NO RELATIVES AT DEATHBED

Dr. J. W. P. Bates Dies of Bright's Disease at Boarding House—A Native of Kent County.

Mrs. McCaleb Inserts Advertisement in the Sun—Body Sent to Rock Hall.

With no relatives near his bedside, Dr. J. W. P. Bates, for nearly 50 years a physician of Baltimore, died at 8 o'clock Friday morning of acute Bright's disease. So far as can be ascertained Dr. Bates leaves few mourners. It is said he has two cousins and an aunt, who are Miss Celelia Dumm, Mr. Bayly Bates and Mrs. Dumm, but none of these was within reach when Dr. Bates was taken suddenly ill.

Friday morning one of the servants at the home of Mrs. E. S. McCaleb, 855 Hamilton Terrace, where Dr. Bates boarded, went to the physician's room to awaken him for breakfast, but the servant failed to get an answer to her knock. She called Mrs. McCaleb and with the aid of one of the boarders the door was forced open. Dr. Bates was found in bed unconscious. Mrs. McCaleb summoned Dr. H. H. Keech, of 830 Hamilton Terrace, and later Dr. Howard Smith, of the staff of the Maryland General Hospital, was called in and it was decided that the sick man was suffering from acute Bright's disease.

ADVERTISED FOR HIS RELATIVES.

As Dr. Bates' condition grew worse and none of his friends or relatives put in an appearance, Mrs. McCaleb inserted a personal in The Sun stating that Dr. Bates was on his deathbed and requesting his friends or relatives to call. The patient never regained consciousness and grew constantly worse until his death this morning. None of his relatives was with him.

A few of his patients called at the house after reading the personal notice in The Sun and learned that he was dead.

Undertaker J. E. Evans took charge of the body and prepared it for burial. It was sent to Rock Hall, Kent county, Dr. Bates' old home, for burial.

SON OF A METHODIST MINISTER.

Dr. Bates was the son of Daniel Bates, a Methodist minister who for a long time was president of the Methodist Conference. He was born in Baltimore 74 years ago and received his primary education in that city, later being graduated at Jefferson College, Pittsburg, in 1862. Some years later he went to Mt. Holly, N. J., where he taught school. Some of his mother's relatives lived at that place, it was said, but that after her death he returned to Baltimore and began the practice of medicine on East Baltimore street, near Aisquith, where he was well known for many years.

Four years ago he moved his office to Mrs. McCaleb's home on Hamilton Terrace and has been there ever since. Mrs. McCaleb said that Dr. Bates had a large practice te which he attended assiduously. She said he was very seldom sick and seemed to be a man of great vitality.

RAPHAEL L. WEIGAND.

Raphel H. Weigand, youngest son of Rev. Joseph A. and Anna R. Weigand, died Sunday morning, July 3, at his home, 73 Emmett street, Newark, N. J., after an illness of six months. He was born twenty-two years ago in Milton, Del. He was a resident of Westminster, Md., until five years ago, when he moved with his parents to Newark and took a position with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Rev. J. A. Weigand, father of the deceased, is a minister of the Maryland M. P. Conference, having at one time been stationed at Kennedyville and Crumpton, Md. Mr. Weigand was well known in Kent and had made many friends here. Mrs. W. H. Minner, formerly of this county, is an aunt of the deceased.

Besides his parents one brother, Joseph H., and two sisters, Mrs. H. L. Fooks, and Miss Anna Weigand, survive him. Funeral services were held at his late home Wednesday evening and interment took place Thursday morning in Evergreen cemetery Rev. W. S. Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church, Newark, officiated. The bearers were Samuel S. Minner, W. Leslie Minner, Rupert Fooks, Gilbert Brown, Leroy Kirch and W. Hollaway.

MRS. ANNA B. SADTLER.

Mrs. Anna Bryant Sadtler, wife of Rev. John G. Sadtler, rector of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, Roland Park, died Sunday morning at 3 o'clock at the church rectory, 600 Roland avenue. She had been ill two years with tuberculosis.

