THE Baltimore Sun is receiving much encouragement in its effort to get the Democratic leaders of the Union to hold a conference in Baltimore so as to shape the policy of the party on the tariff.

ON another page will be found the report of the Auditors for Kent County. Messrs. E. Thomas Massey, Henry T. Brown and E. W. Hepbron were the auditors and have published a concise and interesting statement of the finances of the county.

THURSDAY has been set apart as Thanksgiving Day. There is no nation, no State, no county, no town, which has more cause for Thanksgiving than the people in good old Kent. Let all the people give thanks and do not confine it to ONE DAY. Let every day be a thanks living day.

ROOSEVELT has broken his silence. He says that this is but the beginning of his fight! Pretty good start for the Democrats. If he is up against the ropes now he will be knocked clear over in 1912. Roosevelt is a second Bryan only more radical and more inimical to the business interests of the country.

EMERSON C. HARRINGTON was named Wednesday by the Board of Public Works as State Insurance Commissioner to succeed the late Benjamin F. Crouse. He will qualify at once. It was announced by Governor Crothers that the selection of Mr. Harrington was unanimous, all the members of the board, which includes Governor Crothers, State Comptroller Clagett and State Treasurer Vandiver, having voted for him.

Following the announcement of the appointment of Mr. Harrington, the board also announced that Prof. James E. Green, who for several years has been Deputy Insurance Commissioner and who was also a candidate to succeed Mr. Crouse, will be retained in his present position.

TO PAY $10,000,000 DIVIDEND

Sears, Roebuck & Co. Directors Recommended 33 1-3 Per Cent.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—A $10,000,000 "melon" was decided upon today by the directors of Sears, Roebuck & Company, the stock of which is listed on the New York and Chicago exchanges.

The directors voted to recommend a stock dividend of 33 1-3 per cent, on the common stock ($30,000,000) to holders of record April 1, 1911. Ratification of this dividend by the stockholders at their annual meeting February 27, 1911, is regarded as a mere formality, the majority of the stock having been represented at the diretors' meeting.

Did anyone in Kent county get a part of this "melon"? Did any church, Lodge, poor fund, corporation or township get one cent from this enormous dividend? How much did you contribute toward it?

Court Cases.—Justice Crawford has had a busy week. Last Saturday he was occupied in hearing several cases from Melitota in which he fined each guilty party $10 and costs for disturbing the peace.

Dan Griffith and Martie Reed, the two colored boys, aged about 11 years, mentioned in the NEWS last week, charged with the murder of Fred. L. Cottman, were given a hearing Tuesday before Justice Abram Crawford. As a result of the hearing both boys were held for action of the Grand Jury without bail. The boys were first arrested on Thursday and the evidence at the coroner's investigation tended to show that the killing was accidental and the boys were released. The testimony given at that time was to the effect that the three boys went out gunning on Wednesday afternoon in Mr. Robert Joiner's woods, near Melitota. After they had gone some distance the three sat down to rest, when one of them, Griffith, picked up a gun and playfully pointed it at Cottman accidentally pulling the trigger, discharging the gun and killing Cottman instantly.

After the exoneration of the boys by the coroner's jury, however, they were overheard to remark that "they had gone after Cottman, and had got him;" other evidence developed which indicated guilty premeditation and the boys were re-arrested and after a hearing as above stated, were held for next April court.

An interesting case was heard at Centreville this week it being removed from Kent. Mr. Jesse H. Usilton sued Mr. Perry Price for rent of land covered by Price's mill pond. The Court granted the prayer of Mr. Usilton which virtually gave him the case but ruled against the notice served and his attorneys, Messrs. Parks and Wickes, took a non pros. Messrs. Barroll and Keating represented Mr. Price. An offer of compromise has been made and it is likely the case will be settled out of court.

THE festival held by Miss Mary A. Brown at her school last Friday night was well attended and proved a success. Auctioneer Thomas S. Toulson received nice prices for the cakes which were left over and other articles as well.

WEDDING EVENTS.

DRAYTON—ELIASON.

The Chestertown Methodist Episcopal Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at noon Saturday. The church was darkened and lighted by electricity the electric plant having been started especially for this occasion. Chains of evergreen adorned the church while the pulpit was transformed into a scene of rare loveliness. Potted ferns and palms were banked in artistic manner while rows of lighted candles flickered from among the green and here and there a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums gave an added glow.

The bride was Miss Irma Briscoe Eliason, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason, while the groom was Charles DeVere Drayton, a promising young lawyer of Washington, D. C. The bride wore a handsome Empire gown, with court train of chiffon satin, trimmed with rose point and embroidered with pearls and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley. She was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr.

The bridesmaids were Miss Kate Weaver, of Philadelphia, and Miss Rebecca Brown Eliason, daughter of Mr. Wilbur Eliason, of Kent. They made a handsome couple gowned in white messoline with chiffon tunic edged with gold lace, black velvet Gainsborough hats and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. The ushers were Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr., Chestertown; Dr. E. L. Eliason, of Philadelphia, Mr. Hudson Salley, of Newport News, Va, and Mr. Robert Hudson, of Washington, D. C. The groom was attended by Mr. Ashby Wallace, of Wayne, Pa. The gentlemen were attired in the conventional frock suits. Miss Mabel Toulson presided at the organ and rendered sweet music both during and before the ceremony. A feature of the event was a baritone solo "Perfect Love" by Mr. Wallace. This was sung just before the approach of the bride to the altar. Dr. Louis E. Barrett performed the ceremony in the presence of the invited guests.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was tendered by the bride's parents, and was attended by the immediate families of the bride and groom and the following: Mrs. Wallace, of Wayne, Pa., Mrs. Robert Howard, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs Franklin Bodine, Germantown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Hiller, and Miss Hiller, of Washington, D. C.; Judge Thomas Ireland Elliott and wife, of Baltimore; Mr. Blair, of Baltimore; Dr. Roy Adams, of Philadelphia, and a number of the bride's intimate friends from Chestertown.

The beautiful presents included 185 pieces of silver besides cut glass, etc. The present of the father to the bride is said to have been a check of five figures.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold wafer watch; while the groom's gift to the bride was an amethyst and pearl brooch. Striking among the presents was a complete silver set of beautiful simplicity, presented by the bride's parents. The gifts of the groom's family consisted of handsome furnishings for the Washington apartments.

The bride and groom took a private Pullman for an extended tour of the West, and upon their return will reside at the Apartment Mendota, Washington, D. C.

GALENA NOTES

The Ladies of St. Dennis Church gave a supper in the I. O. O. F. hall on the evening of the 14th and 15th inst. They had a large attendance each night. The supper was for the benefit of the church and was a great suscess, financially and otherwise. Report says they cleared something over $200.

Not much moving of tenants expected in Galena this winter. It is reported that Mr. Weidler, of New York, has purchased the Sutton property and expects to put up a bakery on the property—something needed very much here.

The Democrats here are very much elated over the great Democratic victory all over the country and the Republicans are correspondingly depressed at the result.

The farmers report a fair crop of corn and some expect to get through husking next week.

The Roman Catholics are talking of building a new church, as the one they worship in now is too small. They have a large congregation, and Father Daily, their priest, is very much liked by the people of all denominations.

Bishop Adams, of the Easton Diocese, held service in St. Andrews on 3rd inst.

Bishop Monoghan, of the Diocese of Wilmington, held service in St. Dennis Roman Catholic Church last Sunday evening, 13th inst. and had quite a large congregation.

The White Rose Minstrels will give a high-class entertainment in Galena on Wednesday evening, November 23rd, in the town hall.

The Sacred Concert given in Olivet M. E. Church Wednesday evening was well attended and proved a great success. The programme included instrumental music by Prof. Robert Godwin, violin and cello; Nicholas V. Walters, cornet; Miss Gertrude Dempsey, organ; vocal music by Mrs. G. Ernest Hicks, Misses Francis Scott, Edith Cauldwell, Gertrude and Carrie Dempsey, Annie Hayes and Pearle Ford, soprano; Miss Bessie W. Gunkel and Mrs. J. Schofield, contralto; Mrs. R. H. Lewis and Mrs I. L. Dempsey, alto; Dr. Lewis Atwell, Rev. O. H. Connelly, Prof. F. E. Maddox, Mr. Jas. Mulford, Mr. Herbert Cauldwell, tenors: Messrs. Howard Rasin, William Fogwell, I. L. Dempsey, bass.

