Mike Thompson Happy Over The Defeat of Western Maryland—Other Base Ball News.

The Washington College base ball team journeyed to Westminster last Saturday and succeeded in defeating the Western Maryland College team by score of 10 to 8. Washington seemed to have an easy time from the very first inning and in fact clinched the game in that inning by piling up seven runs. The Western Maryland boys never overcame the lead though she succeeded in making five runs in the eighth.

Score:

Washington College.....	7 0 0 2 1 0 0 0—10
Western Maryland College..	0 0 1 2 0 0 0 5 0— 8

The "Stars" of Chestertown, undertook to whallop the strong Millington base ball team last Saturday at Millington but were made to bite the dust by score of 14 to 6. The battery for the Stars were Rolph and Duyer, and for Millington Beck and Tonkin.

The Massey base ball team defeated Crumpton on the latter's diamond by the score of 14 to 10, Catts their star pitcher holding Crumpton to 4 in seven innings was taken out to let West pitch who was wild and the catcher could not hold him. Crumpton plays at Massey today. This team is playing fast ball and are not picking their opponents, so if any other team wishes a game just drop Mr. Joseph Gibbs a card.

The Massey High School boys defeated Galena High school on the latter's diamond to the tune of 8 to 4, Newnam their pitcher holding Galena safe with the bases full. They play Golts today, so if you want to see them win a shutout game, just be on hand at 2 P. M.

Hanson Horsey, of Galena, who is pitching for Reading, Pa., this season made his first debut in League circles last Friday against Lancaster, champions of the Tri-State League. With the exception of the fifth inning Horsey was invincible, allowing Lancaster but six scattered hits, Reading winning in the tenth inning by the score of 2 to 1.

The second team of Washington College defeated Centreville High School on Saturday by score of 13 to 2.

The Chestertown High School team defeated Church Hill Saturday.

When the Millington High School boys succeeded in closing a game with the Chestertown Stars last week for Saturday May 7th, they expected to have to fight hard for victory. They were somewhat surprised, however, when the game opened up without the visiting team getting a man on base in the first inning, while the High School boys brought in four runs to their credit. Our boys played with "pop and snap" during the first inning but later in the game owing to a few errors the Chestertown boys made several runs. The hitting of the M. H. S. boys and the twirling of Beck, the kid who made moons out of the Stars, were the principal features of the game. The score was 14 to 6 favor Millington.

THE KING IS DEAD! LONG LIVE THE KING!

Surrounded only by his nearest relatives, including the Queen and the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the seven most eminent physicians of the realm, Edward the Seventh, of England, passed away peacefully at 11.45 p. m., Friday, at Buckingham Palace. Prince George, the eldest son, reigns in his stead.

The cause of death, as given by the King's physicians, was pneumonia, which developed rapidly from the severe bronchial attack his Majesty suffered about 10 days ago.

All during the day royal and official personages flitted to and from the palace, but only his nearest relatives and friends were allowed access to the King's apartments, situated on the ground floor overlooking the beautiful memorial now being built to his mother Queen Victoria.

Late in the afternoon the King experienced severe choking spells, which affected his heart, and to those at his bedside it was clearly evident that he was rapidly sinking. In a waking interval these words fell from his lips:—"Well, it is all over, but I think I have done my duty."

The death of the sovereign occurs at the worst possible time from a political, business and social point of view. The new King—Prince George—faces a trying situation in curbing the power of the peers. With the London season just beginning, festivities will give place to mourning and all business will therefore be affected.

He became King of England on January 22nd, 1901, by the death of his illustrious mother, Queen Victoria.

NO NEGRO VOTES HERE.

The following candidates have filed their nomination papers with the Town Council of Elkton:

For President—James F. Powers and Dr. H. Arthur Mitchell.

For Councilmen—Elmore Diebert, Dr. W. D. Cawley, Oliver C. Giles and Samuel H. King.

The election will be held May 16 and will be the first to be held under the present law, which provides for a registration of voters and eliminates all negroes unless they own real estate to the amount of $500. The registration shows 399 white voters and 11 negroes.

W. W. Burkley and Charles H. Jeffers have been appointed judges and William R. Gilpin and William C. Feehly clerks.

IN MEMORIAM.

CLARENCE LOUIS SHAW died November 15th, 1909.

Six months have passed away
Since we were forced to part,
But time and space cannot efface
Thy memory from my heart.

In memory I of times see
The one I loved so dear;
The vision grows so clear sometimes
I feel he must be near.

Though not dead—what a beautiful thought
To cheer us through life's dreary way;
Not dead but bloomed into life
Where time is eternally day.

LOVING MOTHER.

In remembrance of my dear mother who departed this life six years ago.

Dearest mother how I miss you,
Miss you more than tongue can tell;
Every hour and day that passes
Brings me nearer with you to dwell.

In the grave yard softly sleeping
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I love so dearly
In her low and silent grave.

Farewell dear mother may you slumber,
Be as gentle as your love,
And when God calls me homeward
May we meet in heaven above.

LAW STOPS STOMACHACHES

Remarkable Effect Of Recent Legislation In Caroline County—The End of the Literary Club and Snuff-Favored Hard Cider—No Liquor Sales for 34 Years.

The new local option law, framed by the State Senator Edward E. Goslin, and enacted at the recent session of the General Assembly, is claimed, has already greatly improved prohibition conditions in Caroline county.

The "wetness" at certain points in the county, which led to the enactment of this drastic measure has disappeared and the entire county is now said to be absolutely "dry," so far as the procuring of intoxicants within the county is concerned. More than 34 years ago, this county voted "dry," and there have been no legal sales of liquor, save for medical purposes there in that time. However, during most of the period, it has been comparatively easy to buy intoxicants in some form.

Under the new law, it said that the county is "dryer" than has been the case for many years. This act cuts out all substitutes for liquor and also the prescription trade in "sperits frumenti." Under it there cannot be sold or given away, in a place of business, any liquor, medicated bitters, or compound the chief or principal ingredient of which is alcohol, or cider of any kind, by any person, firm, corporation, either directly or indirectly, by way of barter; nor can orders for such be taken within the county, under penalty of at least one year's imprisonment in the House of Correction for the first offense, and at least three year's imprisonment in the same place for every subsequent offense.

Provision is made for the filing of informations by the State's attorney in cases appealed from justices of the peace, and for the prosecution of any one or more of the members of a firm or directors, trustees or managers of a corporation.

It is generally thought that under the new law infractions must occur in the cases of physicians and druggists in dispensing tinctures and other preparations, required by the formula to contain a major proportion of alchol, although in practically all cases the character of the compound is such that it can hardly be used as an intoxicant; and it was for this reason that a number of professional men at the late term of court asked the Judges for advice as to how far it would be safe for them to ignore the law.

Stomach Aches All Gone.

The Judges, as a matter of course, would decide nothing in advance, but the impression holds with doctors and druggists that so long as the spirit of the act is observed, they are not likely to be bothered with its letter.

A notable effect of the law, according to the physicians, is the total subsidence of stomach-ache and other agonizing symptoms for the relief of which the sufferer was firmly convinced he needed whiskey, and desired to be armed with a prescription. While under the old prescription laws there has never been, it is asserted, any charges made before a grand jury against Caroline physicians, of bad faith or judgment in giving prescriptions of this kind, nevertheless, as matter of human experience, it was hardly possible for a doctor, engaged in practicing medicine for a living and holding intimate personal relations with patients, past, present and prospective to entirely escape being impressed at some time with a story of suffering and illness and pleaded with for the sovereign remedy adapted to the particular case.
