The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

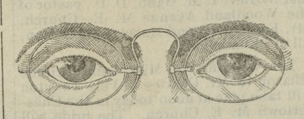

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Eighty per cent. are due to Eye Strain. It may be glasses, not medicine, that you need. Relief will be obtained by a properly fitted pair of glasses.

Helpful Hints For Keeping Up-to-Date —Elegant Novelties That Suggest Clever Economies—Some Small Accessories—New Models.

BUY ESSENTIALS.

One of the first things is to buy only a few essential things and those of standard cut and quality, and to make one's running in a sartorial way, by being well up-to-date in one's small accessories. Better one good street dress with just the right hat, boots, neckwear, etc., than three different costumes where the small fixings don't correspond or are shabby.

THE COAT DRESS.

The new plain walking frock, preferably of velvet or corduroy or of cloth with velvet trimmings is not too difficult for skilled home manufacture, with the aid of good patterns. This answers without any wrap other than furs if one posses them, until really cold weather sets in when a long coat is desirable, a fur coat if one can have it, or one of cloth with a fur collar and cuffs.

A HANDSOME LONG COAT.

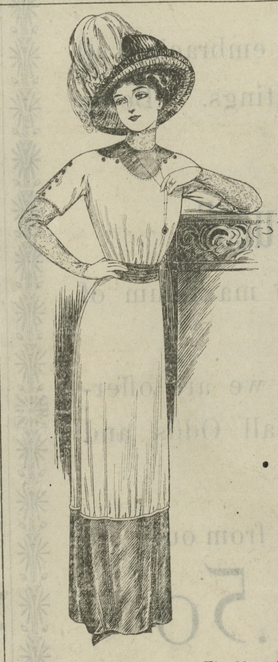

A handsome long coat of the sort that goes anywhere is a necessary part of any well dressed woman's outfit, and it is a surprisingly economical investment if well selected since it makes possible the wearing of many light dresses concealed beneath its comfortable and pretty envelopment.

THE NEW MODELS.

Furriers have made such wonderful strides in the preparation of the various pelts that they can turn out any model in flexible fur that could be made in cloth, and many of the medium grade furs make garments that are very stylish in appearance and far more durable than the softer and more perishable skins. Some of the new "Young models" shown by C. C. Shayne, made up for girlish wearers are exceedingly pretty and so youthful in effect that no doubt many slender women past girlhood will prefer these novel creations to the older types.

CIVET CAT AND LEOPARD.

Two coats of this sort seen the other day were built one of Civet Cat, the other of natural Leopard skin. The Civet is an excellent wearing dark brown fur, rather longhaired, with very striking cream colored, or light yellow markings. The Leopard's tawny coloring and darker markings everyone is familiar with in pictures or at the "Zoo" but for a coat it is a novelty that not everyone would like, though it is very stylish and durable. Contrasting fur collars are the rule this season and freshen up a worn coat in an up-to-date way, beside being very becoming. A coat of satiny broadtail slipped off in the Waldorf tea room, had a collar in sailor shape that formed long revers in front, made of sealskin edged with ermine. A muff of tailless ermine overlaid with loose bands of seal was carried with this and recognized as a model shown at the furriers a few days before.

SMALL FURS.

Most women like a long fur coat, but everyone desires to own one or more pretty sets of muff and neckpiece, for clever dressers know how these set off even the simplest costume. The substantial medium priced sets this season include mink, opposum, fox—the natural red skin undyed, and skunk, which no longer masquerades as "Alaska Sable". There are, of course innumerable others including Silver Fox and Russian Sable, each skin worth many times its weight in gold, and suited only for the most elegant wear.

THE GOVERNOR LOSES.

That the Governor has no right to suspend the Police Board of Baltimore, was the opinion of Chief Judge Harlan, of the Supreme Court last Thursday.

Judge Harlan handed down a long opinion and said he recognized the strength of the argument advanced by the Governor's counsel, and that he had examined all the authorities cited, but that he felt compelled to adhere to the law as he interpreted it.

He also said he was not aware of any instance where any Governor of Maryland, since the Constitution of 1851 was adopted, had claimed the power to suspend, nor of any contemporaneous construction justifying it, and that in view of the law there was nothing to indicate that the power was intended.
