TRADING STAMP ACT IS DECLARED INVALID

Court Of Appeals Sustains Ruling Of Baltimore City Tribunal—Gambling Spirit Is Not Involved Legislature Cannot Prohibit.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 2.—In an opinion filed through Judge Pattison today the Maryland Court of Appeals holds that the act of the last Legislature, commonly known as the trading stamp law, is unconstitutional and sustains the ruling of the Baltimore court from which the appeal was taken. There were three cases appealed, all involving the validity of the law, but in only one of these did the Court file a lengthy opinion. This was the appeal of the State against Henry Caspara and Frederick Caspara. The other cases—State against Joseph Feizer and State against Frederick Caspara—are referred to rulings in the Caspara case.

Today's opinion holds broadly that the present manner of conducting the trading stamp business does not involve such chance and uncertainity as to arouse the gambling spirit. "We do not think that the uncertainity complained of, without which the business of trading stamp companies would be destroyed, to the injury of the defendants and others, as alleged by the appellant, is an element of chance which partakes of the nature of a lottery of gambling and which appeals to the gambling instinct."

Legislature Powerless.

Referring to the right of the Legislature to pass such a law under the guise of policing powers, the Court holds that a police power must show that it is for the interests of the general public as against a specified or protected class. "The Legislature must not under this gnise of protecting the public interest arbitrarily interfere with private, legitimate business."

"It's determination of what is a proper exercise of its police power is not final or conclusive, but subject to the supervision of the courts.

"The power of the Legislature to fix the valve of the stamps no more exists than the power to fix for the defendants the price of the merchandise sold by them, and this power the Legislature did not have."

"It is too apparent that the requirements and conditions imposed were not to regulate but to prohibit the issuance of the stamps," says the Court of Appeals in referring to the act passed in 1910.

The opinion is a long one, covering 25 pages of typewritten matter, giving not only the whole history of the present cases but referring fully to other cases of a somewhat similar nature which have been passed upon before by this court.

A New Sensation.—If you long for a new sensation take a trip in a denigible balloon over Switzerland with Lyman H. Howe at Stam's Hall, on Wednesday, February 15. You won't suffer from "airsickness" nor be in danger of a fatal "drop," and yet experience an exhilirating thrill which is unlike any you have ever known. Then, too, you will have a ride on the swiftest motor boat ever built, the Ursula of 800 horse power; a tour through London, Indo-China, and the Gorges De L'Ardeche, France; witness the construction and launch of an ocean palace, the White Star Liner, "Olympic"; spectacular demolition of buildings by dynamite in Messina; landing passengers in a rough sea at Tunis; a dangerous, the bloodless bull fight, in Spain; and many other features of equal interest. Many of these scenes are presented in the actual hues of nature which enhance the beauty and realism of Mr. Howe's new program far beyond any he has ever shown.

Splendid for the Blood

"Being all run down last spring I was advised to take Pinkham's Blood Purifier. I tried one bottle, and got such quick relief that by the time I had taken three bottles I felt like a new person. After taking the medicine I gained twenty pounds in three months." — AARON WINSLOW, 60 Washington Street, Lynn, Mass.

At this season of the year almost every one needs a reliable blood purifier or spring medicine. This is indicated by that tired, "dragged-out" feeling — humors and eruptions which appear on the face and body, — and unless the blood is purified and enriched more serious consequences are liable to follow.

Pinkham's Blood Purifier

The best spring and blood medicine, is prepared by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, of Lynn, Mass. You know this Company. You know that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard medicine for women; your common-sense tells that the company which owns so successful and valuable a medicine as that could never afford to risk its reputation by putting on the market any other medicine not of the same high degree of excellence. When you buy medicine prepared by this company you get the best, and Pinkham's Blood Purifier is The Best.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, Maryland, in Equity, No. 1762.

James S. Bradley, Plaintiff, versus
Fannie Davis, Milbourn A. Toulson, Laura T. Lambert, Mattie Gilmore, Benjamin H. Toulson, Ford Toulson, Sallie Crispin, Mary M. Greenwood, J. Thomas Toulson, and Mildred G. Davis, Laura R. Davis and William C. Davis, Infants, Defendants.

THE object of the Bill filed in the above entitled suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain vacant lands located on the southwest side of High street, in Chestertown, Kent county, State of Maryland, now in the possession of James S. Bradley, life tenant.

The Bill or petition states that Kate Bradley, formerly the wife of the said James S. Bradley, died seized of a tract of land fronting on said High street about 26 feet, and in which on her death, which occurred about April 29th, 1892, he became possessed of an estate for life and that the above entitled defendants are entitled as her heirs to the estate in remainder.

That the said lot, by reason of its improvements having been destroyed by fire in September, 1910, yields the plaintiff no income, although very valuable, and no sufficient sum derived from the fire insurance policies on the building destroyed by fire to erect a suitable structure thereon; and that the lot in its present unimproved state is detrimental to the welfare of the neighborhood and of Chestertown, as well as a burden and loss to the plaintiff, and he asks that the Court decree a sale of the lot and the net proceeds derived therefrom be invested under the supervision of said court and the net income therefrom paid to the plaintiff during his natural life and after that to be distributed among the above named defendants or those entitled thereto.

That the above entitled Mattie Gilmore, No. 3406 Chrystal street, Benjamin A. Toulson, No. 4630 A street and Wyoming avenue, Ford Toulson, 2218 Ridge avenue, all of the city of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania; and James H. Toulson, of Woodstown, and Sallie Crispin, of Elsinboro, both of Salem county, State of New Jersey, are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon on this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1911, by the Circuit Court for Kent county, State of Maryland, in Equity, ordered that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of March, A. D. 1911, give notice to the said absent and non-resident defendants of the object and substance of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 23rd day of March next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
