State of Maryland—Treasury Department

$250,000

Series "A" 4 Per Cent. Public Highways Loan of 1910

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Dec. 1st, 1910.

The undersigned, Governor, Comptroller and Treasurer of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of Chapter 116 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1910, will receive proposals for $250,000 4 per cent. Public Highways Loan of 1910, Series "A".

$250,000 of Series "A" of the Public Highways Loan of 1910, issued under the provisions of Chapter 116 of the Acts of 1910, will be dated January 2nd, 1911, bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each and every year, and the principal will be redeemable at the pleasure of the State after the first day of January in the year 1921, and the whole debt will be payable on the first day of January, 1926.

The said debt is exempt from State, County and Municipal taxation, and will be issued in bond form with coupons attached.

Said proposals must be delivered, sealed, to the Treasurer of the State, at Annapolis, on or before 12 o'clock NOON of the 2nd day of January, 1911 and must be at the price, accrued interest to date of delivery in all cases to be added thereto, and have endorsed on the envelope "Proposals for Public Highways Loan of 1910." Each bid must be accompanied with a certified check on some responsible banking institution for five per centum of the amount of such bid, and the same will be opened in the office of the State Treasurer in the City of Annapolis, at 12 o'clock NOON, January 2nd, 1911, in the presence of the undersigned.

On the opening of such proposals so many of said coupon bonds as have been bid for, not exceeding, however, the amount for which proposals are invited, may be awarded by said Governor, Comptroller of the Treasury and Treasurer, or a majority of them, to the highest responsible bidder or bidders for cash; and when two or more bidders have made the same bid, which bids are the highest, and if the amounts so bid for by the highest responsible bidders are in excess of the whole amount of said bonds so offered for sale, then such bonds may be awarded to such highest responsible bidders bidding the same price in the proportion which the amount each has bid for bears to the whole amount of said bonds so offered for sale.

These bonds will be issued in the denomination of $1,000, and subject to registration as to principal, and will be deliverable January 10th, 1911, at the office of the State Treasurer, in the City of Annapolis.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

The Reason Why

We Sell More

Building Materials of all Kinds

Lumber and Mill Work

Than Our Competitors

Is Because We Undersell Them

Our Prices are always less than the other fellow wants for the same goods. If you don't believe it, ask us for a price on something. We are after the business, and to get it we will give prices that can't be beat. Don't be misled on Quality and Grading. You know there's a difference, but you can't always detect it. The unscrupulous dealer knows this and takes advantage of your inexperience by giving you lower grade than you pay for. Our Quality is absolutely guaranteed. Our Grading is standard among the thousands Who Know. Send Us An Inquiry To-day.

We're out to undersell the other fellow and save you money—and we do it.

TRIFLING REASONS FOR DIVORCE

FORCED WIFE TO SHAVE HIM.—Because her husband forced her to shave him, cut his hair and polish his shoes, Mrs. Addie V. Leeak, of St. Louis, got a decree of divorce from her husband, J. Freeman Leeak, but the Court set it aside.

Mrs. Leeak obtained her decree from Judge Shields November 10, but the husband declared that there were material misrepresentations. Mr. Leeak could not be found when his wife's petition was filed, and service was by publication on Mrs. Leeak's affidavit, that so far as she could ascertain her husband was not a resident of Missouri.

PINCHED SLEEPY HUSBAND.—Fred. H. Pratt, manager of the American Paint Company, of Cleveland, obtained a divorce from Mrs. Margaret Pratt, now living in New York.

Chief of the allegations of cruelty put forward by Mr. Pratt was a charge that his wife pinched him to keep him awake to listen to her at night and that when pinching did not accomplish the purpose she rolled him out of bed and beat him soundly.

They could not agree on religious questions, Mr. Pratt said. Once she shot at him in the street, Mr. Pratt testified.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of CLARENCE LEWIS SHAW who died one year ago, November 15.

A little life is ended,
A dear one is laid at rest.
The flower lovingly tended—
But God He knoweth best.

As pure as lily fair,
Unsullied by thoughts of wrong.
Unshadowed by sin or care.
His life a beautiful song.

But God in His wisdom an angel sent
To pluck this flower fair;
Henceforth his beauty shall be spent
In His heavenly garden there.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

Death has robbed us of our brother,
Who we loved and cherished dear,
It was brother yes, dear brother,
Can we help but shed a tear?

Yes we miss him, oh, we miss him,
When we see his vacant chair.
But how sad the home without him
For there is no baby there.
