GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The Intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

Local Notes.

Accident.—Mrs. Alice W. McFeely fell from the porch of Mr. John N. Dodd's home on High street Thursday evening and broke bones in her right arm. She was coming from the house, accompanied by her daughter and Mr. Newell Graham, when she made a miss-step and fell to the pavement. Dr. H. G. Simpers set the broken bones and Mrs. McF. is doing fairly well.

False Report.—Mr. Albert S. Turner, the grain buyer of Worton, was in town Tuesday and very indignant at the false report that he had failed. He said he did not owe a man in Kent one penny, although the drop in grain had depleted his account several thousand dollars, and was prepared to buy corn and pay the cash for same.

Resigned.—Mr. Wm. M. Culp, who for many years has been the faithful and efficient agent and telegraph operator at Chestertown, has resigned, said resignation to take effect as soon as his successor is named. Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., is the deputy and has strong endorsement for promotion. He would make a worthy successor to Mr. Culp. The latter will devote his whole attention to his firm of Lofland & Culp, hardware.

Will Build Home.—Mr. Owen C. Smith, a prominent druggist of Baltimore, and ex-president of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association, will build a home on Chester river, near Chestertown. On Saturday he purchased two acres from Mr. Rumsey Anthony and three acres from Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., being a portion of the Anthony track in Queen Anne's, on Chester river, near Chestertown. The deals for the land were made through the real estate firm of Russell & Dunbracco, of Chestertown.

Property Sales.—J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold to Mrs. T. D. Bowers the Chester Bamberger house, on Mill street extended. The price is said to be about $1200.

Mr. Russell has also sold a part of the Janvier farm, belonging to the Kent Land Co., to Mr. Myers.

L. B. Russell & Co., real estate brokers, last Saturday sold to Mr. Owen C. Smith, of Baltimore, a five-acre lot of the Anthony tract, in Queen Anne's county, on the river. Three acres of the lot had previously been sold by the same firm to Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, and was resold at an advance of $200.

Mrs. Frank M. Miller has purchased of the Kent Land Co. the Warfield place on Morgan river adjoining Mr. R. N. Boston's place, near Chestertown.

Building Notes.—Messrs. Davis & Satterfield are preparing to build on their lot near the depot a large two-story brick store, shop and mill building. The main structure will be 50x74, with an addition 36x24. Messrs. W. S. & A. M. Culp will do the work.

W. L. Fowler's new brick building is progressing rapidly. The brick work was finished on Thursday.

J. H. Sides' new store is up to the second story.

Mr. Ralph Barnett's new home on Kent Circle is nearly under roof.

Owen C. Smith, who has purchased a lot of land on the river, across from Chestertown, will erect a house there, where he contemplates removing.

The Foster home "across the river" is progressing finely and will be a magnificent place. A new road has been built, under Capt. Hyland's direction, which saves several miles.

Mr. M. A. Toulson has plans for rebuilding on his High street lot made by architect Leach and will award same on bids as early as practical.

Beck & Ivens have sold a lot 50x160 ft. off the S. M. Usilton tract immediately in front of T. B. Elliotts' to Chestertown parties who will erect two dwellings. The same firm have also sold the Wm. Barnes farm at Fairlee to a Mr. Paca, of Baltimore. Mr. Paca will occupy the property Jan. 1, 1911.

E. H. Beck, Real Estate Broker, has sold the farm belonging to Charles K. Lynch, in the 4th election district, Cecil county, containing 86 acres, to Turner Bros., of Betterton, for $6,000.

Dissolved.—The partnership heretofore existing between J. B. McIntyre and Harry Hodgkins has been dissolved and the former will continue in business. Mr. Hodgkins has secured employment in a large wholesale candy store in Wilmington. We are sorry to lose "Mandy" from our midst. He is a correct young man and worthy of success.

Local Notes.

Announcement.—Mrs. James L. Beck announces the engagement of her daughter, Alverta Tylden, to Mr. Albert Earle Nicholson. The wedding will take place on December 7th in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cochran, of Galena, announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Lute, to Mr. Ralph Thomas Vandyke, of Locust Grove, Md.

GREAT GAME PROMISED

The game next Thursday in Baltimore between Washington College and Hopkins University promises to be a big affair. Gov. Crothers, Mayor Mahool and other officials of State have promised to be present.

The B. S. Ford will make a special trip, leaving Chestertown 7 a. m., Thursday, arriving in Baltimore at 11 a. m.; returning, will leave Baltimore at 11.30 p. m., giving a full day in the city. The fare will be $1 50 round trip, including admission to the game.

If we study the strength of the football teams by certain scores made during the past season, it will be seen that the Washington College team is superior to the famous Princeton eleven.

Annapolis and Princeton each defeated the Indians by a 6 to 0 score, thus showing the two victorious teams to be about equally matched. Rutgers and Annapolis played each other to a standstill, with the score 0 to 0, showing equality between these two teams. Now, Washington College defeats Rutgers by a score of 6 to 5, which would very clearly indicate its superiority over Princeton, Annapolis and Rutgers.

Mike Thompson, of Washington College, will umpire the Army-Navy game in Philadelphia next Saturday. Quite a deserving honor.

Show at Galena.—The White Rose Minstrels will show at Galena next Wednesday evening. New songs, new jokes, monologues, sketches, etc. Everything new, up-to-date, refined. They will also show at Rock Hall next Saturday, Nov. 26th, at Coburn's moving picture parlor. A good evening's fun is promised to all who go.

Mock Trial.—The Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. are to have a mock trial next Tuesday night at their camp room in Fraternal Hall. J. Frank Wheatley is to be tried for larceny of horse and carriage from John C. Davis. J. Bruce McIntire judge, Frank Elburn clerk of court, Samuel E. Cooper sheriff, L. J. Smyth, state's attorney, H. B. Coleman assistant state's attorney, defendant's counsel, Abram S. Crawford and Walter T. Bennett. A large attendance of members is desired and members of other Camps will be made welcome.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON, the Giant star pitcher, has signed a three-year contract at $10,000 a year, the largest sum ever paid to a pitcher. Its the men at the top who command the big salaries.

AMONG the patrons of the Chestertown Steam Laundry is one man from the fifth district who sent forty collars to wash while another first district man sent an equal amount!

THE total registered vote in Kent county is 4521 and the vote cast was 3661, leaving 560 voters who failed to cast his ballots. There were not over 160 ballots spoiled of which one half were Democrats.