BETTERTON NEWS.

Mrs. James T. Crew is visiting Mrs. Robert C. Young in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Brice attended the aviation meet at Halethorpe last week.

Mrs. Wm. A. Crew visited friends in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Howard Owens entertained the Ladies Embroidery Club on Thursday.

Rev. Mr. Stone, former Presbyterian pastor at Kennedyville, has purchased the cottage on Bayside, adjoining the Maryland.

Mr. Floyd Crownhart's cottage is being erected by a force of carpenters.

Mr. James T. Crew has torn down the casino which stood directly in front of his hotel. This makes a big improvement. Mr. Crew is making an addition to his hotel.

Messrs Crew and Newsome expect to have built an automobile garage in connection with their livery stable.

Mrs. Alfred Greenwood expects to occupy the home vacated by Mr. Harry Crew.

THE Pomona Grange will meet at Still Pond on December 8th.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

WILLIAM D. MASLIN

Mr. William D. Maslin, son of Mrs. J. Carville Maslin, died at the Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, at 2 p. m., Thursday, after an operation for stone in the kidney. He had been a great sufferer for months and finally agreed to go to the city for treatment. An X-ray examination discovered the need of an operation, and last Saturday after a successful operation several large stones were removed. On Tuesday symptons of intestinal obstruction developed which baffled the utmost skill of some of the most experienced and noted surgeons of Baltimore. Everything possible was done for his relief, but it was all to no avail. He died as stated surrounded by his mother, three sisters and other near friends. The deceased has been with the Prudential Insurance Company, in Chestertown, for 5 years, under Messrs. Frank Simpers and George French, in which position he was a success. His success is easily accounted for when we recall his energy and business tact which was accompanied by a genial smile and a warmth of feeling for everyone. He carried sunshine wherever he went—in the home, in business, in society. While in Chestertown he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., where his welcome and sympathetic absence will be long felt. To know him was to feel an interest in him and to be in his presence was joy. He was from a boy not strong, but seldom complained and bore his pain with Christian grace. He lavished upon his adoring mother and affectionate sisters all the love that was possible for man to give and felt that he could never do too much for them. He was in his 30th year with a promising outlook in life, but "He who doeth all things well" called him hence. He leaves a mother, Mrs. J. Carville Maslin, and the following sisters: Mrs. William S. Gardner, of Baltimore; Mrs. W. E. Loud, Mrs. E. J. Watson, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., and Miss Virginia Maslin, of Kent.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2.30 p. m., from the home of his sister, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., on Front street, interment in Chester Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker. The bearers will be Messrs. Frank Simpers, Harry Nicholson, George French, Hydie Thompson, David Ford and Jefferson Ferguson.

HENRY H. HESSEY

Henry H. Hessey, a former resident of Earleville, but late of Philadelphia, died in that city, aged about 67 years. He is survived by his widow, who was before marriage Miss Sallie Lynch, and by one son and three daughters.

A GREAT GAME.

The event in sportihg circles as noted by "Goal" in the Baltimore Evening News, is as follows:

"It is pleasing to note that final arrangements have been made for a Thanksgiving Day contest between Johns Hopkins and Washington College. This will give local football lovers a chance of judging for themselves just what sort of a team "Mike" Thompson has succeeded in turning out on the Eastern Shore. There is no doubt that the Chestertown institution has an excellent eleven this year, as it has made an enviable record on the gridiron. I had the pleasure of accompanying the team as far as Tolchester, a few weeks ago, when it was on its way back home from the George Washington battle, and at the time I was very much surprised with the husky looking youngsters composing the eleven. While I have not seen this year's eleven work out, still a long talk on football with Dr. James W. Cain, president of the institution, who was for many years at the head of the coaching staff at St. John's, elicited much favorable comment as to the strength of the team. I have been given to understand that Quarterback Meegan of Washington is one of the most expert handlers of the forward pass in the country, and that he passes the ball so accurately that he can place it at will.

