AIN'T it a joke? Eh!

WHY not a rose carnival?

CHESTERTOWN and Kent county are vertible flower gardens and even the croaker is made to exclaim, "How beautiful!"

IT is a fact that under the presidency of Mr. P. G. Wilmer at the county almshouse the expenses were reduced $500. The new board expect to keep up this record.

IN the death of Wm. E. Jarrell, Kent County has lost a valuable citizen, Chestertown and this community a useful man, his immediate family a kind father and devoted husband, while the Church has lost a strong supporter.

OFFICER COOPER deserves the commendation of all good citizens for the arrest of Wm. Waters who confesses to keeping a speak-easy. The names on the book—what a revelation!

THE Baltimore School Board has discontinued teaching vertical writing. This is a wise move. The sooner our schools get on a business basis, as regards writing, the more useful will be the scholar in after life. The experience of men in offices and banks prove that the old time way of writing is the best.

THE artist pen fails to reproduce the beauty of the scenery about Kent county as it unfolds itself before the gaze of mankind, and the epicurean in all his delicate menus fails to find one that can surpass the elegance of the viands spread before our numblest residents. Strawberries, rich and rare, with hot waffles to a turn; soft shell crabs on toast with gravy; rich cream and cherry pie; fried chicken and new potatoes, peas and asparagus; roast lamb and squab on toast with sugar-cured ham in reserve! Isn't this enough to make old Kent renowned? And there's much more, but the half can not be told.

Will He Accept?

A Clarion Bugle Call For Governor Crothers' Re-nomination, Precedent Or No Precedent.

EDITORS KENT NEWS:

The "sticklers for routine and ruin" allege as a reason why Governor Crothers will not or should not get another term that never in the political history of the State has any Governor succeeded himself; hence why should Governor Crothers? This is the argument of weaklings. They might as well ask what right has Halley's comet to visit us unless there is some precedent for the visit? If they did and the comet should answer them in this fashion, "Stupid lunk heads, can't you understand that original characters and leaders of comets as well as leaders of men, are not supposed to follow precedents? They make precedents as well as presidents," Who would be to blame?

Governor Crothers is an original and forceful personalty whom the politics of his State will have to reckon with for some time. The voice and wishes of the people must be obeyed in contradistinction to the interested politician whose interest in the masses extend not much if at all beyond the feathers on his own nest, whose opposition would be like a feather in a cyclone.

If a precedent has to be established Governor Crothers is the man to do it. It never can be done younger in the State's history. Again it is alleged that His Excellency has spoken to the effect that he would not be again a candidate. So did Grover Cleveland, so did several other notables who as a matter of civic duty demonstrated that "Wise men change their minds." "Precedent sticklers never." Why cannot Gov. Crothers do likewise for the behoof of his State and at the request of it's people? Give him an honorable chance, gentlemen, before writing his political epitaph? John W. Smith's place is yet a myth, and a "bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

As we have excellent or rather incontrovertable proof that the KENT NEWS was first to advocate the present incumbent for Governor, so let it be the first to sound a clarion bugle call, precedent or no precedent, for his re-nomination.

Anent the suggestion that Hon. Blair Lee, of Montgomery, receive the next Gubernatorial nomination which is tantamount to saying that he become the next Governor—I would respectfully rise to ask (and this without any fault finding with Mr. Lee or any other prospective or possible nominee) "What's the matter with Governor Crothers?" and from the bone and sinew of the State I hear the universal chorus: "He's all right." Then why look for a successor until he has received his due—a second term? Has he not been devoted and faithful?—true to the farmers and all others who pay taxes, as well as those who don't. Hasn't he in a word been to the people of his beloved State what the Indians would term, "The Great White Father," loving all his adoped family as if they were his own and all the more perhaps—like the Catholic priest—because of having no children of his own to claim and necessarily to divide his attention and affection which are therefore given wholely, solely and undivided to his official duties.

