"I have but one Lamp by which my feet are guided and that is the lamp of Experience." PATRICK HENRY.

Seventeen years ago the KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK began business in the midst of a panic that closed the doors of many of the strongest Banks in America.

Since that time it has survived all panics and successfully met all competition. For 5 years it paid 3% on savings or time deposits before any other Bank in Kent county paid anything.

Then the Chestertown National Bank, the richest and strongest bank in this section, advertised to pay 4% on deposits. It had a surplus and profits nearly equal to its capital; but when it wound up it had sunk its surplus, profits and part of its capital stock.

The last Bank to advertise 4% for deposits except a recent venture was the Galena Bank of the Farmers' Trust, Banking & Deposit Co., of mournful memory; and the echo of its crash still lingers, and its depositors still smart from their losses.

Does not Experience teach?

Therefore deposit your money in the soundest, strongest Savings Bank in this part of Maryland and be sure of your Principal and Interest when you need it.

We issue no long time certificates of deposit that will prevent you getting your money should you want it.

Remember, that "Safety Beyond All Else," has always been the motto of this, the Pioneer Savings Institution of this part of Maryland.

So bring your deposits to us where the same rate of interest is paid on SMALL DEPOSITS as on GREAT and all are treated alike.

These will protect your interests.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. George W, Rollison, of Chestertown, and Miss Anna Mahearty, of Wilmington, Del., were married by Rev. Wolfe of Asbury M. E. Church, Wilmington, Del., January 10, 1911.

LEE—STOUFFER

Mr. Frederick L. Lee, a well-known business man of Millington, and Miss Blanche T. Stouffer, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stouffer, on the Lambert farm in Queen Anne's, were married Wednesday evening in Christ Church parsonage, Chestertown, by Dr. F. T. Little. They will reside at Millington.

JARRELL—PRETTYMAN.

Miss Lilly May Prettyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prettyman, near Smyrna, and Ernest Jarrell, a popular young farmer, were quietly married at Dover District Parsonage, in that town, last Wednesday afternoon, at 1.30 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. R. K. Stephenson. Miss Mary Prettyman, the brides' sister, was maid of honor and John W. Vane, the bride's cousin, was best man. After hearty congratulations had been said Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell left on the 2.17 train for a wedding trip to Hartford, Conn. The groom will begin farming on a place near Brenford on March the first after which date they will be "at home."

"500" CLUB ENTERTAINED.

On Wednesday night Miss Edith Robinson entertained the members of the "500" club at her home at Shrewsbury Rectory. A number of interesting games were played, at the conclusion of which a salad course was served. High scores were made by Mr. Ed. Wallis and Miss Mattie Hepburn, the souvenirs being a silver match box and an Irish crochet collar. Mr. Harry Hendrickson received the consolation souvenir. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Comegys, Mrs. Biddle Hossinger, Mrs. Paul Massey, Misses Mattie and Edith Hepburn, Elizabeth Pennington, Emma Davis; Messrs. E. B. Pennington, Jr., Edmund Hurtt, Edwin Wallis, Walter Davis, Edward Hepburn, Harry Hendrickson, Hanson and Wroth Stavely and Wilfrid Robinson.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

The body of Mr. John W. Bordley, who died in Chicago Jan. 9th, reached Chestertown on Monday, and funeral services were held from the residence of Mr. M. A. Toulson, conducted by Rev. L E. Barrett, D. D. The interment was in Chester cemetery. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were C. W. Wroth, W. T. Pippin, T. S. Bordley, M. A. Toulson, M. W. Thomas, W. B. Copper.

Mrs. Catherine Miller, wife of Mr. Henry Miller, a well-known barber of Baltimore, died at her home in that city last Saturday morning. The deceased was before marriage Miss Kate Green, and was well and favorably known in Chestertown, having clerked for Mr Charles S. Smith for several years. "Aunt Kate" was a faithful saleslady, with a most agreeable and affable disposition. Besides her husband she is survived by two brothers, Messrs. Nicholas and Thomas Green, and a number of nephews and neices, among the latter being Mrs. Charles S. Smith.

On Sunday morning, January 22, that hour made sacred by the first token of the resurrection, the spirit of Miss Edna Pearl Wilson passed on to the Homeland. After more than two years of suffering from a complication of maladies which baffled the utmost efforts of love and skill, Miss Wilson looked forward to the inevitable change with patient resignation; though, with that tenacity of affection which was one of her strongest characteristics, she clung with lingering tenderness to those whom she loved.

On Tuesday morning she was carried from her parents' home, 610 N. Broadway, Baltimore, to Galena, Md., where twenty-four years ago on the twenty-third of last December, she was born. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. F. C. Lewis, were held at eleven o'clock in the Galena M. E. Church, followed by interment in the churchyard. Undertaker W. T. Hicks, of Chestertown, had entire charge of arrangements.

Miss Wilson is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, of Baltimore; a brother, Mr. W. A. Wilson, Jr., of Kent county; and one sister, Miss Bessie Gladys Wilson.

The brightest rainbow spans the darkest cloud;
Spring's fragrant promise hides beneath the snow;
And Sorrow e'en a cup of joy doth hold,
For God hath given a balm with every woe:
We know that, just a little way beyond,
The Home-land lies, where partings are no more,
Where loved ones, freed from weariness and pain,
Await our coming to that happy shore.

