SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 1910.

WHEAT was quoted at $1.04 yesterday.

HON. J. HARRY COVINGTON will speak at Betterton next Friday. All the Eastern Shore are invited to come hear him.

DR. C. W. G. ROHRER, on "Ventilation of School Rooms," will speak at the Teachers Institute in September.

THE People's Bank seems to be passing through a severe storm as it emerges into the financial sea. Capt. Rasin and Dr. Simmons will no doubt prove capable pilots.

THE Evening Press is the name of Frederick's new paper. It cannot help but succeed with that versatile writer, Paul Winchester, at the helm. Success to you, Bro. Paul.

THE schools are adding a course in domestic science. If they want to be abreast of the times they will also teach the science of buttoning dresses. A school in Chicago has been opened to husbands for this purpose.

THE Republican party is split wide open. Roosevelt vs. Taft is the issue. In the East Taft is having his way, while in the West Roosevelt and the Progressives are in the lead. A Democratic House will be the result.

IT is said that Johnson, the colored champion pugilist, has almost closed negotiations for a handsome residence in one of the most exclusive and aristocratic sections of Brooklyn. Moving pictures of the expressions of the social elect who will be his neighbors would be even more interesting than the fight ones.

ON the 9th and 10to pages of the NEWS will be found the annual Levy list for Kent county prepared in the usual excellent form by Clerk Samuel Hicks and so arranged that every taxpayer may know for himself what money has been expended, where it was used and who received it. Here are the figures which cannot lie, but it is often remarked that liars will figure, therefore be careful.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad Engineers went to Centreville last Thursday and surveyed a proposed route to connect the Pennsylvania line with the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia. They offer to make the improvement provided the cost does not exceed $35,000. This will mean a great deal to Centreville and Queen Anne's. The Public Service Commission is proving its utility daily.

CHESTERTOWN'S commissioners are deserving of commendation for their determination to put a sewer on Kent street. There is nothing which is more conducive to good health than proper drainage and disposal of sewerage., and this very pretty part of the town is deserving of attention.

A NUMBER of cases of typhoid fever have developed in Cambridge and Dorchester county in the past few weeks. The disease does not seem to be confined to any age, as there are as many children suffering from it as there are grown people. Chestertown extends sympathy as it passed through a siege last year. The town, however, was never more healthy than today.

THE time for entering the Congressional primary contest having expired on Saturday and there being but one Democratic candidate in this District, Congressman J. Harry Covington, and Republican managers after a long search having succeeded in finding a candidate in the person of A. Lincoln Dryden, of Somerset county, it will not be necessary to hold the primary on the Eastern Shore, as the law provides that in case of only one candidate for nomination that party need hold no primary. Mr. Covington and Mr. Dryden will merely file their certificates in order to have their names placed upon the official ballot.

THE astounding statement is made by Dr. J. H. Mason Knox, in charge of the Thomas Wilson Sanitarium for Children, at Mount Wilson, Md., that one-third of the babies who come under his care suffer from the evil results of soothing syrups by reason of the large proportion of Morphia contained in them. Dr. Knox, is a recognized authority on children's diseases, having devoted his attention almost exclusively to this branch of medicine.

Rev. William H. Vickers, of Cambridge, Md., is conducting a revival meeting in a large tent at Golt's, Md. Services every evening at 7.45 o'clock. Services on Sunday as follows; 10.30 a. m., and 2.30 and 7.45 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend, help and be helped.

MISS BESSIE HARDESTY is grieving for the loss of her fine head of hair which she lost Friday in an unusual and thrilling manner. Miss Hardesty luxuriant's dark tresses were the envy of all the young people of the Mills District, near Laurel. A bat got into Miss Hardesty's room a few days ago. Miss Bessie, with the aid of a broom, tried to drive the intruder out, but it lodged in her hair. All efforts to dislodge it were fruitless and scissors were used.

As Marylanders are much interested in the development of the waterways of the State, Governor Crothers is anxious that the State be largely represented at the convention of the Atlantic Deeper Waterway' Association, which will be held at Providence from Aug. 31 to September 3. A large number of business men's associations have already appointed delegates ta attend the convention, and the Governor has announced the following delegates on behalf of the State—from Kent Hon. Wm. M. Slay, James F. M. Woodall, John D. Urie, H. W. Vickers, Esqs., and Capt. Curtis E. Crane.

An innovation in the way of fallow-flushing was seen on the farm of Mr. Aron C. Reber in Tuckahoe Neck Monday afternoon. The novelty was 6 flushing plows drawn by a 20-horse power engine, each plow turning sod 14 inches in width, the entire number drawn by the steam power being capable of turning 20 acres per day. The work was well done and the new system of plowing, aside from its labor saving value, (only 3 men being required to operate it as against 6 men under the old plan) it is greatly in advance of the old plan in the matter of speed, twenty acres being plowed by it in the same time required for twelve acres under the old plan, a plow drawn by horses averaging only about 2 acres. The system of plowing put into operation by Mr. Reber on Monday has been in use in the West for several years. Mr. Reber purchased his outfit at Columbus, Ohio, and it is stated that it cost $3,000.

Merrit Spry and D. S. Davis had sales this week ; it is said that the sales were well attended and the prices fairly good.

Mr. D. S. Davis was not well enough to attend to the sale of his stock and implements on Tuesday. He has the sympathy of the whole community.

Mrs. Brinsfield has given the Ladies of the Home Mission Society the privilege to serve dinner at the sale on the 25th. These dinners are enjoyed by the hungry men attending the sales. In fact they are a real picnic.

Mr. Harry Hamilton and son, of Georgetown, are putting the interior of the parsonage in good form. Mr. Harry is keeping good hours and finds no use for a ladder.

Rev. E. V. Regester Presiding Elder of Baltimore District will preach in Emmanuel at 10.30 a. m. and in Trinity, Millington, at 3.

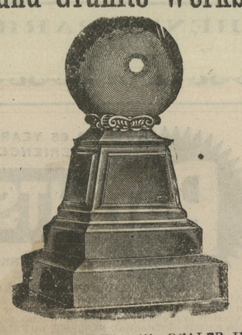

Rev. C. D. Bulla, who has been spending some of the summer for several years with Mr. and Mrs. S. Ford, also his family, has been appointed by his church to take charge of the Wesley Class movement. His office will be in Nashville, Tenn. He is expected to go about the last of August. We regret to lose him from the work in this Conference.

A monument is being put up at the grave of Capt. Brinsfield.

Chesterville Sunday School will hold its annual picnic on the church lawn Tuesday the 30th p. m. and evening. We hope all our scholars will be present.