"In the game against Rutgers last Saturday, which will go down in football annals at the Eastern Shore institution as one of the most notable victories ever won by Washington, Meegan fully lived up to the reputation which had been given him and reeled off some passses for his team that were marvels in point of execution. Washington's rush line played a great game against the Rutgers combination, and showed a more finished defense than was put up against the Maryland "Aggies." "Johnny" Hopkins has every reason to fear a team that can down such an aggregation as Rutgers, which was a trick that the strong Navy team failed to turn, and the Thanksgiving Day contest should be a hummer. Washington's offensive play against Rutgers was versatile at all times, and good judgment was shown in calling for the right plays at the right time. Whether Washington will be able to make much headway against Hopkins by using the forward pass remains to be seen, but the only team this season that has been able completely to block Meegan's passes was Georgetown, "Mike" Thompson's alma mater."

IN MEMORIAM.

GLENN—In sad but loving remembrance of my husband, James H. Glenn, who departed this life November 14th, 1907, 3 years ago to-day.

Just three years ago we laid him to rest,
And folded his cold hands upon his breast,
In silence he suffered, in patience he bore,
Until God called him home to suffer no more.

BY HIS WIFE.

We don't know how, we don't know where,
blessed Lord, but somewhere in that great beyond we shall meet again.

Time flies, but never will it bring
The dearer one to whom we cling,
How often, standing near thy tomb,
We sigh for thee in deepest gloom;
Thy face our minds will ever see,
Forgotten thou shalt never be.

BY HIS CHILDREN.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear aunt, FRANCIS A. ORR, who departed this life October 20, 1910.

When you ask me do I miss her,
Yes, it fills my heart with pain,
But her spirit softly whispers,
"Courage, we shall meet again."

O'er the river of death she traveled,
Won a crown from Him above;
Now she's living with our Saviour,
Folded in those arms of love.

TURKEYS WANTED FOR THANKSGIVING AND FOR CHRISTMAS

We advertised in your County last year and numbers of people shipped us their Turkeys and were well pleased. We hope all these who did this have a nice shipment or two for us this season, and that those who didn't try us last year will do so this season. Our house has been established thirty years, and absolutely reliable. Our motto is, "Fancy goods, fancy prices and a square deal." It will pay everyone who has a half dozen or more nice Turkeys to get our dressing and shipping instructions and kill and ship to us. We have a very heavy patronage from producers as well as dealers throughout Virginia and West Virginia and many other States, and they continue to ship us year after year. If they were not making money by it they would not do this. If it's money to them why not to all. We handle only fancy goods and supply the fancy buyers of Philadelphia and nearby cities who want the best and are willing to pay a high price to get it. If you have nice, fat poultry, it will certainly pay you to ship to a house that has always made a specialty of that class of goods. From present outlook the market is going to be high on all kinds of Poultry and most specially Turkeys. We must have thousands to supply our trade. Send us your name at once, and we will keep you posted on prices, and tell you what days to ship. We give all shipments our personal attention and obtain the very top market prices, give full weights, send prompt returns and a good check. You are absolutely sure of your money if you ship to us. We handle all kinds of Produce and always place it for its full value. Eggs are selling high, and we want more than we are getting. Ship freely and we will please you. Let us have your name AT ONCE.

Yours for business,
FRANK HELLERICK & CO.,

Next Door To Postoffice

Closing Out!

The building I now occupy has been sold and my lease expires in a few weeks and I will have to move. I am compelled to reduce my stock several thousand dollars AT ONCE, and the only way to do this is to CUT PRICES to an unheard of figure, and beginning to day we will give you bargains, such as you probably never will have the opportunity of securing again.

COME QUICK and Get the Pick of This BIG STOCK!

We have just received hundreds of dollars worth of NEW FALL GOODS in Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass and Clocks, and all go in this THIS GREAT CUT PRICE SALE.