A SPLENDID SUCCESS

The supper given at Firemen's Hall on Thureday evening last by the ladies of Chestertown, for the benefit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co., was a magnificent success, both financially and socially. The ladies of the whole town entered into the affair with vim and enthusiasm and it was bound to be a success. It was one of the best suppers ever served. Turkey, chicken, duck, chicken and potato salads, fried oysters and various trimmings were partaken of by nearly 400 persons. The supper committee was under the general supervision of Mrs. George B. Westcott, Mrs. John H. Simpers. Mrs. Fred. H. Russell and Mrs. James T. Dixon.

Three long tables, seating about 100 persons, were beautifully decorated with lighted candles, evergreen, etc. One table was in charge of Mesdames Wm. R. Aldridge, J. Hydie Thompson, J. E. Ferguson, Chas. S. Smith, T. D. Bowers and J. H. Sides. Table number two by Mesdames A. A. Harris, J. D. Welch, C. W. Whaland, H. G. Simpers, P. A. M. Brooks and Miss Rebecca Wickes. Table number three in charge of Mesdames Merrick Clements, R. F. Parks, M. E. Newsome, H. F. Jefferson, S. A. Ford and Wm. E. Moody. The candy table realized about $50 from cakes and sweets, and was managed by Misses Fannie and Bessie Stuart, Hallie Westcott, Maud Duyer, Nettie Sutton.

It is expected that the net receipts will amount to about $250—a splendid result. When the ladies of Chestertown unite upon any one object they can beat the world.

RAILROAD TO FAIRLEE!

Telephones Increasing — The Up-To-Date Fairlee Grange — "Old West End's" Other Interesting News.

What do you think! There is some talk of the Pennsylvania extending her railroad system through Fairlee on to Rock Hall. As we have noted before, we have a live, wide-awake town, but when we get the railroad our existing activity will be doubled because of the fact that we will branch out, dealing in heavier commodities, viz: coal, lime, lumber, &c., which we cannot handle now to any advantage because of the long distance that we have to haul.

Mr. Mahlon P. Lee has had a telephone installed in his home during the week. It will not be long before we will be able to reach almost any one with whom we may have business without driving several miles. Everybody have a telephone! You will find it a paying investment.

The Fairlee Grange, as usual, held a very interesting session last Wednesday evening. More than fifty were present, though the evening was not an ideal one as regards weather conditions. Next Wednesday evening a class of about seventeen will be initiated. The membership of this village order is simply immense, about equaling the membership of all the other Granges in the county combined; but when in session it is a very wieldy body, working in parliamentary order.

Wild geese flying around.

Fox hunters having fine chases.

There are so many pleasureable social events this season.

The finest collection of singers in the county—the Fairlee Grange choir.

Fishermen busy getting gill-net poles and sharpening and barking them.

Mr. Ham Middleton is a great pigeon man. They are beautiful flying around.

Our farmers have young lambs skipping around—more than usual for this early in the season.

Mr. W. T. J. Keyser, Easton, was in the village Wednesday evening and looks the picture of health.

Capt. W. W. Price caught his foot in wire a few days ago, fell and sustained severe bruises about his face.

The first of the present month Salem (Fairlee) Sunday-school elected the following officers: Honorary Superintendent, Mrs. L. J. Legg; who for more than twenty years was the efficient active superintendent; superintendent, Azariah M. Kendall; assistant superintendent, Walter B Barnes; secretary, Miss Annie Leaverton; librarian, James Foreman; assistant librarian, Harry Lee; treasurer, Miss Carrie I. Smyth; organist, Miss Fannie M. Ward.

"Sorry to know West End is getting old" — Rock Hall Correspondent and West End's true friend. Now, look here Joe, don't grieve so, for your friend feels just about as young as he used to be, physically, knowing very well that one is as "old as he makes himself." We had in mind at the time we used the term old, the point of senority in the field of contributors, dating back to the 70's then, as Sharp Simon, at the time Simon Sharp—Rev. Howard Meeks—was in the arena. By the way, my esteemed scribe, I think your advent dates back to about the same decade, and I confer upon you the honor of holding the pencil very regularly, gracefully and intelligently during the lapse of years —OLD WEST END.

Instructive Lecture.—"Life in the Middle Ages" was the subject of the illustrated lecture at Washington College on Wednesday evening last. This was the second of the winter series of lectures. The lecturer was C. Delisle Burns, B A., M. A., of Ware, England. He was a typical Englishman with the accent and dress characteristic of the English lecturers. It was very instructive and gave a clear insight into the life and habits of our English ancestors of the 14th century. The next lecture will be next Wednesday night, "Folk-Lore and Folk-Songs of England," by A. Foxton Ferguson, of England

Mr and Mrs. Harry Cecil, of Rolph's Wharf, entertained very pleasantly a company of young people at their home on Friday evening of last week. Games of every kind were indulged in when refreshments were served. Among those present were: Misses Edith Walls, Ethel Walls, Louise Smith Louise Pratt, Emma Leager, Addie Everett, Lena Smith, Edna Edwards, Nettie Smith, Margaret Smith, Edyth Carey, Bertha Meredith; Messrs Charles Quimby, Lester Spry, Earle Fowler, Bill Faulkner, Earle Stoffer, Grover Coleman. — Groves, Julian Carter, John Barnes, Fred. Robinson, Jewel Armstrong, Albert Leager, Charles Meredith, Earle Meredith and others.
