FAIRFIELD'S FEED BLOOD TONICS POWDERED

A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

WEDDING EVENTS.

LINTHICUM—PERKINS.

Miss Mary Matilda Perkins youngest daughter of Mrs. Cornelia K. Perkins and the late James Alfred Perkins of Chestertown was married on Nov. 22nd to Mr. Seth Hance Linthicum a prominent member of the Baltimore bar and a brother of Congressman elect J. Chas. Linthicum. The wedding was performed at the home of the bride's mother 230 N. Carey St. by the Rev. L. Morgan Chambers pastor of Bethany M. E. Church assisted by Rev. Alvin Thomas Perkins, brother of the bride. Only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present at the wedding owing to the recent death of Mr. Linthicum's mother. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left Baltimore for New York, whence they will sail for the Bermudas for a two-week stay. Upon their return they will reside at the "Homestead" Linthicum Heights which has been recently remodeled for their reception. For nearly 100 years this home has been the old colonial mansion of the Linthicum family. Mr. and Mrs. Linthicum will be at home to their friends and acquaintances after Dec. 15th.

FINLEY—BAUGHMAN.

Dr. Joseph Lane Finley, formerly of Kent county, and Mrs. Emma R. Baughman, of Baltimore, were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Harriett Musselman, 1113 Harlem ave., a friend of the bride, by Rev. E. C. Makosky. The couple went to the Hotel Belvedere, and they will leave soon for the Finley farm in Queen Anne's, where they will make their home. Mrs. Baughman is the widow of J. C. H. Baughman, statistical clerk of the Baltimore Custom House for more than 15 years.

GILL—WESTCOTT.

An early morning wedding (8 o'clock) took place in Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Wednesday, the interested parties being Miss Elizabeth Rebecca Westcott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Westcott, and Mr. Wm. Harrison Gill, of Washington, D. C. The bride was tastily attired in a receden green broadcloth suit with hat to match and carried white prayer book and wore a corsaze bouquet of violets.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. B. Martin, rector of the church. The bride was given away by her father. The groom was attended by his father as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Simon Westcott, of Baltimore, and Wilbur Gill, brother of the groom, of Washington.

A reception was held Tuesday evening and parties were held in the bride's honor by Misses Ethel Bacchus, Dovie Connelly and others.

"AN END TO RUMORS."

MELVIN—NOWLAND.—Milton Melvin, 62, Chestertown; Mary E. Nowland, 49, Chesterville. Applicant, David B. Stewart, 2210 North Charles street.

The above announcement of a marriage license was published in the Baltimore papers Thursday.

Prof. Milton Melvin, secretary and treasurer of the Kent County School Board, and a well-known bachelor teacher and farmer, has at last succumbed to the darts of Cupid, as represented in the person of Miss Mary E. Noland, an attractive and highly polished former teacher. They were married Wednesday at 1411 N. Caroline street, Baltimore, the home of Captain Coleman, a cousin of the bride, by Rev. J. Earle Maloy, a life-long friend of the groom. The bride was neatly attired, in a plum-colored traveling suit with hat to match. Those present included Capt. Coleman's family, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Stewart and Miss Anna Melvin. After the ceremony they left for Philadelphia and will return here Monday and take up their home on Mr. Melvin's country home, near town.

We extend to this popular couple heartiest congratulations.

UNFAIR, SAY OYSTER MEN.

Maryland Bivalves Confused With Those From North.

The oyster industry of this section and of the Eastern Shore has received a setback in the Middle West because of an injustice, which can only be remedied by enforcement of the National Pure Food laws.

It is reported that some of the oysters sent out from New York and Connecticut are taken from waters polluted by sewers, and that these are being held responsible for epidemics of typhoid fever in several cities. These oysters are being confused with the product caught in the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Packers of oysters in Baltimore have felt the setback to some extent, and are indignant that their oysters should be confused with any other product. Mr. William Heyser, Grant and Pratt streets, a large shipper, says the oysters of the Chesapeake Bay are free from any contamination because they are fed in pure waters. They have been pronounced wholesome by the health authorities of this State and Virginia, as well as by the Agricultural Department in Washington. —Sun.

Early Fire.—The home of Mr. Jacob Allen, an employe of Davis & Satterfield, located on High street adjoining the homes of J. P. DeCorse and John Barnes, took fire about six o'clock yesterday morning. By excellent work of the Volunteer Fire Company and others the fire was soon gotten under control. The roof was very wet as was the surrounding houses which aided in keeping down the fire. Mr. Allen and wife removed their stove into a middle room Thursday and had eaten breakfast when Mr. Allen had occasion to go in the yard. In looking up at the house he saw smoke coming out of the roof from around the chimney. The alarm was sounded and in a few minutes a big crowd had gathered and the fire was soon extinguished. If the pressure had been sufficient at the discovery of the fire the loss would have been very small. The house was insured C. N. Satterfield's agency for $700 and furniture $500, which will cover the loss.

THE Tolchester Company will make their usual holiday excursions on Saturdays during December as will be seen by special advertisement in another column.

LOCAL buyers have been paying 47 and 49 cents per bushel for corn this week.