Mrs. Sadtler was the daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Hill, who was for many years president of the Real Estate Exchange, and Mrs. Harriett L. Hill (nee Westcott). She was born in Baltimore and had lived there all her life. Having traveled extensively, Mrs. Sadtler was a master of foreign languages, speaking French, German and Italian fluently. She was a great lover of music and was a talented amateur artist. In church circles Mrs. Sadtler will be missed probably more than anywhere else. She was a member of the committee appointed by the Daughters of the King to visit the Church Home and Infirmary, Johns Hopkins Hospital and Bayview Asylum. She was also one of the officers of the National Society of Daughters of the Revolution.

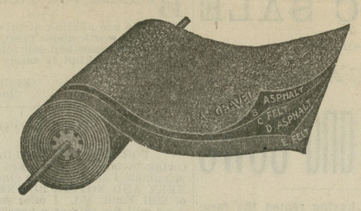

As. Mrs. Sadtler was baptized, confirmed and married in St. Peter's Protestant Epischpal Church, Druid Hill avenue and Lanvale street, it was her wish that she be buried from there. The funeral took place from that church Tuesday. Rev. John G. Murray, Bishop Coadjutor of Maryland, assisted by Rev. Charles Hensel, rector of the church of the Redeemer, had charge of the services. Burial in Druid Ridge cemetery.

JOHN WALTER BIGELOW.

Mr. John W. Bigelow died at his home near Rock Hall, Md., on Saturday afternoon, July 9, 1910, aged 69 years. He was well known and highly respected by all who knew him. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and the last time he was able to be out from home he attended the memorial service for the old veterans at Rock Hall Methodist Episcopal Church on May 29.

The funeral was held at his late home Monday, July 11th, at 1 P. M., Rev. V. P. Northrup, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, conducting the services. The remains were interred in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Three sons, James, Charles and Pierson Bigelow, and three sons-in-law, William Wheat, Bert Adkinson and Clifton Downey, were his pall-bearers.

Mr. Bigelow leaves a wife and seven children, Mrs. Mollie Wheat, James, Charles, Sarah and Pierson Bigelow, Mrs. Ethel Downey and Mrs. Elma Adkinson, and a sister, Mrs. William D. Weaver.

IN MEMORIAM.

To the memory of LOUIS C. HAYES, who departed this life six months ago, July 7th.

Farewell, dear husband, sweet thy rest,
Weary with years and worn with pain;
Farewell, till in some happy place
We shall behold thy face again.
'Tis ours to miss thee all our years.
And tender memories of thee keep,
Thine in the Lord to rest, for so
He giveth His beloved sleep.
Not now, but in the coming years,
It may be in the better land;
We'll read the meaning of our tears.
And then, some time, we'll understand.

WIFE.

We miss thee from our home, dear father,
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast.
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.
The vacant place, the empty chair.
We see them day by day;
And oh! it fills our hearts with care
Since father was taken away.

SON AND DAUGHTERS.

SHROPSHIRE.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear and loving wife and daughter, ISABELLE STARR SHROPSHIRE, who departed this life July 12th 1909.

Once our home was bright and happy.
Oh, how sad and drear to-day;
For our loving wife and daughter
Has forever passed away.
As we sit to-day so lonely,
Our poor hearts are filled with pain,
But her spirit softly whispers
Courage, my dear loved ones, we'll meet again.
In memory we oftimes see
The one we loved so dear;
The vision grows so clear sometimes
We feel she must be near.
Gone in the best of her days,
Blighted in the bloom of youth;
Torn from the hearts that loved her.
To sleep in the silent tomb.
Hold her, O Father, in thine arms,
And let her henceforth be
A messenger of love between
Our human hearts and Thee.
Oh, for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still.

Sadly missed by her Husband, Parents and Daughter.