Now then after such a record as our Gubernatorial Joshua (as we've termed him) has made, is it fair that instead of saying "well done good and faithful servant, etc.," he shall be informed, good and faithful servant we are going to see that, like the St. John's student at the Oratorical contest, you are going to be "Well done!"

This would be ingratitude as well as crulty to Governors. It would be inconsistent because unnatural, and Maryland we are sure would not stand for it, however acceptable it may be to mercenary political wire pullers and personally interested political heelers.

Mr. Lee, of Montgomery, whom we had the pleasure of meeting at Annapolis, would, we have no doubt, make an admirable Governor, a worthy successor in every way to Our Joshua. But then so would several others we met there also, and several more we did not meet there or anywhere else. Yet we respectfully say the time is not ripe to talk sucessor, nor is it at all courteous, only in the event of our Joshua's positive refusal to be the nominee. To this we are sure Mr. Lee will subscribe? This and this alone would prove him worthy of being Governor Crothers' successor? And if it becomes necessary, that is if "Our Joshua" will not again make the race and succeed himself, then from what we know of Mr. Lee by reputation and what we saw of him at Annapolis, where he was energetic, capable and painstaking, the finger of fate it would seem is determining to jog the memory of Maryland's Democratic donkey regarding Gubernatorial honors and pointing to Blair Lee with unmistakeable emphasis, exclaim: "Ecce Homo."

RIDER HAGGARD.

Where Reverence is Needed.

Reverence for the marriage service and for marriage itself is by no means so high as it should be. The service should be marked with solemnity and with due realization of what it means. Unfortunately, this is not always the case. In fact, not infrequently a levity and ill considered actions mar the ceremony and make it but little than a parody of marriage.

A very conspicuous instance was that which recently occured in an eastern city when a wedding was held in the sawdust ring of a circus, the principals being a clown, dressed in his professional costume and an equestrienne also in professional finery. The attendants were clowns, harlequins and other performers, who, with the spectators, indulged in considerable merriment during and after the service. That it was possible to find a minister to officiate under the circumstances indicates that some members of the cloth seek after notoriety or are attracted by the expectation of a big fee.

It is such ill advised and irreverently conducted services that tend to weaken the sanctity of the marriage state. Marriages celebrated under conditions like the one above referred to are not like to be lasting. Sooner or later a divorce follows, a home is broken up and lives wrongly influenced. Less buffoonery and more reverence when a man or woman plight their troth would, in many cases, make a lasting union and a happy home.

IN supplement form with this issue will be found the public general laws designated for publication. Many of these measures are of great importance and should be carefully read.

BY authority of the Secretary of a Board of Officers of the Corp Engineers, consisting of Colonel Thc L. Casey, Major Mason M. Patrick Captain Warren T. Hannum, wil semble at the U. S. Engineer Office Custom House, Baltimore, Md., at a. m., Tuesday, June 7th, 1910, fo purpose of holding a hearing upon t subject of establishment of regulations to govern the placing and operating of nets, pounds, traps and other fishing appliances in Chesapeake Bay and its tributary waters, with a view to reaching an adjustment which will be just and equitable to all interests. At this hearing representatives of navigation interests and the fishing industry will be heard; but it is desired that so far as possible, their views be submitted in writing.

NOTICE TO ROAD WORKERS.

By virtue of authority vested in me as Road Engineer for Kent county, under the recent local law passed by the General Assembly of Maryland for this county, all work on the public roads is ordered discontinued, as all bills for work must have my approval. No work can be done under the law except by order of the Engineer.

The appointment of Supervisors will be deferred until their need is evident. It will be our purpose to do only necessary work and to help keep the road expenses down to the bottom dollar.

We ask for the co-operation of the tax-payers and assure you that we shall do our utmost to give satisfaction.

You will confer a favor upon the undersigned by notifying him of the urgent need of repairs to washouts or damage to bridges, &c.
