ALL OVER NOW

Thank you all and wishing you "compliments of the season. We are,

Yours respectfully,

MOODY & LUSBY.

Now—we inaugurate (at once) our well established "Getting Rid of" Sales which should be of vital interest to all our line.

ODDS AND ENDS

in all departments must be cleaned up. Consequently we are quoting prices that will hurry them out. So don't put off for tomorrow what you didn't do day before yesterday. But get in early while we have fair assortment.

"CULLINGS"

We have assorted out all Odds and Ends from our regular lines, one and two Suits and Overcoats of a kind and marked prices on them like this—

Boys' Straight Short Pants Suits, $2.38
Youth's Long Pants Suits, - - - $2.50
Men's Suits, - - - - - - - - - $3.50

We call these "cullings." But if you'll examine them and compare with some you see for more money, no doubt they will be graded No. 1. At any rate we are willing to abide by your decision in the matter.

Another is a lot of Juvenile Suits and Overcoats which we intend to discontinue, 4 to 9 years, that will be closed at one-half their intrinsic value.

Hats, Neckwear, Gloves, Underwear and all the little perquisites carefully looked after and if you will make note of these little things and the difference in cost to you the saving in time will surprize you.

Do you know that we sell the best Stockings for Men and Boys that you can get? Well, we do. Men's 6 Pairs, brown or black, for 75c, that with ordinary care will wear you for twelve months. Boys' Long Ones. 2 pairs for 25c, the best you ever saw at the price and so on through the various lines.

Don't overlook these apparently little things. We haven't for we appreciate the fact—if you don't get the proper sort they'll be quite expensive to you. Look our various lines over before the holiday trade comes on.

Personal * * * * and Social

Charles T. Westcott, Esq., was last week re-elected a director of the Delaware Railroad.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Thursday with a big dinner. Among those out of county were his sons, Messrs. Frank and Walter Hill, of Baltimore. Dinner was served from 2 to 4 to a large company.

Mrs. Dr. H. G. Simpers entertained about thirty of her lady friends on Wednesday afternoon last at an elegant social affair.

Mr. Walter Bennett of Chestertown, left this week for Vincennes, Ind., where he has secured a desirable position under Supt. Quantz in the paper mill at that place.

Miss Rose Vickers in company with a number of school friends, is touring Canada and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson visited Baltimore this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Ivens, of Camden, N. J., spent several days this week with the former's mother, Mrs. S. A. Ivens.

Messrs. Robt. Ross and Wilmer Coleman, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday in town.

Miss Fannie Wallace, of Church Hill, is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Sides.

Dr. Josiah Penniman, Professor of English Literature at the University of Pennsylvania, who in 1904 received the degree of LL. D. from Washington College, Md., has been elected Vice-Provost of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Penniman is one of the most popular professors at the University. Up to within a year ago he was Dean of the College Faculty, but resigned from that office in order to devote himself to research in the history of English Literature. He is the author of numerous books, pamphlets, articles, etc., upon this subject.

Mrs. Charles H. Jefferson has been on the sick list during the past week but we are glad to state that she is improving.

Mr. James D. Lucas and family have removed to the Hurlock farm near Massey where they will make their future home.

Miss Hester Russell was called to Denton last week on account of the illness of her sister, Mrs. Clinton Cook.

Miss Ella Benton, of Piney Neck, has been visiting Miss Mary Mulford in town. Miss Mary has returned from a visit to her sister in Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. Truitt will return to Chestertown next month, having rented the Ivens house on Queen street, near High.

Mrs. W. R. Graham, of Salisbury, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. N. Dodd, who is convalescent from a long illness. Mrs. William Hines and son, of St. Mary's, are also here.

Mr. Samuel Kreeger, the efficient jeweler, has been spending the week with his parents in North Carolina.

Mrs. A. P. Matthews advertises her coal yard and store for sale in this issue.

Our esteemed friend, Mr. Wilbur Eliason, is contemplating removing to Chestertown, provided he can make satisfactory arrangements. Mr. Joseph Everett will tenant his farm and Mr. Michael Everett will remove to the Queen Anne's farm of his brother. Mr. Eliason and his family will be welcome residents.

Mr and Mrs. W. F. Wiggins and their daughter, Miss Ethel, left Chestertown Monday for Florida, where they will spend several months. Mr. and Mrs. Burkett, of Denton, are occupying Mr. Wiggins' home.

Mr. Joseph Guest is visiting his sister in Delaware and his daughter in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Jane Usilton celebrated her 78th birthday Wednesday at the home of her son in Philadelphia. She is enjoying excellent health and received a number of souvenir cards.

Mr. Walter W. Derr, the organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Church, Centreville, leaves to-day (Saturday) for San Francisco, Cal., where he will make his home for the next year as the special representative of the American Bonding Co. of Baltimore for the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berger have just returned home after a pleasant visit at the home of the latter's brother, Rev. David J. Moore, of Elk Neck. They also spent a few days in Baltimore with friends and relatives.

Miss Mary J. Reeee, of Berwyn, Penn., who has been ill for some two months or more with pneumonia, returned to town on New Years's day where she will be for quite a while until she fully recovers and gets a much needed rest. She is staying with her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Reese, on Main street.

A delightful surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Downey, near Rock Hall, last Wednesday evening. Various games were indulged in until midnight. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock. Among those present were:
