FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONICS POWDERED

A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE FAIRFIELD PREPARATIONS ARE SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE BY WEDDING EVENTS.

"Harmony Hall," the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Archibald was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday at noon when their eldest daughter, Marguerite became the bride of Mr. Edward Porter of Church Hill. The parlor was tastefully trimmed with evergreen and potted plants. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march rendered by Mrs. Walter S. Hill, cousin of the bride. The bride wore a traveling suit of navy blue with hat and gloves to match and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by her sister Miss Mary Archibald as maid of honor who wore a gown of cadet blue silk with Persian trimmings and large black picture hat and carried a boquet of white carnations and ferns. The groom was attended by his brother Mr. Medford Porter who wore the conventional black with white buttoneers. After the wedding breakfast was served in the dining room where the color scheme was green and red; Mr. and Mrs. Porter took the train for an extended wedding trip to Washington and elsewhere. They received many beautiful gifts consisting of cut glass, silver, hand-painted china, bric-a-brac, etc.

Mr. James Franklin Williams, of Queen Anne's, and Miss Mary Lillian Usilton, daughter of Mrs. H. Clay Usilton, of Kent county, were married at the residence of Mr. Bertie Crouch in Chestertown, on Thursday, Dec. 15th, by Dr. L. E. Barnett.

Wedded.—Miss Ethel Soloway of Cecil county, and Mr. Kent Vickers, of Broad Neck, this county, were married Wednesday, Dec 14th, at Christ Church parsonage, Chestertown, by Rev. F. T. Little.

A Big Xmas.—Old Santa Claus is certainly drawing large crowds of people to Medders & Co.'s, Still Pond. People are going there from all over the county and seem to enjoy the sights. Hot coffee and lunches are served each day and the place is like a bee-hive. It is an interesting place to visit. Old Kris is to make another visit sometime next week.

EGGS VERSUS CORN

In the memory of Kent's oldest inhabitants the fact that a dozen eggs are bringing more than a bushel of corn was never known before. Some merchants in Kent are offering to pay 52 cents per dozen for eggs while corn is bringing only 47 cents per bushel! It might be added however that the market price of eggs is 42 cents.

SLEIGHING'S FINE.

High street, Chestertown, was alive with merry sleighers this week and the sleighing was as fine as ever seen here.

Tuesday afternoon at the height of the sport Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rash riding behind West Morrell was coming down High street racing "Boxer" driven by Mrs. J. B. Hossinger and Mr. Earle Nicholson's chestnut gelding when J. E. Morris' carriage crossed the road at the Voshell House and caused an accident. Mr. and Mrs. Rash were thrown out and both suffered sprained ankles. The shaft of sleigh were broken and the safe horse trotted down as far as the post-office where he was caught and returned to the owner. Considerable excitement was caused but only these were hurt in any wise.

Mrs. J. B. Hossinger behind "boxer" showed the "boys" the way down town. John B., with Capt. Bill Thompson in charge, showed up well, as did West Morrill, the "King of all," and the following: W. C. Townsend, Earle Nicholson, Jos. Watson, Frank Miller, Leonard Price, T. G. Wroth, C. E. Crane, J. Kennard Aldridge, R. J. McWhorter, Ralph Barnett and J. Stouffer, Frank Skirven, W. T. Nicholson, Wm. J. Vannort, Leon Brown, W. W. Beck, A. Story, Chas. Jessop, Harry Nichols, Raymond Walbert, G. V. Hendrickson, Bert Sheppard, Roy Loller, W. Lee, S. Nickerson, Preston Ivens, R. G. Nicholson, Albert Jervis, Walter Bramble, A. W. Vansant and many others.

Hardware Store.—Graham & Clements are too busy to tell the NEWS readers of their Xmas display. Call and see the pretty and useful articles displayed. This store is called the "full line hardware store," which means stoves, repairs, oils, tin for roofing, etc.
