed to be the wisest way. The people of Kent, if possible, want a home man, as home talent should always be considered first.

Now that the appointment is made, there should be no knockers. It remains to be seen, of course, whether this choice has been a wise one, but until such time as the citizens of the county find they have not received their money's worth, there should be no lack of harmony or expression of ill feeling. Mr. Gibbs is a young man of exceptional ability and the citizens of Kent should lend every effort to make his labor a success in bringing about better road conditions, and let their petty differences disappear with the muddy roads, steep hills and bad transportation facilities.
